

"CYLENZ" CORK FLOORING

The modern floor covering, used largely in Offices, Hospitals, and wherever a silent "tread" is desired. Produces a pleasing restfulness in the home.

A specimen floor has been laid in our Showroom, China Building, and those interested are invited to make an inspection.

Full particulars from
C. E. WARREN & CO., LTD.
China Building. Tel. 20269.

Dollar on Demand Telegraph
(for the Hong Kong and Shanghai Post, Ltd.)
110, 112, 114, 116, 118, 120, 122, 124, 126, 128, 130, 132, 134, 136, 138, 140, 142, 144, 146, 148, 150, 152, 154, 156, 158, 160, 162, 164, 166, 168, 170, 172, 174, 176, 178, 180, 182, 184, 186, 188, 190, 192, 194, 196, 198, 200, 202, 204, 206, 208, 210, 212, 214, 216, 218, 220, 222, 224, 226, 228, 230, 232, 234, 236, 238, 240, 242, 244, 246, 248, 250, 252, 254, 256, 258, 260, 262, 264, 266, 268, 270, 272, 274, 276, 278, 280, 282, 284, 286, 288, 290, 292, 294, 296, 298, 300, 302, 304, 306, 308, 310, 312, 314, 316, 318, 320, 322, 324, 326, 328, 330, 332, 334, 336, 338, 340, 342, 344, 346, 348, 350, 352, 354, 356, 358, 360, 362, 364, 366, 368, 370, 372, 374, 376, 378, 380, 382, 384, 386, 388, 390, 392, 394, 396, 398, 400, 402, 404, 406, 408, 410, 412, 414, 416, 418, 420, 422, 424, 426, 428, 430, 432, 434, 436, 438, 440, 442, 444, 446, 448, 450, 452, 454, 456, 458, 460, 462, 464, 466, 468, 470, 472, 474, 476, 478, 480, 482, 484, 486, 488, 490, 492, 494, 496, 498, 500, 502, 504, 506, 508, 510, 512, 514, 516, 518, 520, 522, 524, 526, 528, 530, 532, 534, 536, 538, 540, 542, 544, 546, 548, 550, 552, 554, 556, 558, 560, 562, 564, 566, 568, 570, 572, 574, 576, 578, 580, 582, 584, 586, 588, 590, 592, 594, 596, 598, 600, 602, 604, 606, 608, 610, 612, 614, 616, 618, 620, 622, 624, 626, 628, 630, 632, 634, 636, 638, 640, 642, 644, 646, 648, 650, 652, 654, 656, 658, 660, 662, 664, 666, 668, 670, 672, 674, 676, 678, 680, 682, 684, 686, 688, 690, 692, 694, 696, 698, 700, 702, 704, 706, 708, 710, 712, 714, 716, 718, 720, 722, 724, 726, 728, 730, 732, 734, 736, 738, 740, 742, 744, 746, 748, 750, 752, 754, 756, 758, 760, 762, 764, 766, 768, 770, 772, 774, 776, 778, 780, 782, 784, 786, 788, 790, 792, 794, 796, 798, 800, 802, 804, 806, 808, 810, 812, 814, 816, 818, 820, 822, 824, 826, 828, 830, 832, 834, 836, 838, 840, 842, 844, 846, 848, 850, 852, 854, 856, 858, 860, 862, 864, 866, 868, 870, 872, 874, 876, 878, 880, 882, 884, 886, 888, 890, 892, 894, 896, 898, 900, 902, 904, 906, 908, 910, 912, 914, 916, 918, 920, 922, 924, 926, 928, 930, 932, 934, 936, 938, 940, 942, 944, 946, 948, 950, 952, 954, 956, 958, 960, 962, 964, 966, 968, 970, 972, 974, 976, 978, 980, 982, 984, 986, 988, 990, 992, 994, 996, 998, 1000.

The Hongkong Telegraph

FOUNDED 1861
No. 11318

五拜禮

號九廿月六英港香

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1934.

日八十月五

SINGLE COPY 10 CENTS
$30.00 PER ANNUM

DUNLOP
Fort
TYRES

are made for those who prefer
SUPERLATIVE QUALITY

F. J. PERRY WINS SPECTACULAR FIVE-SET DUEL

Dazzling Display of Terrific Hitting: Menzel's Brightest

A DEVASTATING FIRST SET

HURRICANE SERVICE SHOCKS BRITON

GREAT COME-BACK

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic News Service, London, June 29, 1934, 11.31 a.m.)

London, June 28. Frederick John Perry, the world's fastest tennis player, and England's finest exponent of the game for over two generations, gave a typically dazzling display of terrific hitting against R. Menzel, the Czechoslovakian ace at Wimbledon to-day, as a result of which Perry entered the last sixteen in the men's singles.

It was one of the greatest fights of his career.

The match was easily the most spectacular yet staged during the current meeting. Menzel, against such a doughty opponent, pulled out his best strokes, and in a match of magnificent fighting tennis took Perry to 0-6, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, before admitting defeat.

Not since the days of "Big Bill" Tilden has Wimbledon seen such devastating serving as that of Menzel's in the first set against Perry.

TERRIFIC SERVICE.

It was so fast that the flight of the ball could scarcely be discerned, and one smashing ace which Perry did not even catch a whiff, nearly knocked the racket out of the Englishman's hand.

The general opinion around the court was that Menzel's serving during the early stages of the match was fully equal to Tilden at his best.

But although driven completely on the defensive by Menzel's service, Perry held the balance in other phases of the game.

He drove with amazing power and precision, finding the side and base lines with unerring accuracy.

Menzel, refusing to be outplayed off the ground, returned drive for drive, but he could not sustain accuracy like his opponent, and was lured into many errors.

THRILLING EXCHANGES.

Both players stormed the net on the slightest pretext, and spectators were thrilled with some glorious volleying at which Perry again excelled, being mastery in his angle volleying and stop volleys.

Menzel absolutely overpowered his opponent in the first set, and Perry had the now rare experience of losing a set to love. It was Menzel's serving which did the trick. Perry took the whole of the set to "find" it, and to discover means of an adequate return and counter.

He accomplished this in the second set, and thereafter, although always dangerous, Menzel's service lost much of its potency.

SIZZLING DRIVES.

Perry, instituting a driving campaign, drove the Czech back on the defensive. In the second set and went to his points after conceding three games.

Menzel, however, was still formidable, and despite the extraordinary pace of the exchanges, maintained a firm grip. There was a titanic struggle for leadership in the third set from

F. J. Perry in a smashing mood.

MARIE DRESSLER

Strong Will May Pull Patient Through

New York, June 28. Marie Dressler, lying ill at Santa Barbara, California, is now in a critical condition.

Her doctors, however, are of opinion that her strong will may enable her to pull through. Enquiries are pouring in from all over the United States.—Reuter.

AIR DISPLAY IN CANTON

"RIVAL" FORCES IN A MIMIC WAR

Canton, June 29. A magnificent air display is promised by the Canton air forces to-day. All Army planes are to be divided into two "hostile" squadrons, one defending the city, while the other will subject it to a "severe air attack."

The mimic air warfare was started this morning.—Central News.

which Menzel emerged triumphant.

During this period he too raided the net after some sizzling drives on both hands, and after twelve exciting games broke through once again to lead.

MENZEL BREAKS.

It was noticeable when the players returned from their rest that Perry was much the fresher. He again set up a fierce attack, exposing Menzel to a merciless hail of drives to all parts of the court, and following up with crisp and definite volleying and smashing.

Menzel gradually gave way, and once Perry had broken through at the tenth game to level the scores, he was a beaten man.

The Englishman, gathering all his resources in the fifth set, just leaped away from his opponent, and playing very nearly as well as in the three previous sets, had the Czech tied up. Perry conceded only two games in this final stanza, and thus entered the last sixteen as a result of the most spectacular victory of the tournament.—Reuter.

WINDFALL FOR THE TREASURY

Lord Tredegar's Two Million Estate

London, June 28. The will was published to-day of Lord Tredegar, who left £2,369,685 in settled and unsettled estate. The amount of estate duty payable to the Treasury thereon is about £1,180,000.—British Wireless.

SILK DUTY IN BRITAIN

BIG INCREASES ANNOUNCED

THE ANGLO-FRENCH AGREEMENT

London, June 28. Special silk duties form one of the features of the agreement recently concluded between France and Britain.

In connection with the Anglo-French trade agreement, the Treasury has issued an order bringing into operation, as from July, a revised schedule for Customs and Excise duties on silk, artificial silk and articles made wholly or partly of silk or artificial silk.

The duties include special rates on eastern silks known as Shantung, Ninghai, Nanshan, Honan, Antung and Habutai, amounting to 3s. 6d. per pound where they are dyed or printed, and 2s. 9d. a pound where they are undyed or unprinted.

MADE-UP ARTICLES.

In the case of made-up articles, consisting wholly or partly of silk or artificial silk, the rates of duty are unchanged, except where the value of the silk or the artificial silk component exceeds five per cent, but does not exceed 20 per cent. of the aggregate values of all components of the article. In this case, the duty is increased from twenty to 25 per cent.

In addition to the duty per pound on the Eastern silks already specified, they will be subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of the full value of the article, or, in the case of dyed or printed tissues, 75d. per square yard, whichever is the greater.—Reuter.

DARROW REPORT ON N.R.A.

THIRD INSTALMENT COMPLETED

Washington, June 28.

The third instalment of the Darrow Report on the working of the National Recovery Administration codes and "Blue Eagle" practices, has been completed and forwarded to President Roosevelt.

The Darrow Board has now finished its work and will now disband.

Mr. Clarence Darrow, the veteran lawyer at the head of the Board, has already tendered his resignation.—Reuter.

An attempt to end her life by jumping into the harbour at low water off the Praya, at Wanchai yesterday, resulted in serious injuries being received by a married woman, Wong Ho, of No. 210 Jervois Street. She struck a cluster of rocks, she was sent to the Government Civil Hospital.

COTTON LEADS BY NINE STROKES

ASTOUNDING GOLF AT SANDWICH

13 UNDER PAR

MARKED WINNER AT HALF-WAY

London, June 28.

The winner of the British open golf championship for 1934 has practically inscribed his name on the trophy already—and the tournament has not yet passed the half-way stage.

Nothing like Henry Cotton's brilliant rounds has ever previously been witnessed in the championship, in succession by the same player, and his card of 65 to-day, setting a record for the Sandwich course, is the lowest score ever achieved in any national championship.

His effort throws even Lawson Little's superb round in the amateur championship into the shade. Little's round in the final aggregated 66, but Sandwich, with its par of 78, is a much more difficult course.

DEADLY ACCURACY.

Cotton's card did not include a single five. He played every hole with machine-like precision, and his work on the greens was sensational in its deadly accuracy.

He was out in 38 and home in 32, the card reading:

Out. . . . 4 3 8 4 4 3 4 4 4
Home. . . 4 3 4 4 4 4 3 3 3

In the result, of course, he finished the day with a tremendous lead over the rest of the field. A. H. Padgham, occupying second place, was nine strokes in arrears, and three players, equal third, including the American holder, Denmore Shute, and Kirkwood, who did a 69, were eleven strokes behind.

DAVIES IN FORM.

Unless Cotton suffers a remarkable breakdown and he has been staying out of competitive golf for some weeks, reserving himself for the championship, it seems impossible that he can be overtaken and Britain robbed of her first victory in the championship for eleven years.

Next to Cotton, the best card of to-day was turned in by W. H. Davies, the Cheshire player, who produced almost perfect golf to record a 68.

Gene Sarazen and Macdonald Smith, despite the latter's 71 on the second round, are practically out of the running, sixteen strokes behind the leader.

BEST AMATEUR.

Leslie Garnett continues to show the best form of the amateurs, but he could not improve on a 76, two below par, and is lying well behind the professionals in the field.

Only sixty-nine players, with scores of 163 or better, will play over the final thirty-six holes to-morrow.

LEADING SCORES.

Leading aggregates follow:
Henry Cotton (Burslem) 67+65=132
A. H. Padgham (Sundridge) 71+70=141
Denmore Shute, U.S.A. 71+72=143
Joe Kirkwood, U.S.A. 74+69=143
C. A. Whitcombe (Crows Hill) 71+72=143
J. Nolan, Ireland 73+71=144
Dallimore, France 74+70=144
W. H. Davies (Walsley) 70+68=144
Other scores include:
F. Taggart (Wimslow) 70+76=146
C. B. Denny (Thorpe Hall) 71+74=145
Bert Hodson (Chigwell) 71+74=145
P. Allie (Boscombe) 71+73=144
H. B. Laidlaw (Wentworth) 71+77=148
Gene Sarazen, U.S.A. 75+73=148
Macdonald Smith, U.S.A. 77+71=148
L. Garnett (Addington) 78+70=148.—Reuter.

Henry Cotton, whose astonishing golf at Sandwich has given him a lead of nine strokes in the British Open Golf Championship at the half-way stage. His total of 132 for 36 holes is regarded as one of the finest performances in golf history.

SHARP RISE IN SILVER

DOLLAR WELL BELOW PARITY

LAGGING BEHIND METAL PRICE

The Hongkong dollar again rose 1/8th this morning to 1s. 5 1/2d., and the local market remains steady. The dollar, is, however, still considerably below silver parity.

Within the past ten days, silver has risen 1 1/16d., but the Hongkong dollar has advanced only 1/8th. Parity is about 1s. 6 1/2d. The falling due of certain speculative contracts this month is one of the factors keeping the dollar below parity rate.

Silver is firm both in London and New York, where continued rises in the prices are reported.

SHARP RISE.

The American Oriental Finance Corporation report that Messrs. E. A. Pierce and Co., of New York, comment as follows on the silver market:—Futures were sharply higher on speculative buying of distant months and the market continued to absorb July offerings, which were credited to Government account. March option was sold at 48.64, within a fraction of fifty cents, the basis on which the Government is expected to value silver. It was the opinion of the market that this was the present objective of bull operators.

Messrs. White, Weld and Co., of New York, for whom Messrs. S. E. Levy and Co. are the local agents, report:—Prices are strong and are working into new high levels for the current movement. Observers expect further strength in view of the Government silver purchase plan.

GEN. HO CHIEN'S MISSION

ARRIVES ON VISIT TO HU HAN-MIN

After a series of conferences with the Canton leaders, General Ho Chien arrived in Hongkong early this morning from Canton by special train, in the company of the Mayor of Canton, Mr. Liu Chi-wen, and the Canton Finance Commissioner, Mr. Au Fong-po. Interviewed, General Ho Chien confirmed reports that the results of his conference with General Chan Chai-tong and Kwangsi officers had been satisfactory. He expects further success in his forthcoming meeting with Mr. Hu Han-min.

It is understood that Ho Chien will ask Mr. Hu Han-min to return to Nanking and share with Mr. Wang Ching-wei the administration of the Central Government. After meeting Mr. Hu Han-min, Ho Chien will submit the result of his mission to the Nanking Commander-in-Chief.

AN ARMS EFFORT ABANDONED

Committee Decides To Adjourn

Geneva, June 28. The Committee of the Disarmament Conference which is dealing with guarantees of execution has decided that in view of the diplomatic situation they can do no more useful work for the present. The Committee will meet again in the autumn.—Reuter.

STEEL STRIKE AVERTED

AN ARBITRATION BOARD

AGREED BY BOTH SIDES

Washington, June 28.

The threatened strike in the steel industry, which at one time seemed likely to bring half a million men out of work, has been averted.

A Board of Three will be appointed to arbitrate the differences. Both sides have agreed to accept the decisions of the Board, which will be selected by President Roosevelt.

The steel agreement was negotiated by Miss Perkins, the Secretary of Labour, the only woman in the American Cabinet, whose plan was approved by the President.

The Board has been appointed and consists of Judge Stacey, of North Carolina, Rear-Admiral (Ret.) H. E. Wiley, of New York, and James Mullenbach, of Chicago.

ROOSEVELT STATEMENT.

President Roosevelt has issued a statement proclaiming that the Board consists of impartial men of thoroughly independent judgment and fully empowered to act.

The functions of the Board will be limited to labour relations in the iron and steel industry. The President anticipates that the Board will serve to maintain industrial peace with justice and the further establishment of sound labour relations in this important industry.

He confidently expects the full cooperation of both sides.—Reuter.

Struck by a crane whilst unloading cargo from the steamer Col Di Lana yesterday, a labourer, Fan Sik, was injured and was sent to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment.

The quarantine restrictions imposed by the Government of the Straits Settlements against arrivals from Hongkong on account of small-pox have been removed.

GOOD PROGRESS

CLEARING-HOUSE NOT NOW NECESSARY?

ANGLO-GERMAN DISCUSSIONS

London, June 29.

It is understood that good progress has been made in the Anglo-German financial discussions, arising from the threatened moratorium on the Dawes and Young Loans, and Britain's counter-measures.

It is stated that there is now a reasonable prospect of an agreement which will obviate the necessity for the establishment of a clearing-office.

In the House of Lords this evening, the Debts Clearing Offices and Import Restrictions Repeals Bill was read a second time and passed the remaining stages.

Lord Stanhope, in moving the second reading, explained that the measure could apply not only to the case of Germany but to other countries also.

He expressed the hope that the negotiations proceeding with the German representatives would make it unnecessary to institute the clearing-house arrangements but it was nevertheless necessary that the Government should be given powers to take action against discrimination.—British Wireless.

AID FOR BRITISH SHIPPING

LIMITED SUBSIDIES POSSIBLE

London, June 28.

While the main feature of the Government scheme for helping British shipping will be the granting of financial guarantees for the construction of new merchant ships, on condition that three old vessels are scrapped for every new one, it is learned also that there are proposals for a limited subsidising of merchant ships which are competing against specially heavy foreign subsidies.—Reuter.

CEMENT WORKS RESTARTED

BUT ONLY ONE KILN IN OPERATION

After having been idle since October last, the Hok On works of the Green Island Cement Co., Ltd., have again resumed production, but only one of the two kilns is in operation. The resumption is in accordance with the intimation made by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, Mr. J. Scott Harston, at the annual general meeting of the Company on April 25 last.

DESIGNED AND PRICED TO MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS

The 1934 WILLYS "77"

gives you ECONOMY PERFORMANCE DEPENDABILITY

GILMAN'S TEL. 28011

OUR SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE

COMMENCING 30th JUNE

All the Latest
SUMMER GOODS
BATHING COSTUMES Etc.
RAINCOATS
HANDBAGS
GLOVES
STOCKINGS
TO CLEAR AT Lower than Cost
ELITE STYLES
A.P.C. BUILDING.

A GREAT STAGE HIT!

—now a greater picture!

In its eighth big month on Broadway, it holds packed audiences spellbound. Its drama, its romance, comes to the screen even more powerful and moving!

Clark GABLE
MYRNA LOY

MEN IN WHITE
with Jean Hersholt
Elizabeth Allan, Otto Kruger
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

QUEEN'S SUNDAY

SALE
Commencing Monday,
2nd July.
All Straw Hats at HALF PRICE.
Print Dresses were $12.50
NOW $6.75.
Washing Silk Dresses were $22.50
NOW $12.50.
Voile Silk Dresses were $26.00
NOW $15.00.
Organdie & Voile Semi Evening
Gowns were $39.00
NOW $23.00.

6, China Bldg.
Pedder St.
(opp. H.K. Hotel)

THE WORLD OF WOMEN

YOUR CHILDREN. Children Have Regard For Niceties

By Olive Roberts Barton.

Two mothers have related almost identical stories. It brings up a point that may refute the general concept of the child's indifference to the niceties of life, or that a boy is merely "a noise covered with dirt."

One small chap seven or eight years old said to his mother, "I wish you would tell Mrs. Jones not to talk the way she does. She talks so loud and her hands are always flying around. And she said, 'I ain't seen.' He also mentioned in the street car, after the motorman had remarked about "them door," that he had probably not gone to school.

His mother does not hail from Boston. She speaks correctly, of course, but has not accented grammar particularly in her home. Likewise his father. And the boy is not far enough along in school to have any grammar obsession from that source. As a matter of fact, the mother was surprised and amused in both cases. "And Bert is no prissy," she added. "He's as tough as the next one," which speech shows that she can use expressive American when she wants to.

Instinctively Cultured.

It just happens that this boy, nicely brought up, but a household plant, has an instinctive leaning toward culture or at least correct speech. Oh, that there were more of him.

The other story concerns a three-year-old. On a busy day, his "second course" was served on the plate he had cleared with a busy little fork. He held up his dish and remarked, "It's dirty."

His mother's first impulse was to change for a clean plate, but wondering if he was just notionate and scheming for his best set with the Dutch children on it, she experimented. She took the used plate, washed it, and then set the custard cup on it again.

He was satisfied. He ate his dessert without another word.

The same little boy did this, too. His mother was feeding the baby with a spoon one day that she had used to stir up the cereal. A bit had adhered to the handle—just above the bowl. Watching her, he said "It's a dirty spoon. I'll take it downstairs and get a clean spoon."

Down he trundled and up he came with a brand clean spoon. "Er," he remarked proudly, "now, sister eat."

These may be unusual cases, but we cannot count all straws that blow out of course with the wind.

Home Influence

Both of these mothers are busy women. They keep house well, but fastidiousness never has been with their many duties a tyrannical God. In plain words environment has no opportunity to breed cranks. I can understand the child with a nursery governess or trained nurse bawling out the cook or maid if there is a smudge of soot on a napkin, becoming persnickety, on the subject of perfection, and getting snooty if the asparagus is not laid symmetrically on his plate.

But this is different. It is innate decency and niceness, the incipient germ of a grown lady and gentleman.

Children, I have found, rise to proud heights in clean, mended clothes, even though they forget and make mud pies in their Sunday best. Watch a boy after he has had a hair cut, or a girl with

Brides Are Picking Cotton— For Their Wedding Gowns

Nothing is more youthful than cotton. Realizing this, brides choose it for their wedding gowns. And they dress their attendants in it, too.

The bridal gown (above), an Elizabeth Hawes model, is fashioned from crisp organdy. It has an extremely high neckline, long sleeves and is worn with a short organdy veil. The bridesmaid also is wearing organdy in red, white and green candy stripes with a small hat of matching material.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF.

To Get Tan Without Sunburn Use Lotions

By Alicia Hart

Now is the time to decide what you're going to do about the care of your complexion this summer. Are you going in for a ruddy, deeply tanned skin or do you prefer to keep it as white as it is now? Whatever your decision, there are certain beauty treatments to follow if you expect to look presentable when vacation days are over and it's time to get back into town clothes.

Remember that a nice coat of deep tan is perfectly beautiful newly washed curls and a fresh pressed ribbon.

It is not always possible in a busy home to have things just so, but it won't hurt to keep in mind that all children are not mischievous or indifferent through choice.

and quite flattering to most women, particularly if they go in for pure white dresses. However, do not confuse tan with sunburn. There's nothing attractive about skin that has been burned until it is as red as the proverbial lobster. Furthermore, burning is decidedly bad for the skin. So, in order that you may tan without burning, lay in a supply of good suntan oils and lotions before you start for a holiday in the sunshine.

Apply your favourite suntan lotion generously to those parts of the body exposed to the elements. It will keep your skin from burning, but will not prevent tanning.

Don't stay in the sun too long the first day. Half an hour a day should be enough for the first five days. After that you can increase the time to one hour. After the first ten days, hours and hours in the sun should not hurt you—that is, providing you keep on using the suntan lotion or oil.

RCA VICTOR RECORDS

FOR JULY

NOW ON SALE.

All the Latest Film Selections

and Dance Music.

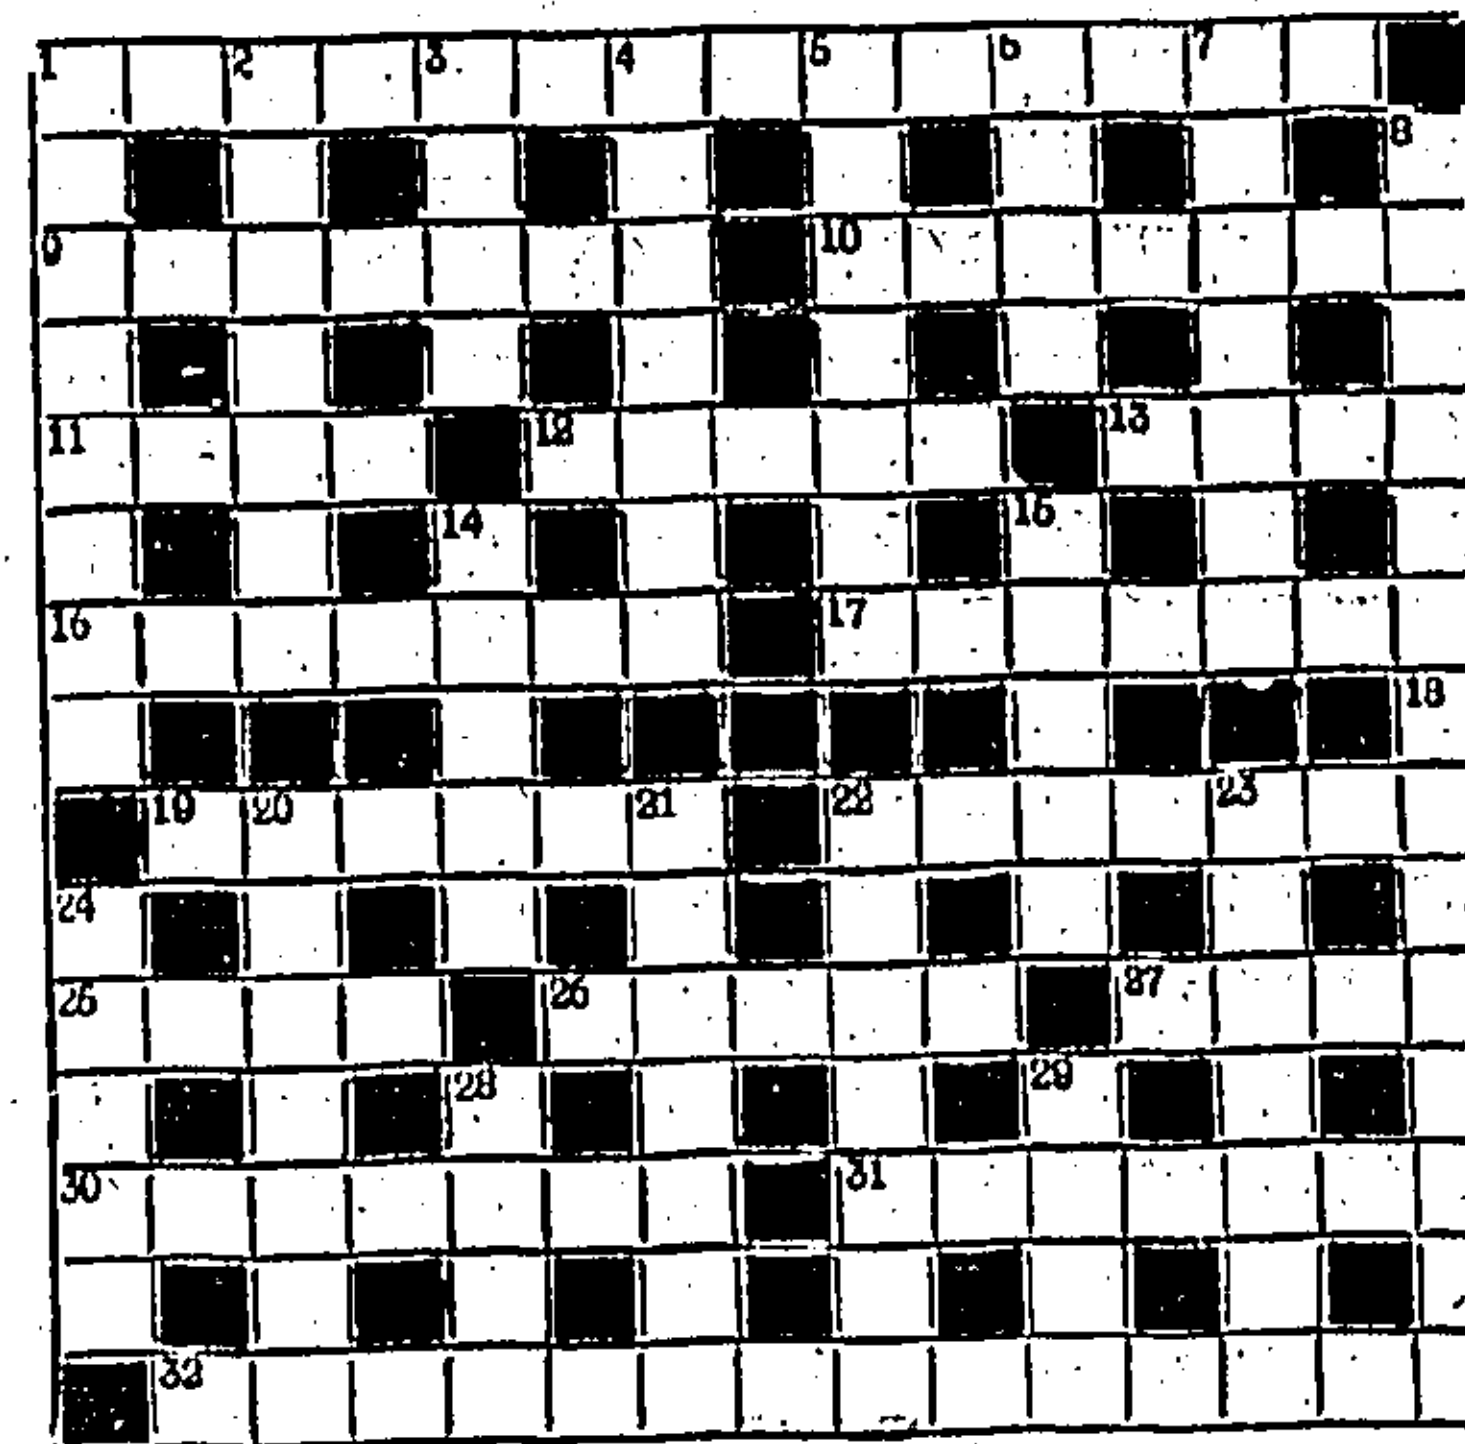

Ask for a Complete List.

TSANG FOOK PIANO CO.

9, Ice House Street, Hongkong.

USE ELECTRIC CHROMIC NEEDLES WITH YOUR PICK-UP

OUR BRITISH CROSSWORDS

Across

- 1 You and I (four words).
- 4 Harriers.
- 10 Kill.
- 11 Observe.
- 12 An ideal home for bird's-eye views.
- 13 Low but not ignoble.
- 16 Gallant men who have their dark hours.
- 17 To get the bird get round the girl.
- 19 A clumsy fellow is in rags.
- 22 The man on the qui vive gives audible warning.
- 25 This may be left yet right.
- 26 Greater than a hero—but it frequently flies.
- 27 Aid.
- 30 A modern wizard.
- 31 As an adept mother touches the hat on both sides.
- 32 Repetitively.

Down

- 1 Thomas village that is slightly reminiscent of the Dead Sea.
- 2 The place in which to find an A. I. robin.
- 3 Christmas.
- 4 Well-known entertainer.
- 5 No, it isn't Neptune, but go on looking.
- 6 It is to be regretted that it sounds vulgar.
- 7 Evidently it isn't the bird to catch worms, but it means to try hard.
- 8 Father of a giant-killer.

- 14 Call out.
- 15 The modern girl is in no way bound by it, or you can sneak around, if you prefer it.
- 18 Figures.
- 20 It's only common or garden honesty, isn't it?
- 21 A splice may turn out to be designed for a particular purpose.
- 22 Painful affliction (rev.).
- 23 Pathlike.
- 24 It betrays a consciousness guilty, perhaps, though largely pretence.
- 28 No one could mistake this butter for margarine.
- 29 Smartness.

Yesterday's Solution

STIRLING, SALES
I HANNOIENTO
I SHAPORRHO
I EINFERNOS
STEEDFIPRBS
EMLLEWESIE
SAMPLERHUNNERS
RLEVSGV
LIMOGESVILLAIN
NYLEVEREC
AGLEYARSTEEP
LAENGRAVEBO
TIBIANINAHUM
OEREREDOSEP
ELMSATAEBRO

PIRATE SUSPECTS.

JUNK WHICH AIDED IN SHUNTIEN AFFAIR

Tientsin, June 28.
Identified by its registration number, one of the five junks which participated in the Shun-tien piracy and in which the raiders made their escape, was seized at Taku to-day.

The crew were arrested and will be examined to determine whether they were involved in the piracy, willingly or otherwise.—Reuter.

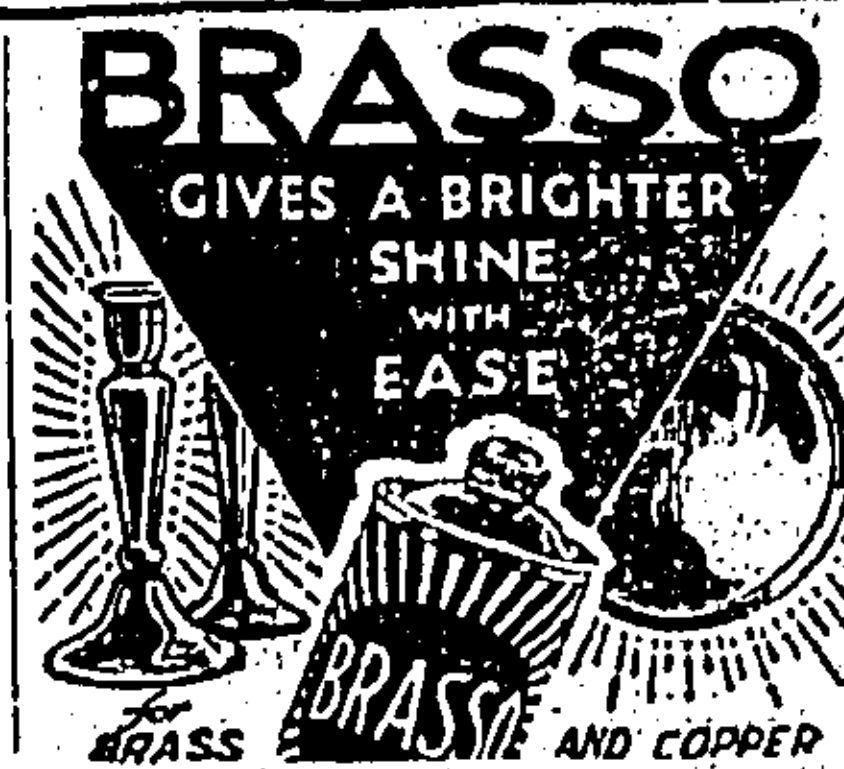

CANTON AGENTS

for

Hongkong Telegraph.
WM. FARMER & CO.

Victoria Hotel Building.
Shameen, Canton.

Tel. 13501.

SALESMAN SAM

Mental Telepathy!

By Small

Teething troubles

Because SCOTT'S Emulsion contains 44% of pure cod liver oil and those salts for bone formation, it prevents teething troubles, frets and soft bones. Ask for SCOTT'S EMULSION.

ANGLO-FRENCH
AGREEMENTTEXT OF TRADE
PACTCONCESSIONS
BY BOTH

London, June 28. The new Anglo-French trade agreement which was signed yesterday will come into operation on 1st July and is to remain in force till 1st April, 1936, and thereafter will be continued subject to the right of either Government to denounce it at any time so as to terminate it in three months at the end of quarter in which the notice is given.

Under the agreement, the text of which was issued to-night each country undertakes the most favoured nation treatment in matters of customs duties, with certain exceptions.

All quotas in respect of United Kingdom goods are to be restored to 100 per cent. of the United Kingdom proportionate share in each trade concerned as calculated upon the figures of such trade in the basic period.

The surtax of 20 per cent. imposed on certain French goods by the order of 9th February, 1934, is to be removed.

The agreement also contains certain provisions regarding the operation of the French quotas, designed to enable the United Kingdom trade to utilise fully the quotas allotted to it.

QUANTITY GUARANTEES.

In addition to these undertakings regarding French quotas, guarantees have been given as to the quantities of many of the more important classes of United Kingdom goods subject to quota in France which will be admitted from the United Kingdom during the period of the agreement.

In regard to imports of United Kingdom coal into France, the French Government undertakes to maintain in full the existing percentage namely 49.5 per cent. of the normal global quota which at present is 58.6 per cent. of the average imports into France from all foreign sources in the period 1928 to 1930.

There are, in addition to the basic percentage, certain supplementary allocations for ports etcetera.

COAL.

It is laid down that these shall not be reduced in greater proportion than the normal quota and shall remain open to free competition. For mechanical coal, freedom of purchase is to be maintained as at present. These guarantees regarding coal are linked with an agreement between the United Kingdom mineowners and the French coal importers regarding the purchase of pit props.

On the United Kingdom side, the duties on certain classes of goods imported from France which are of special importance to the latter country are fixed for the period of the agreement. The most important of these classes are silk and artificial silk.

BRANDY DUTIES.

United Kingdom duties on French brandy and sparkling wines are not to be increased during the period of the agreement.

A further clause of a type normal in recent French trade agreements provides that the procedure if either Government should take action which upsets the equilibrium resulting from the agreement.—British Wireless.

DR. H. H. KUNG'S
TOURMEETS PROFESSOR
ROGERS IN PEKING

Peking, June 28. Dr. H. H. Kung, Finance Minister, is proceeding to Tai-yuanfu this evening to consult with the Shanai authorities concerning financial reorganisation. The provincial authorities have already resolved to reduce the strength of the Shanai Army by one third in order to reduce the financial deficiencies.

Prior to his departure, he had a meeting with Professor Rogers, the American silver expert, who is staying here and who is expected to return to Shanghai shortly.—Central News.

PORTUGUESE SENT TO GAOLRETURNED BANISHEE
SENTENCED

Anastacio dos Remedios Marques, a Portuguese, made his second appearance before Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistrate's Court this morning, on a charge of having returned from banishment, and was sentenced to ten months' hard labour. He will be rebanded on the expiry of his sentence.

Detective Sergeant Moran said defendant gave certain information to the Chief Detective Inspector, but the police could not place any faith in it. His Worship would remember that defendant and a Japanese were concerned in a robbery in Kowloon in 1931.

It will be recalled that defendant was charged at the Criminal Assizes with robbery by two or more; was found guilty and sentenced to three years' imprisonment. Defendant and the Japanese robbed a Japanese woman, Seiji Nishio, who resided at No. 58 Haiphong Road, on the night of January 5, 1931. They got away with $119 in money and other things. The Japanese made a getaway with the money, and was not arrested.

Remedios was banished for 10 years in 1932.

Lam Chok was also charged with having returned from banishment, and was sentenced to twelve months' hard labour.

Defendant was banished for ten years in April this year.

It was stated by Sergeant Moran that defendant was a banishee from Singapore, and was a brothel keeper.

FOR DANGEROUS
DRIVING$50 FINE IMPOSED ON EUROPEAN

E. Greyer, of Sander, Weiler & Co., was fined $50 for dangerous driving when he overtook a stream of cars round two blind corners on the road from Repulse Bay to Wongneichong on the 9th instant. The case was heard before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistrate's Court this morning.

Another summons against defendant for failing to drive with due care and caution at Shek-O resulted in a caution being imposed on the defendant.

OLYMPIA HORSE
SHOWFRANCE WINS THE PRINCE'S TROPHY

London, June 28. The Prince of Wales attended the International Horse Show at Olympia this afternoon and saw the jumping competition for the Prince of Wales' Cup.

The event was won by the French team, to whom he presented the trophy, with the Irish Free State second, Sweden third, and Britain fourth.—British Wireless.

SALESMAN
"WANTED"ALLEGED FALSE
PRETENCES

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Leung Kau-ping on a charge of obtaining goods by false pretences.

Leung, a salesman at Messrs. Dowell & Co., is accused of having obtained 160 drums of linseed oil, valued at $1,200, and converting this to his use. He has been missing since the 16th, when suspicions were aroused.

EMPIRE FOOD
SHIPVESSEL LAUNCHED AT BELFAST

London, June 28. The motor vessel Walpawa, of 10,760 tons, the second of two Empire food ships which Harland and Wolff are building for Shaw, Savill and the Albion Company, was launched at Belfast to-day.

The vessel will be engaged between London and New Zealand via the Panama Canal.—British Wireless.

Kwok Po, paint-scraper, received head injuries when he fell from a plank while scraping a ship at Messrs. W. S. Bailey and Company's shipyard, To Kwa Wan, yesterday. The injured man was removed to the hospital.

N.R.A. DEFENDER

JOHNSON'S REPLY TO DARROW REPORT

Washington, June 27. An outspoken retort to the Darrow Report, which severely criticised the workings of the N.R.A., has been forwarded to President Roosevelt by General Hugh Johnson, N.R.A. Administrator.

General Johnson declares that the charges levelled by the Darrow investigating committee are "typical of the unfairness, untruth, temper, spirit and utter worthlessness of the Report."

There is sufficient evidence accumulating to show that "the Darrow Board is using its high office, not to perform its function of showing us our errors, but solely to manufacture false material for any politician who is demagogue enough to use this kind of political coin as honest money," Johnson says.

The most significant fact is the Board's statement to the Press on June 23 that 600 complaints had been received against the N.R.A. in the past three months. Johnson points out that some of these were in connection with codes which are not yet approved.

Over 25,000,000 concerns are operating under codes, General Johnson says, and the ratio of complaints is therefore six to every 25,000.

General Johnson's reply categorically rebuts the lengthy criticisms levelled at the various codes by the Darrow Report.—Reuter.

DUBLIN-NEW YORK
FLIGHTPOPE BLESSES THE PROJECT

Vatican City, June 28. His Holiness the Pope to-day granted an audience to the Transatlantic fliers, Captain Pond and...

"TELEGRAPH" ART
SUPPLEMENTMany Competition
Pictures.

A feature of to-morrow's issue of the Telegraph Pictorial Supplement will be the inclusion of numerous entries in our Photo Competition. Some delightful studies will be found amongst the number.

Weddings illustrated will be those of Mr. Norman Ellis and Miss Elizabeth Alcock, Mr. H.W.B. Muskett and Miss Maisie Martin, and Mr. Guy Satterthwaite and Miss Elizabeth Hink, in Sharnbrook.

Portraits of successful candidates in the Trinity College of Music examination will also appear.

Lieut. Sabelli, and listened with interest to the details of their flight. When he heard that they proposed to return from Dublin in New York, the Pope blessed all their projects.—Reuter.

EXCHANGE RATES

	June 27.	June 28.
Paris	76.23/32	76.23/32
Geneva	15.51	15.55 1/2
Berlin	12.80 1/2	12.82 1/2
Hamburg	22.63	22.63
Oslo	19.00 1/2	19.00 1/2
Athens	52 1/2	52 1/2
Milan	58.15/16	58 1/2
Buenos Aires	30 1/2	30 1/2
Shanghai	1.44 1/2	1.44 1/2
New York	5.84 1/2	5.85 1/2
Amsterdam	7.42 1/2	7.42 1/2
Vienna	27	27
Prague	121 1/4	121 1/4
Bucharest	503	503
Madrid	130 1/2	130 1/2
Hongkong	1.54	1.54
Brussels	21.57 1/2	21.60 1/2
Stockholm	19.40	19.40
Copenhagen	22.39 1/2	22.39 1/2
Lisbon	110	110
Bombay	1/6.3/64	1/6.3/64
Yokohama	1/24	1/24
Rio	4 1/2	4 1/2
Montevideo	38 1/2	38 1/2
Belgrade	221	221
Montreal	4.98 1/2	4.98 1/2
Silver (spot)	20.7/16	20.7/16
Silver (forward)	20 1/2	20 1/2
War Loan	103.3/16	103.3/16

Admitting a charge of stealing a leather wallet containing $182.00, Chan Sang, aged 22, was sent to prison for two months by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning. Sub-Inspector Dredge said complainant, Li Chan, an accountant of No. 530, Castle Peak Road, was in Wing Lok Street watching a Chinese doctor demonstrating his skill and offering to cure people's ills for nothing. The defendant, standing close by, took the wallet from the complainant's pocket.

CORRESPONDENCE

"Back To Nature"

To the Editor,
Hongkong Telegraph.

Sir,—I append, for the information of your readers, copy of correspondence between the Chief Censor, Mr. T. H. King, and the Independent Film Exchange of China, relative to the film "Back to Nature."

Following an appeal against the original censorship ban, the film was re-screened, on Thursday, June 23, at 11.30 a.m., in the Censoring Room, Gloucester Building, before the Appeal Board, consisting of three persons, the Hon. Inspector General of Police (the Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe), the Director of Education, and the Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

The decision was a laconic "Not to be shown in Hongkong." When asked for the reasons, the reply was "The Government is not obliged to give any reasons."

The greatest hopes had been placed on the decision of the Appeal Board that it would pass the film freely. The negative decision came wholly unexpected to the many sponsors of this useful and interesting film.

At the same time, this film is running for another lengthy period at the Isis Theatre in Shanghai, where anyone can judge for himself its harmlessness and informative value.

HERBERT E. LANEPART.

Copy of Correspondence.

To Independent Film Exchange of China.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that I censored the film "Back to Nature" on the 13th instant. I am unable to pass it for exhibition in Hongkong. Its main theme is the advertisement and depiction of a movement which, in the public interest, it is not expedient to countenance.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(Sgd.) T. H. KING.

To T. H. King, Esq., Chief Censor, Hongkong.

Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 14th inst. we have the honour to lodge a strong appeal against your decision in rejecting the film "Back to Nature" from screening in Hongkong. We have the honour to request for an unimpeded passing of the scientific, educational and wholesome film on the following grounds:

1.—It appears that this film was rejected; not by any demerits of the film itself, but by pre-conceived erroneous views and opinions about the Nudist movement as a whole.

2.—This film does not contain anything vulgar, shocking or indecent. It was shot at a very conservative angle, to make it fully suitable to the public in general. Wherever the film appeared, abroad as well as in China (Nanking, Greater Shanghai, etc.), it always has enjoyed the sympathetic support by the Authorities of educationists, the medical profession, sportsmen and the wide public. There is, therefore, to fear nothing from its screening in Hongkong.

3.—This film was never prohibited by the Shanghai International Settlement authorities, as was erroneously stated in the Press.

4.—Modern scientific research does commend the value of exposing one's entire body to the rays of the sun and the open air, and gymnastics unfettered by clothing, especially in ideal surroundings, as provided in Nudist recreation grounds and camps, and it is grossly unjust to reject a film which is a very conservative angle to make it suitable for public screening, acquiesces the broad masses and social workers with the world wide efforts and practical achievements of a movement born of the general desire for better health and personal fitness, and scientifically designed to produce radiant health and well-being on a national scale, by utilizing the beneficial forces in nature, sun, air, water and in man himself, to live more closely in harmony with the rediscovered laws of nature, for a healthy regeneration of body, mind and spirit, free from fears of the unknown.

5.—The public has every right to be acquainted with the aims and objects and practical aspects of the life in Nudist recreation grounds and camps, if same serve health, and not ill-health, and to be of the latter opinion, one must be entirely out of touch with modern scientific progress. To object to a film because it is educationally informative, and to call it "the advertisement and depiction of a movement which, in the public interest, it is not expedient to countenance," is highly unjust.

We cannot, therefore, but most earnestly request you to kindly arrange for a re-screening before the Appeal Board of the film "Back to Nature," in which we again beg to mention, there is nothing vulgar, shocking or indecent. It is, in fact, a valuable educational film, which was passed for screening to the public in practically every country, including the country of China, where it has received the wholehearted approval and sympathetic support of the Chinese authorities, at Nanking, as well as at Greater Shanghai, etc.

Resulting in the screening of this film before many tens of thousands of Chinese officials, doctors, public workers, members of athletic and educational institutions, women men and the public in general, in northern China. Consequently, any objections raised against this film for public release in Hongkong, we consider entirely unfounded and wholly unjustifiable.

We have the honour to be, Sir, Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) INDEPENDENT FILM EXCHANGE OF CHINA.

RADIO BROADCAST

TO-DAY'S BROADCAST.

RUSSIAN MUSIC CONCERT
THIS EVENING

From ZBW on a wavelength of 355 metres (845 k/c):
4.30-7.30 p.m. Chinese Programme.
7.30-10.30 p.m. European Programme.
7.30 p.m. Closing Local Stock Quotations, etc.
7.33-8 p.m. From the Studio.
Jazz Violin and Piano Solos by Canullo Natus and Pompey Villa Programme.

1. Aint She Sweet.
2. Boulevard of Broken Dreams.
3. Coffee in the Morning.
4. Some of these Days.
5. Sentimental Over You.
6. I'll see you Again.
7. Come up and See me Sometime.
8 p.m. Local Time and Weather Report.

8.05-8.20 p.m. Song Memories
Great Bass Ballads.
8.20-8.42 p.m. Light Orchestral Music.

Love's Last Word (Cremieux).
Le Chaland Qui Passe (Bixio).
Albert Sandler and His Orchestra.

Symphonic Rhapsody on "I Picked my Lonely Caravan," "I heard you Singing," and "Bird Songs at Eventide" (Eric Coates).

Eric Coates and Symphonic Orch.
Souvenir D'Ukraine (Ferraris).
Black Eyes—Russian Impression (Ferraris).

Albert Sandler and His Orchestra.
8.42-9 p.m. Octets.
Memories of Chopin (arr. Willoughby).

J. H. Squire Celeste Octet.
A Venetian Serenade—Serenade (arr. Willoughby).

J. H. Squire Celeste Octet.
9.30 p.m. From the Studio.
A Short History, and Traditions of the Lincolnshire Regiment by Captain F. W. Young.

9.30-10.30 p.m. A Concert of Russian Music.
Piano Solo—Polichinelle (Rachmaninoff).

Piano Solo—Prelude in B Flat (Rachmaninoff).

Left Poultschnoff.
1st Movement from Concerto in D for Violin and Orchestra (Tschalkowsky Op. 35).

Bronislaw Huberman (Violin) and the Berliner Staatskapelle conducted by Steinberg.

1st Movement—Allegro Moderato. Overture—Prince Igor (Borodin).
Symphony Orchestra conducted by Albert Coates.

Theme and Variations from Suite No. 3 in G (Tschalkowsky).
London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sir Landon Ronald.

Orchestra—Tchaikovsky—"The Fair at Sorotchinsk" (Moussorgsky).
London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Albert Coates.

10.30 p.m. Rugby Mid-Day Press News.
10.35 p.m. Close Down.

COTTON, WHEAT AND SILVERLATEST NEW YORK
QUOTATIONS

Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz have received the following quotations on the New York cotton and wheat and silver exchanges for yesterday.

	June 27.	June 28.
Cotton	Closing	Closing
July	12.12	12.22-12.24
October	12.95	12.97-12.98
December	12.48	12.61-12.62
January	12.63	12.65-12.66
March	12.64	12.70-12.71
May	12.74	12.87-12.88
Spot	12.35	12.45

Chicago Wheat.

	June 27.	June 28.
Cotton	Closing	Closing
July	90	92 1/2-92 3/4
September	90 1/2	92 1/2-92 3/4
December	92	93 1/2-93 3/4

Winnipeg Wheat.

	June 27.	June 28.
Cotton	Closing	Closing
July	76	77 1/4-77
October	76 1/2	79 1/4-79
December	79 1/2	80 1/4-80 1/2

Silver.

	June 27.	June 28.
Cotton	Closing	Closing
July	45.89	46.22-46.31
September	46.37	46.70-46.72
December	47.00	47.45-47.46
January	47.16	47.65-47.65
March	47.85	48.15-48.15
May	48.40	48.65-48.65

Total sales:
5,550,000 oza (214 contracts) 5,850,000 oza (234 contracts)

Water Levels.

FOR WEST, NORTH AND EAST RIVERS

The River Conservancy Commission for Kwangtung Province notifies that the height of water in English feet in the West, North and East Rivers is as follows:

	June 27.	June 28.
West River at Shihshing	23.2	23.9
North River at Tsing-yuen	13.7	12.8
North River at Samahui	18.1	18.5
East River at Shikung	7.7	7.0

AGAIN IN 1934
CHEVROLET ACHIEVES
WHILE OTHERS STILL TRY.

Longer Wheelbase, new "Aer-Stream" Styling... larger, lower Fisher Bodies... Fisher No Draft Ventilation Cushion balanced engine for smoothest operation... Synchro-mesh gear shift with silent second and most outstanding of modern improvements are the

NEW YK FRAME, 15 times stronger.
BLUE STREAK COMBUSTION gives Greater Power and More Economy.

SHOCKPROOF STEERING
KNEE ACTION WHEELS.

New models on display in our new showrooms.

FAR EAST MOTORS

26, Nathan Road—Kowloon Telephone 59101.

GARDAN stops pains immediately

21 YEARS AGO

Extracts From the "Telegraph" Files.

The following extracts are from the Hongkong Telegraph for the week ended June 28th, 1913.

The rate of dollar on demand was 1.115/8d.

Mr. G. W. Sewell was commended at the Police Court for his plucky rescue of a would-be suicide by diving into the harbour from a "Star" ferry-boat when the man jumped overboard.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen, interviewed on arrival in Hongkong, urged concessions to foreigners to build railways in China, saying in this way 60,000 or 70,000 miles could be laid down in ten years.

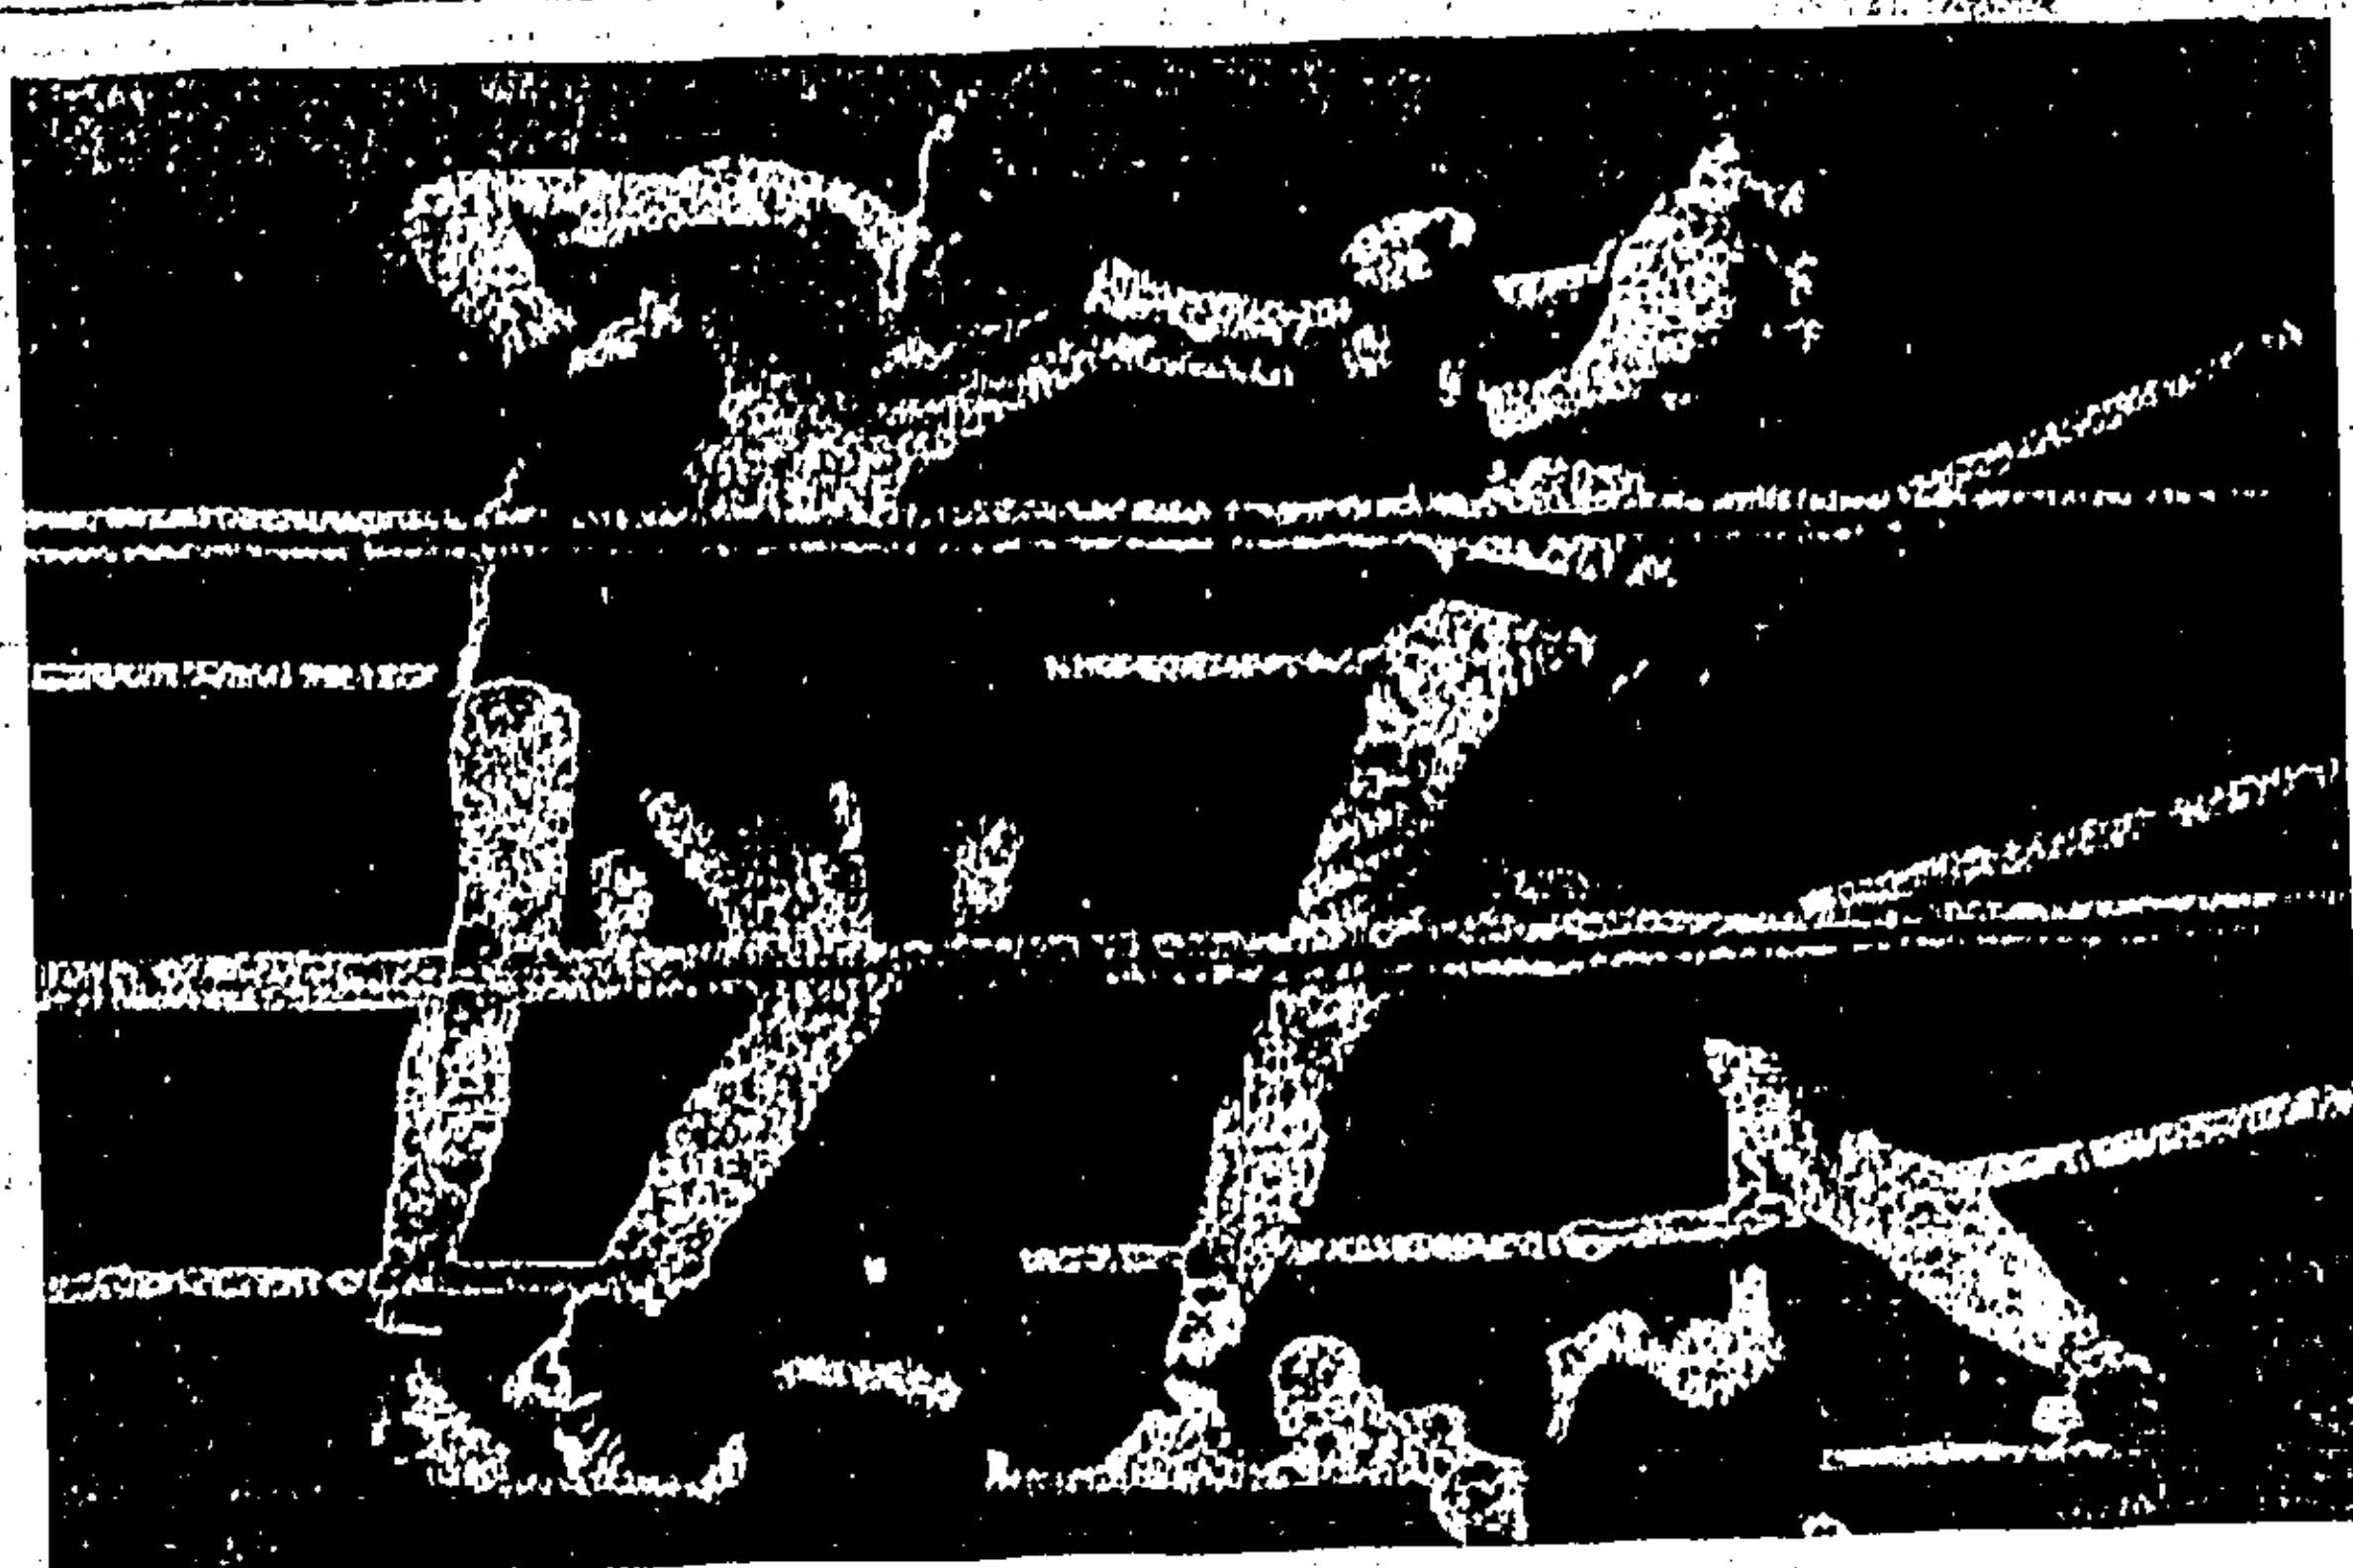

The Bandmann Opera Company appeared at the Theatre Royal in such musical comedies as "The Runaway Girl. "Gypsy Love," "The Pink Lady," and "The Count of Luxembourg."

Three weeks' hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Magistrate's Court this morning on Leung Ho, aged 28, who pleaded guilty to stealing 50 copper cents from the Sun Hing Grocery, No. 89 Jubilee Street. Detective-Sergeant Goodwin said at 1.15 p.m. yesterday, while the salesman was attending a customer, snatched a tin box which contained the money. He was chased by the shop master and a foki and was intercepted by a detective.

The theft of fifteen yards of silk from the Sincere Company, Canton, was traced to a Chinese who was arrested when attempting to pawn the silk in the Yuen Hing Pawnshop, Hongkong. Brought before Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning, the man, Man Chung, 28, unemployed, pleaded guilty. Sub-Inspector J. Dredge stated that when questioned by a detective, defendant frankly admitted he had stolen the silk. A fine of $30, or three weeks' hard labour, was imposed.

WIMBLEDON: LEADING PLAYERS CONTINUE TO WIN

A thrilling incident in the Petersen v. Harvey fight at White City, showing Petersen, the winner, finding his opponent's jaw with a straight left.

HOW PETERSEN BEAT LEN HARVEY: LOSER BLINDED BY BLOOD: WELL DESERVED WIN

HARVEY WOULD HAVE BEEN BEATEN ON POINTS IF THE TOWEL HAD NOT BEEN THROWN IN

In one of the best fights of his career, Jack Petersen defeated Len Harvey for British and Empire titles during the early part of this month. Petersen was far and away the better man, and the following vivid description of the fight is given by Fred Darnell in the New-Chronicle.

All records for a boxing contest in this country were easily beaten at the White City when 60,000 people saw the fight between Len Harvey and Jack Petersen. Prince George, accompanied by Sir Harry Preston, was an earlier arrival. Many women occupied seats at the ringside.

Mr. Pickles Douglas was the referee.

Harvey's smothering work was very good, but the first round had only progressed a minute when he was cautioned twice for holding.

There were some rather crude exchanges. Neither man landed a clean blow and at the end of the round both were hugging at close quarters.

The second round saw Harvey begin with two left hooks, one of which grazed Petersen's head. He was undoubtedly more aggressively inclined than in the early phases of their previous fight.

Petersen was cautioned for holding with his left glove, but, following this, he smashed beautiful lefts to the face and then drove a good punch to the ribs.

PETERSEN JOKES.
At the start of the third Harvey stood away, tempting his man to a lead. This proved effective, for with a quick right hook he scored some very good points. There was still nothing in it, however, and Petersen exchanged a humorous comment with his rival on the situation.

Petersen was called to order for twice using the rabbit punch.

Harvey began the fourth round with a wicked left hook which just missed, and a right punch of the same description which grazed Petersen's chin. He then made Petersen miss with a left lead and quickly countered with a right to the stomach.

Round five started with Harvey the aggressor but Petersen retaliated with an intensive assault and Harvey's left eye seemed to be closing. Twice Petersen landed on the body with his right.

Harvey, full of courage, however, swung a right, which sent Petersen back for a second or two. The champion was fighting desperately for his title, but just before the bell Petersen smashed another right to the chin.

Harvey's seconds worked desperately on his eye, but he came up in the sixth round practically blind in the left, and with the full appreciation of the situation he began to strike out with desperate aggression.

Twice he swung his right fiercely but to no purpose, and Petersen, forcing him to the ropes, drove a right to the ribs.

At this stage it was noticeable that Petersen's left eye had begun to bleed, but the sixth round ended with him leading on points.

LOTION FOR PETERSEN'S EYE.
Some special lotion was applied to Petersen's eye, which stopped the bleeding, and in the seventh round the challenger found Harvey in a very desperate mood. Both men were cautioned for wrestling, and then Petersen smashed a right to the troubled eye of Harvey.

At the beginning of the eighth round Petersen scored twice with left hooks, and, essaying a third, missed, swung round, and was promptly countered on the head.

Petersen appeared to be holding himself a little in reserve. The pace had probably told on both, but Petersen got Harvey on the ropes and rapped his ribs with a right-hand.

Petersen's eye began to bleed profusely. He was not conscious of this apparently and went in with a splendid two-handed attack to the body. Immediately after the referee spoke sternly again to Harvey, stopping the fight for that purpose.

The ninth round was Petersen's. Early in the tenth Petersen forced Harvey to the ropes. Of the two he appeared to be the stronger.

When the 12th round started Harvey rushed spiritedly across the ring but was met with a left to the face and a right to the body and shortly afterwards Petersen scored with a good right to the head.

When Harvey came pell mell across the ring he smashed his left like a bar of iron into the champion's face and followed it with a telling right to the face.

THE END.
From the ringside it was obvious that Petersen was hurting his man. Twice the referee cautioned Harvey for keeping his glove under his opponent's arm.

Then, in a wild swirl, Harvey was flung to the floor, and immediately afterwards the referee cautioned him that this would be his last warning.

Before the round finished a towel was flung from Harvey's corner, signifying his retirement. It was understood that it was Harvey's second who threw the towel in, not at the desire of Harvey himself.

If the bout had gone the full distance Harvey must have lost on points.

SILVER BULLET'S NEW OWNER

Dixon To Prepare It For Record Bid?

Freddie Dixon, the Middleborough racing motorist and hero of the recent Isle of Man races, has bought Silver Bullet, the famous car in which Kaye Don made his ill-fated attempt to beat the world's speed record at Daytona five years ago.

Originally built at a cost of £20,000, the car has this year been driven by Jack Pridmore, the wealthy young Yorkshireman who tried to beat the British Empire speed record with it at Southport in March.

It is believed that Dixon will prepare the Silver Bullet for an attempt on the world's speed record.

LEAGUE TENNIS TO-DAY

"C" Division Programme For Decision

The Recreation are unable to turn out a team for their "C" Division fixture against the Kowloon Cricket Club to-day, most of their players being detained by business calls.

As a result both the K.C.C., and Kowloon Dock are left without a match, and although their tie was abandoned last week owing to rain, they have arranged to play it off next Wednesday.

Easy wins are indicated for the Recreation against South China and C.R.C. this afternoon, and now that the Recreation match is off, most of the interest in the programme has removed.

The teams engaged to-day are:

"C" DIVISION.
C.S.C.C. v. C.R.C.
A.T.C. v. I.R.C.
C.C.C. v. R.S.C.
H.K.U.T.C. v. P.R.C.
D.K. v. C.B.A.
K.B.G.C. v. S.C.A.A.

BOWLS FIXTURES

Re-Arrangement Of Pairs Championship Ties

The Open Pairs Championship postponed from the beginning of the week on account of rain have now been re-arranged, and they will all be played on Wednesday next.

The matches affected are:
H. W. Bradbury and U. M. Omar v. C. E. Elliot-Heywood and A. E. Silkestone (Kowloon Dock green); W. McLeod and W. Blair v. W. C. Way and A. S. Gomez (Talkoo R. C. green); F. J. Jones and A. W. Grimshaw v. E. G. Post and A. G. Perkins (Club de Recreation green); J. E. Noronha and B. Basto v. H. H. Rose and J. S. Logan or J. J. Gregory and W. E. Hollands.

RINKS CHAMPIONSHIP.
Two of the four rink matches have been fixed for Sunday next.
On the Talkoo R.C. green R. F. Luz, B. W. Bradbury, H. Beer and U. M. Omar will meet L. J. Silva, L. F. Xavier, H. A. S. Alves and F. V. V. underhand and A. W. Grimshaw v. O.C. green C. H. Basto, B. Basto, J. J. Basto and A. H. Basto play E. G. Post, F. H. W. Haynes, J. J. Gregory and W. E. Hollands.

B. Basto has been re-introduced into "Basto" rink in the place of C. A. Lopes who is indisposed.

It is officially announced that the Happy Valley golf course is still closed, but will be opened for play shortly if the weather permits. Practice is allowed in the middle of Happy Valley.

Regarding Deep Water Bay, the first hole is closed and many remain closed for some days. Players can, however, start at the second hole and play over the rest of the course.

At Pennington the old course is in very good condition. The new course is probably closed till October. The relief course is open and is in fair condition.

SYDNEY WOOD LOSES A SET TO H. G. N. COOPER

Mrs. Hopman's Fine Fight Against Mdme. Mathieu

HELEN JACOBS & MISS ROUND WIN

London, June 28.

Sydney Wood of America, Yamagishi of Japan, Christian Boussus of France and Fred Perry of England joined H. W. Austin and others in the last sixteen of the men's singles at Wimbledon as a result of to-day's matches. This entailed the elimination of two Englishmen and C. E. Malfroy of New Zealand.

Three overseas competitors won second round ties in the women's singles, including Helen Jacobs, Fraulein Cicely Aussem and Madame Mathieu. Miss Dorothy Round advanced another stage, but at the expense of her tennis colleague, Miss Mary Heeley.

Sydney Wood, one of the American "hopes" was made to lose a set to H.G.N. Cooper, the well known English international player.

Cooper snatched the first set at 6-4, before Wood had settled down, but thereafter there was only one player in it, and Wood took the match by annexing the next three sets with the loss of five games.

Against a lively rival, who was not afraid to go for his shots, Wood displayed pleasing form: the type to carry him a long way in the event. He is without doubt one of the most serious challengers for the title.

Boussus did exceptionally well to overcome Malfroy, New Zealand's leading representative in straight sets. Malfroy was quite unable to reply to Boussus's severe service and piercing ground strokes which made a net campaign the easiest thing imaginable.

Perry beat Menzel after a classic match, a special description of which appears on the front page.

WOMEN'S GAMES.

Miss Helen Jacobs easily bent her countrywoman, Mrs. Andrus, who, under a residential qualification is playing as an official French representative.

Two quick sets sufficed, Miss Jacobs, potential successor to Mrs. Wills-Moody losing but three games.

The clash of Dorothy Round and Mary Heeley was rather unfortunate, robbing England of a leading player. Miss Round won, and with the greatest of ease. Miss Heeley captured three games in the first set, and lost the second to love.

Miss E. H. Harvey, another prominent English competitor, was no match for Fraulein Cicely.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS AT WIMBLEDON

MEN'S LAST SIXTEEN NOW FILLING UP.

MEN'S SINGLES.

Third Round

S. B. Wood (America) beat H. G. N. Cooper (Britain) 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-1.

Yamagishi (Japan) beat H. K. Lester (Britain) 9-7, 7-5, 6-3.

C. Boussus (France) beat C. E. Malfroy (New Zealand) 6-1, 6-2, 6-3.

F. J. Perry (Britain) beat R. Menzel (Czechoslovakia) 6-0, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

WOMEN'S SINGLES.

Second Round

Miss H. Jacobs (America) beat Mrs. Andrus (France) 6-2, 6-1.

Miss D. Round (Britain) beat Miss M. Heeley (Britain) 6-3, 6-0.

Fr. Aussem (Germany) beat Miss E. H. Harvey (Britain) 6-1, 6-0.

Mdme. Mathieu (France) beat Mrs. Hopman (Australia) 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Aussem to whom she lost 6-1, 6-0. Fr. Aussem was so dominant that the match lost all interest.

The best women's match of the day was that between Madame Mathieu of France, and Mrs. (Continued on Page 9.)

H. K. Lester, the English tennis player, who fell a victim to Yamagishi of Japan at Wimbledon yesterday.

Inter-Club Tennis Match

K. C. C. VISITING CANTON

The Kowloon Cricket Club are sending a tennis team up to Canton this next week-end to play the Deutscher Garten Klub at Tungshan. A very full programme of men's singles, ladies' singles, men's, ladies' and mixed doubles has been arranged, and both clubs are turning out strong sides.

E. C. Fincher heads the visiting contingent, which includes S. A. Gray, F. Zimmermann, R. S. Capell, J. S. Smith, W. W. Hirst, Miss Madge Griffiths and Miss A. Mackenzie.

George Bodiker is captaining the home team, and will have the assistance of R. P. Newell, former Sharnon champion, Charles W. Watson, H. Rode, H. Schneider, E. Dillner, Mrs. Wooster or Miss Lehmann and Mrs. Fischer.

A novel feature will be games between members of the teams who are over 40.

The programme arranged is as follows:

SUNDAY.

Men's Singles

R. P. Newell v. S. A. Gray, J. S. Smith v. H. Schneider, F. Zimmermann v. C. E. Watson, R. S. Capell v. H. Rode, E. C. Fincher v. G. Bodiker, S. A. Gray v. H. Rode, W. W. Hirst v. E. Dillner, S. A. Gray v. H. Schneider.

Ladies' Singles

Miss Lehmann v. Miss Griffiths, Mrs. Fischer v. Miss A. Mackenzie.

Men's Doubles

E. C. Fincher and S. A. Gray v. G. Bodiker and R. P. Newell, F. Zimmermann and R. S. Capell v. H. Rode and C. E. Watson, J. S. Smith and W. W. Hirst v. H. Schneider and E. Dillner.

Mixed Doubles

Miss Griffiths and E. C. Fincher v. Miss Lehmann and G. Bodiker, Miss Mackenzie and F. Zimmermann v. Mrs. Fischer and C. E. Watson.

Ladies' Doubles

Miss Lehmann and Mrs. Fischer v. Miss Griffiths and Miss Mackenzie.

MONDAY.

Men's Singles

F. Zimmermann v. G. Bodiker, E. C. Fincher v. R. P. Newell, R. S. Capell v. H. Schneider.

Ladies' Singles

Miss Griffiths v. Mrs. Fischer, Miss Mackenzie v. Miss Lehmann.

Men's Doubles

W. Hirst and J. S. Smith v. C. E. Watson and E. Dillner.

Mixed Doubles

Miss Griffiths and Gray v. Miss Lehmann and Newell, Miss Mackenzie and Capell v. Mrs. Fischer and Rode.

SECOND VICTORY

Motherwell Defeat South Africa

Johannesburg, June 28.

In the second Association football match here to-day, Motherwell defeated South Africa by three goals to nil. The Scottish tourists won their first match a few days ago by 5-2.

After a close and exciting game, the Scottish touring team, Motherwell, defeated Eastern Transvaal by one goal to nil.

The final scores were 5-2, 7-5, 6-3.—Reuter.

DEFEAT TRANSVAAL.

Johannesburg, June 28.

After a close and exciting game, the Scottish touring team, Motherwell, defeated Eastern Transvaal by one goal to nil.—Reuter.

AUSSIES WIN BY INNINGS

FLEETWOOD-SMITH IN FORM

SOMERSET FAIL AT BATTING

London, June 28.

The Australians concluded their picnic at Taunton to-day when they beat Somerset by an innings and 77 runs.

The county was always playing a losing game. Scores of 84 by Woodfull, 79 by Drilling and 61 by Barnett allowed the Australian total to reach 309, giving them a lead of 193.

Only Wellard met with any success with the ball, and his half a dozen wickets were rather expensive, 111 runs being knocked off his deliveries.

Somerset were equally as ineffective at the crease in their second innings as in the first, and they were dismissed for 116. Fleetwood-Smith troubled them a lot with his left-hand googlies, and his final figures were 6 for 56.

EASY FOR LANCASHIRE.

Lancashire gave Glamorgan a dose of the medicine the northerners had at the hands of Kent, and to-day beat the Welshmen by an innings and 32 runs.

Hopwood had an outstanding match. In Glamorgan's first innings he took 7 for 13, and the Welshmen were sent back for a total of 62, while in their return, Hopwood garnered a further five wickets for 55 runs, Glamorgan compiling 160.

Lancashire found it necessary to score only 264 for 4 wickets, at which total they declared. Watson reached three figures and when dismissed had 108 to his credit.

Reuter.

LUTON TOWN'S REWARD

F.A. CUP EXEMPTIONS: CORINTH EXCUSED

Luton Town's good showing in last season's English Cup competition has earned them exemption until the third round proper next season. Others excused until that stage are the 44 First and Second Division clubs, Millwall and Chesham.

Reappearing in the competition the Corinthians, as was anticipated, are exempt until the first round proper. In previous years they have been excused until the third round.

Other Third Division clubs not mentioned above, plus the Amateur Cup winners, Dulwich Hamlet, are also exempt until the first round proper.

The following 24 clubs are excused until the fourth qualifying round.

Barnet, Bath City, Blyth Spartans, Burton Town, Cheltenham Town, Chorley, Dartford, Darwen, Folkestone, Gainsborough Trinity, Golders Green, Ilford Jarrow, Kingstons, Lancaster Town, Leyton, Margate Town, Northfleet United, Southend United, Shildon, Spennymoor United, Walthamstow Avenue, Wimbledon, and Workington.

AMATEUR CUP

Clubs Excused Qualifying Series

Below is the list of clubs excused the qualifying stages of next season's F.A. Amateur Cup competition:

NORTHERN AND MIDLAND DIVISION.

Bishop Auckland, Cambridge Town, Ferry Hill Athletic, Guiseley, Marine Liverpool, Moor Green Birmingham, Northern Nomads, Rawmarsh Welfare, Shildon, South Bank, Stockton, Whitehall Printworks, Willington, Yorkshire Amateurs.

SOUTHERN DIVISION.

Barnet, Bournemouth Gasworks Athletic, The Casuals Chesham United, Dulwich Hamlet, Enfield, Golders Green, Gorse, Horsham, Ilford, Kingstons, Leyton, Leytonstone, London Caledonians, Levensden, Maldenhead United, Metropolitan Police, Nunhead, Oxford City, Portland United, Romford, Sutton United, Tufnell Park, Walthamstow Avenue, Wimbledon, Wycombe Wanderers.

1. Chlorophyll a (Chl a)

PRESIDENT LINERS are LUXURY LINERS

with Roomy Decks, Outdoor Swimming Pool

Nothing that might help to make an ocean voyage most pleasant has been overlooked on the President Liners. For your comfort, every stateroom is outside, large and airy. And for your recreation, you'll find spacious public areas, broad decks for sports, and an outdoor swimming pool. Anyone who has ever traveled on a President Liner will agree: Dull moments aren't found on these popular ships.

TO SAN FRANCISCO 18 DAYS

THE SUNSHINE ROUTE Via Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, San Francisco, Panama Canal, Havana, New York.

Fortnightly sailings:
Pres. Lincoln 6 a.m. July 4
Pres. Coolidge 6 a.m. July 14
Pres. Cleveland 6 a.m. Aug. 1
Pres. Hoover 6 a.m. Aug. 11
Pres. Taft 6 a.m. Aug. 29

EUROPE, NEW YORK

Inquire for round-trip tickets to Europe in connection with Lloyd Triestino.
Via Manila, Singapore, Penang, Colombo, Bombay, Suez Canal, Alexandria, Marseilles.

Pres. Monroe 8 a.m. July 7
Pres. Van Buren 8 a.m. July 21
Pres. Garfield 8 a.m. Aug. 4
Pres. Polk 8 a.m. Aug. 18
Pres. Adams 8 a.m. Sept. 1

TO SEATTLE, VICTORIA 17 DAYS

THE EXPRESS ROUTE Via Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama and Victoria.

Fortnightly sailings:
Pres. Jefferson 6 a.m. Aug. 4
Pres. Grant 6 a.m. Aug. 18
Pres. McKinley 6 a.m. Sept. 1
Pres. Jackson 6 a.m. Sept. 15
Pres. Jefferson 6 a.m. Sept. 29

MANILA

THE MOST FREQUENT SERVICE

Next sailings:

Pres. Coolidge 9 p.m. July 5
Pres. Monroe 8 a.m. July 7
Pres. Van Buren 8 a.m. July 21
Pres. Cleveland 6 p.m. July 23
Pres. Jackson 6 p.m. July 28
Pres. Jefferson 6 p.m. July 28

MOST FREQUENT SERVICE ON THE PACIFIC

DOLLAR STEAMSHIP LINES AMERICAN MAIL LINE

PEDDER BUILDING—HONGKONG.
CANTON BRANCH—No. 4, Shaker Street.

MESSAGERIES

3, Queen's Building.
Tel. 26651.

MARITIMES

UNZEN!!!

1934 Holiday Season

The Messageries Maritimes Steamers will call at NAGASAKI as follows:

Leave Hong Kong	Arrive Nagasaki	Steamers	Leave Nagasaki	Arrive Hong Kong
June 29	July 8	Felix Roussel	July 11	July 17
July 15	July 22	Chenonceaux	July 26	July 31
July 29	Aug. 5	D'Artagnan	Aug. 9	Aug. 14
Aug. 12	Aug. 19	Athos II	Aug. 23	Aug. 28
Aug. 24	Sept. 2	Aramis	Sept. 6	Sept. 11
Sept. 9	Sept. 16	Andre-Lebon	Sept. 20	Sept. 25
Sept. 21	Sept. 30	Felix Roussel	Oct. 4	Oct. 9

RATES OF PASSAGE

	HONG KONG to NAGASAKI	1st Class	2nd Class	3rd Class	4th Class
Single		$135	$85	$50	$30
Round Trip		$220	$130	$85	—

(available 3 months)
First class round trip tickets to Kobe, Nagasaki, Yokohama only interchangeable with the Canadian Pacific Railway Coy. For particulars apply to the Company's Agency: 3, Queen's Bldg.

They change so fast, there should be a new picture at least once a year, for photographs of the children never grow up.

Make an appointment to-day.

THE MING YUEN STUDIO

17, Queen's Road Central (First Floor)
(Between the H.K. Hotel and Dairy Farm Store, Queen's Road C.)

CINEMA SCREENINGS

NOTES SUPPLIED BY THE THEATRES

With all the romance that abounds in Hollywood's screen dramas, there are, nevertheless, just four primary types of screen lovers. So stated Sylvia Sidney film star, after a vibrant love scene with Fredric March in the B. P. Schulberg-Paramount picture, "Good Dame," which comes on Saturday to the King's Theatre. Sylvia classifies Fredric March, with whom she is co-starred in this story of a "good" dame and a "bad" boy who fall in love, as the masterful lover. This is the type that crushes with his power. He is merciless in trampling the tender emotions, and he goes away leaving the woman to await his return. He is a civilized cavewoman, she says. But, according to Miss Sidney, this type of lover is the favourite everywhere, and in this class come most of the greatest lovers.

"Men in White"

"Men in White," new M-G-M production, opening on Sunday at the Queen's Theatre, brings a new and highly welcomed screen team to grateful audiences. Clark Gable and Myrna Loy set a new high this season in fine dramatic teamwork, and promise to give the Dressler-Berry and other popular combination some sprightly competition. "Men in White" is a hospital story, the finest of its kind you are ever apt to see. The drama is concerned with the struggle of a young intern (Clark Gable) to become a great surgeon in spite of his passionate love for Laura, a beautiful heiress (Myrna Loy). The training on which Gable is bent leaves no time for amorous dalliance, which results in disappointment and a fleeting liaison with a nurse (Elizabeth Allan). As a result of their momentary intimacy, Barbara, the nurse, is the victim of an illegal operation, which ends in peritonitis. In one of the most amazing and gripping scenes in the cinema, Gable, the physician, operates upon Barbara in an attempt to save her life, while Laura, faint and trembling, watches the macabre performance. Like its forerunner on the stage in the play of the same name, the scene will go down in screen history as a masterpiece of enlightened realism. The supporting cast of "Men in White" is exceptionally brilliant. Jean Hersholt, Otto Kruger, C. Henry Gordon, Russell Hardie, Wallace Ford, Henry B. Walthall and others of note—all add to the dramatic workmanship of this excellent film.

"Blood Money"

In "Blood Money," the United Artists release which opens on Sunday at the Alhambra Theatre, starring George Bancroft, there are numerous unexpected plot twists and dramatic situations telling the inside story of a discredited policeman, played by Bancroft, who has increased the $20 given him by Ruby Darling, his night club hostess sweetheart portrayed by Judith Anderson, through supplying bail to grifters, politicians and crooks, who have broken or evaded the law, until he has an abundant income. This crooked colossus uses the denizens of gangland and the aspirants for political prestige as the pawns in his game of life. Finally, Drury Darling, Ruby's brother, a gentleman crook and bank robber, joins the ranks of those wanted by the police. Bailey goes on his bail, which Drury jumps under suspicious circumstances involving the daughter of a millionaire. By way of revenge, Bailey turns the boy in, whereupon his entire world crumples like a pack of cards as those whom he has helped turn to rend him. How his one-time sweetheart saves him from gang vengeance just in the nick of time, and the true culprit is a brazen case of bond substitution is the finally revealed, provide some of the highly dramatic moments in this 20th Century picture.

"Four Frightened People"

Noted for providing the ultimate in screen entertainment, Cecil B. DeMille scores another big hit with his latest Paramount picture, "Four Frightened People," which is now playing at the King's Theatre. From the time the four principals, two men and two women, escape from a Dutch steamer on which bubonic plague has broken out and start their journey to civilization through the Malay jungles, there is not a moment in the picture when interest wanes. Their gradual revelation to the primitive provides some highly novel situations. Claudette Colbert is outstanding with one of the most colorful roles of her career. Herbert Marshall and William Gargan give splendid performances and Mary Boland, in a deft comedy characterization, walks away with many of the honours of the picture.

"Female"

It's getting to be a habit with Ruth Chatterton to select her husband, George Brent, as her leading man in her pictures. In the past two years she played in five productions and Brent was her leading man in all but one. In her latest picture, "Female," which is at the Queen's, Brent has the leading masculine role, and incidentally is the only lover in the picture. Miss Chatterton is unable to bend to her husband's executive who flirts outrageously after office hours with the handsome young men in her employ. She is as ruthless in love as she is in business until she finds the one who will not bend to her will, whereupon she discovers that he is a man whom she can't do without, which revolutionizes her entire mode of life. This unusual screen play by Gene Markay and Kathryn Scola was directed by William Dieterle. Others in the cast include Ruth Donnelly, Lela Wilson, Ferdinand Gottschalk and Johnny Mack Brown.

"Ever in My Heart"

It's a new Barbara Stanwyck, a greater Stanwyck that amazes and plays on your heart strings in "Ever in My Heart," her latest for Warner Bros., which is showing to-day at the Alhambra. The picture deals with the tender love life of a young New England girl and a German professor of chemistry whom she has married just prior to the outbreak of the World War, and the tragic outcome of their romance through indignities heaped upon them by former friends and relatives when patriotic feeling ran high. Seldom has a picture reached such depth of feeling, such poignant pathos as does "Ever in My Heart" when two bruised and helpless lovers fight to save their love in the face of a hostile world. Otto Kruger, comparatively new to pictures, but long famed on the Broadway stage, as the German professor, is superb in his role. The entire cast recedes from notable celebrities from both stage and screen, give splendid performances even to the bit roles. Ruth Donnelly, Laura Hope Crews, Frank Albertson, Donald Meek, Clara Blandick, Elizabeth Patterson and Harry Berensford, are outstanding in their work.

Fight The Depression!

Keep yourself in condition and you will better be able to weather business depression, for nothing gets a man down sooner than bad business coupled with ill-health. To be fit, it is essential to keep the stomach and bowels in good order and to do this there is nothing better than an occasional dose of Pinkettes. This ideal laxative is non-gripping and non-habit-forming, and assists nature in a perfectly natural way to cleanse the food tract regularly. For perfect health take Pinkettes, obtainable at all chemists.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICES.

THE EAST ASIATIC CO. LTD.
COPENHAGEN.

The Danish Motor Vessel, "AFRIKA"

having arrived from Copenhagen, Oslo, Gothenburg, Antwerp, Hamburg and Genoa, consignees of cargo are hereby informed that all goods are being landed and placed at their risk into the hazardous and/or extra hazardous Godowns of The Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co. Ltd., where delivery can be obtained as soon as the goods are landed.

No claims will be admitted after the goods have left the godowns and all goods remaining undelivered after the 4th July, 1934, 4 p.m., will be subject to rent. All broken, chafed and damaged goods are to be left in the Godown, where they will be examined by Messrs. Anderson and Ash on the 3rd July, 1934, at 10 a.m. All claims against the vessel must be presented to the Underigned within ten days of the ship's arrival, or they will not be recognised. No Fire Insurance will be effected. Bills of Lading will be countersigned by.

JOHN MANNERS & CO. LTD.,
Agents.
Mercantile Bank Building,
Hongkong, 27th July, 1934.

WHEN AT HOME

The Hongkong Telegraph.

MAY BE PURCHASED

AT

SELFRIDGE'S

LONDON, W.1.

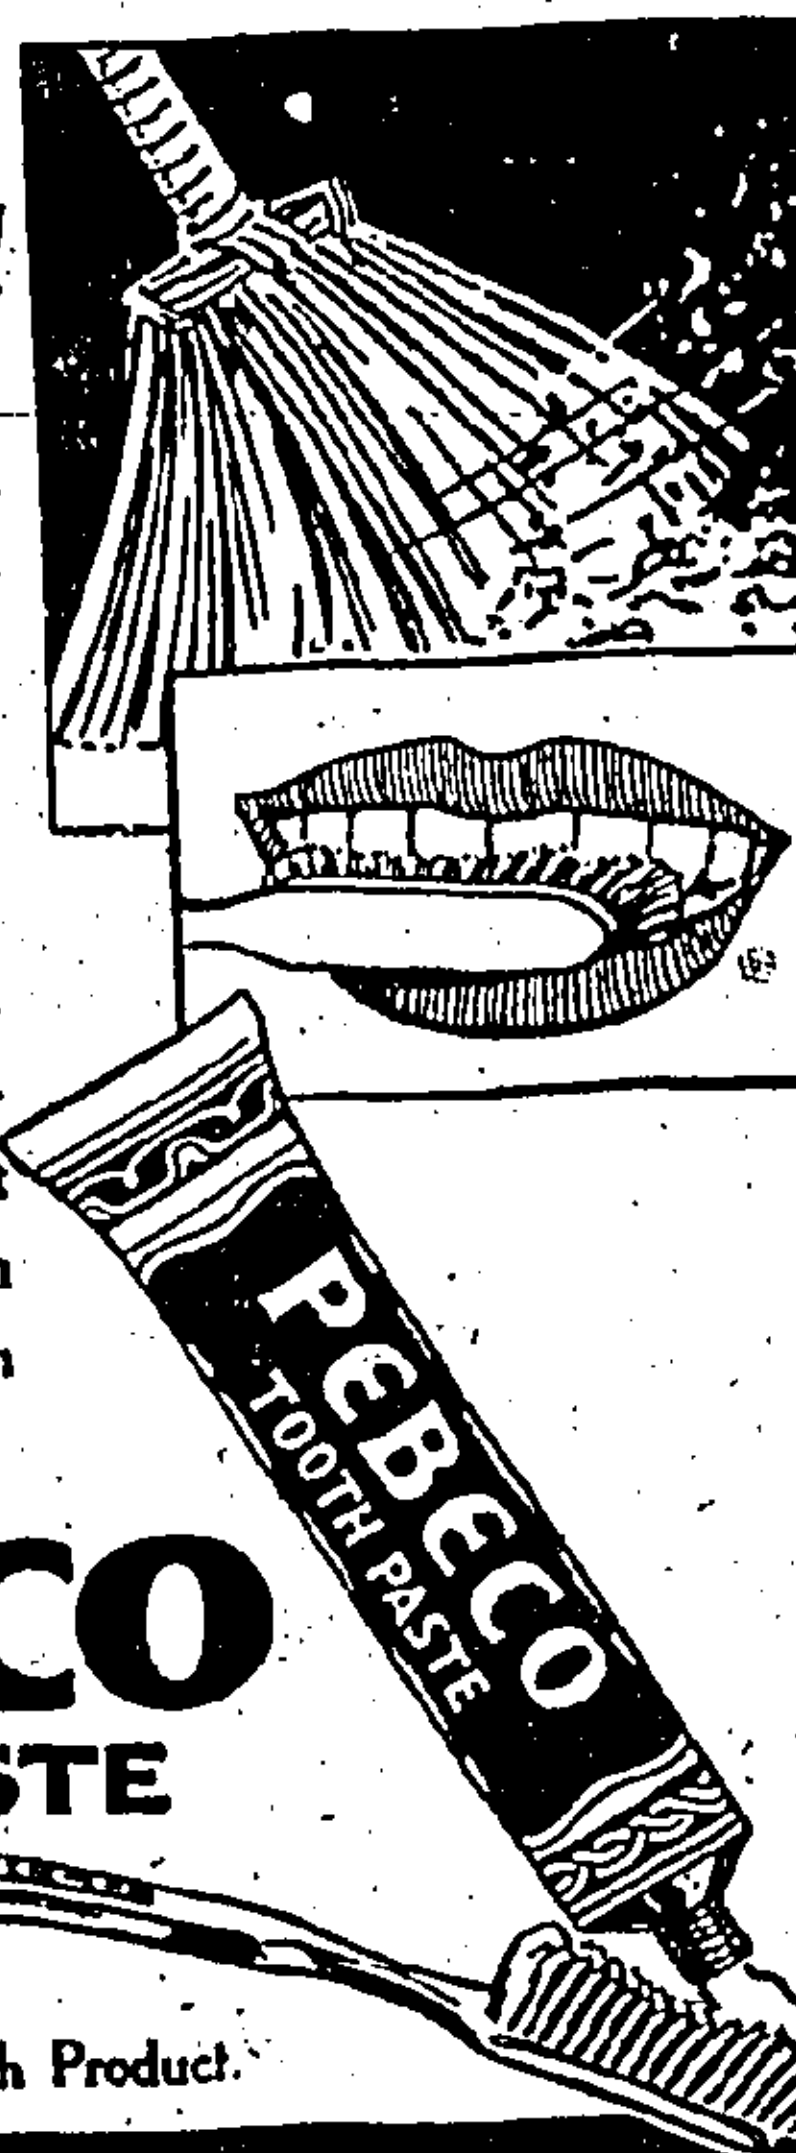

Sweep the germs of disease out of your mouth!

Disease most frequently enters the body by way of the mouth. Prevent tooth decay and sweep out the germs of disease by the daily use of Pebecco.

A healthy mouth can withstand infection—an unhealthy mouth cannot resist disease. Keep your mouth healthy, and your teeth sound, with Pebecco.

PEBECO TOOTH PASTE

A British Product.

THE BLUE FUNNEL LINE

REGULAR AND FAST
FREIGHT AND
PASSENGER SERVICES

LONDON SERVICE

SARPEDON 4 July Marseilles, London, Rotterdam & Glasgow
PERSEUS 11 July Casablanca, London, Rotterdam, Hamburg & Hull

LIVERPOOL SERVICE

DARDANUS 1 July Tripoli, Havre, Liverpool, Glasgow, Hamburg, Danzig, Neufahrwasser & Gdynia

NEW YORK SERVICE

ADRASTUS 14 July Boston, New York, Philadelphia & Baltimore via Manila, Straits & Suez

PACIFIC SERVICE

IXION 12 July Japan, Victoria, Seattle & Vancouver

INWARD SERVICE

AGAPENOR Due 1 July From U. K. via Straits
IXION Due 9 July From Pacific Coast via Japan & Shanghai

Specially reduced fares are quoted for cargo steamers with limited passenger accommodation.
For freight, passage rates and information apply to the under-mentioned.

BUTTERFIELD & SWIRE.
Agents.

BARBER-WILHELMSSEN LINE

MONTHLY SERVICE.

To Pacific PANAMA Atlantic
SAN FRANCISCO BALBOA NEW YORK
LOS ANGELES CRISTOBAL BOSTON

M.V. "TRICOLOR"

18th JULY.

EXCELLENT ACCOMMODATION
FOR 12-PASSENGERS.

DODWELL & CO., LTD.

Agents. Telephone 28021.
Queen's Building.

SWAN, CULBERTSON & FRITZ.

Investment bankers and brokers in securities and commodities
Daily New York and London Stock Exchange Services.
Commodity Futures on the principal American markets.

Members of:

New York Cotton Exchange
Chicago Board of Trade.
Commodity Exchange, Inc.
(Silver, Rubber, Silk Copper, Hides and Tin).
New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange.

Correspondents for Haydon, Stone & Co.
Telephones: 30244, 30245, 30246. Cable Address: Swanstock
9, Queen's Road Central (Corner of Ico House Street).

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Freckles Has to Have His Joke!

By Blosser

WEDDING OR BIRTHDAY PRESENTS

Remember, whenever you have to send a present for any occasion, you will find what you want

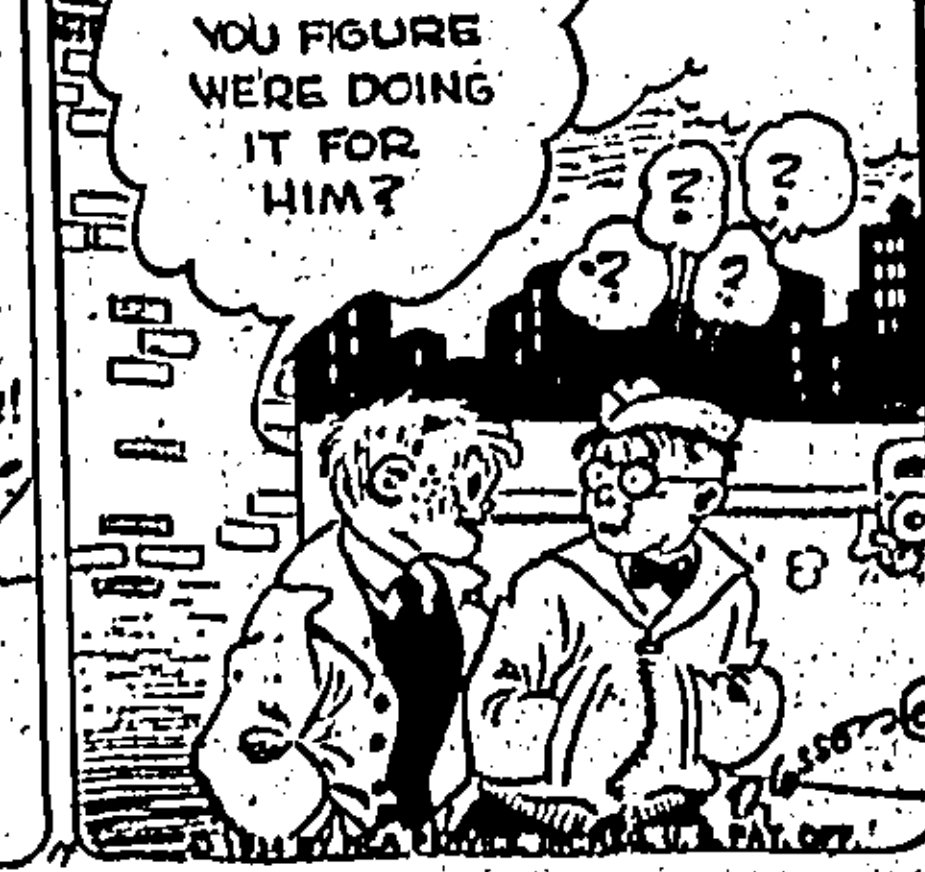

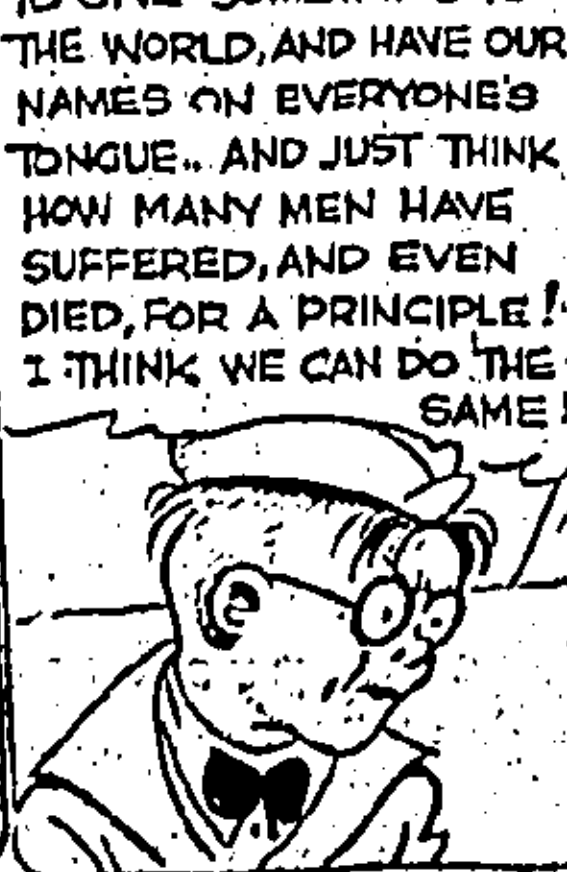

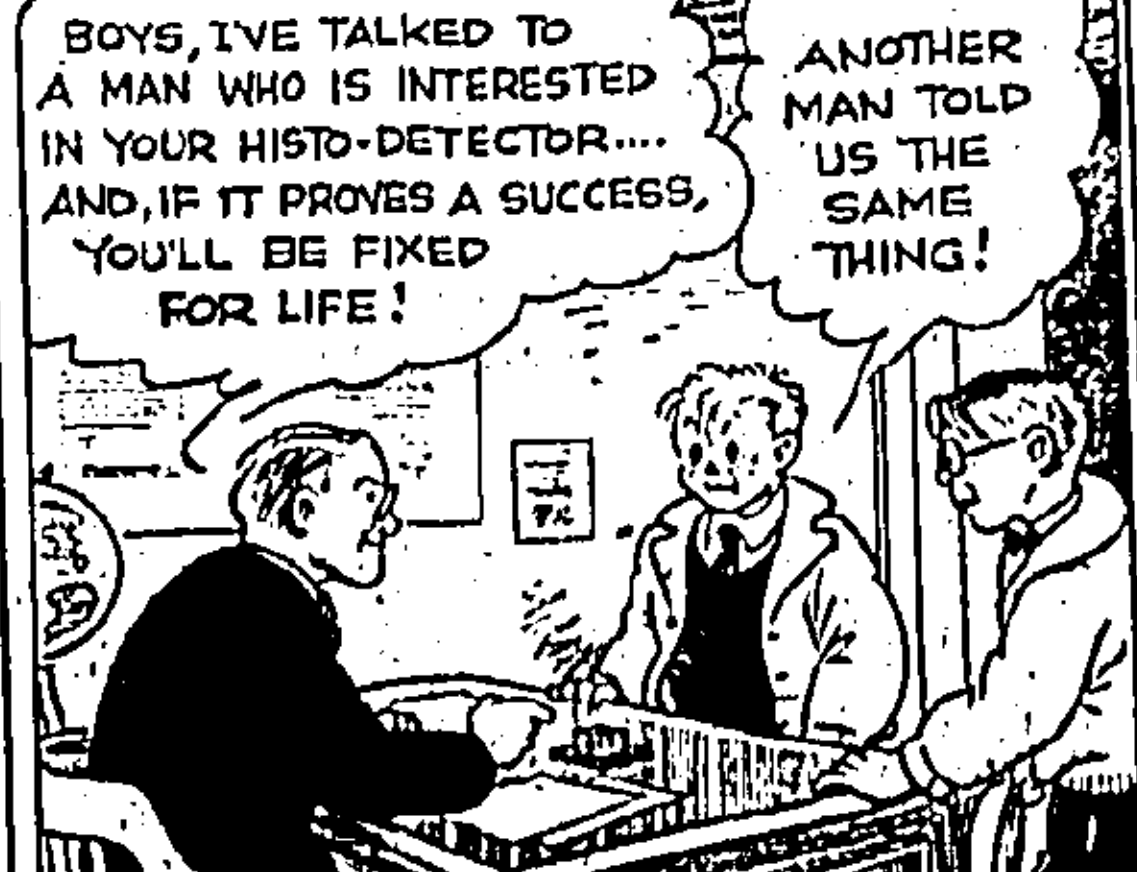

KOMOR'S

Chater Road, York Building.

Lacquer, Porcelain, Ivory,
Silk-Ware, Etc.

Prices from 50 cts. upwards.

FRECKLES
AND NUTTY HAVE BEEN CALLED INTO THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL'S
OFFICE AGAIN

Married Flirts

by MABEL McELLIOTT

CHAPTER XXXVIII

"I don't know what you mean," Gypsy repeated but her heart was beating very fast. Sue's blazing eyes, in a white face accused her. "I never should have thought it of you," Sue went on in a low shaking tone. "Flirting around. You with a nice husband of your own . . . a baby."

"Sue! Why, I've never in the world . . . Gypsy was hot, angry, muthous. Hunt had been a friend; that was all. It was horrid of Sue. Her illness must be affecting her mind."

To Gypsy's amazement and discomfiture, the other girl put her handkerchief to her eyes and began to weep. Gypsy glanced around in consternation. There were only a few people at the tables now. An old lady in black sat in the corner, enjoying a solitary tea. There were two or three absorbed couples. No one was noticing.

"Sue, you mustn't—not here!" The other girl gulped, swallowed, put her handkerchief away. "I'm terribly sorry," she apologized. "I'm—not myself, you can see that. I didn't mean all I said. Forget it. You can see how it is with me . . ."

Gypsy saw. Sue, in love with Hunt, desperate, jealous. And yet the accusation rankled. Was there any justice in what Sue had said? Had she, Gypsy, sought succor from her own pain in Hunt's attentions? She winced at the thought.

Impulsively she leaned across and patted Sue's hand. "I'm sorry if you've misunderstood," she said softly. "Hunt's awfully fond of you. See him before you go away."

Sue raised her head proudly. "I'll not run after him," she said quickly. "I'll not run after any man. It was only—well, you see, while he was away he used to write to me. 'Marvellous letter. I got—sentimental about him then. And when he got back, so tall and distinguished and interesting. I sort of—fell for him, I guess. It was silly of me. But he seemed to like me a lot. Until this winter. Then I began not to see so much of him. And he got in with that Village crowd. Ronny's . . ."

"I know," Gypsy interrupted to say, with a little spasm of guilt. "Well, then Elsieph drove me crazy, telling me he was in love with you—that he followed you around every place, that he wouldn't go to a party unless he heard you were to be there. I've cried myself sick over it."

"Elsieph!" Gypsy said with fine scorn. "And you listened to her." "Well, she's a mischief maker. I know that, but some of it was true. He did see lots of you and whenever I met him it was always you he talked about."

"Nonsense," Gypsy's colour was high. "You don't know what a relief it's been to talk it out." Sue said, on a long sigh. "To hear you say there's nothing in it—to know you wouldn't lie to me."

"Of course, I wouldn't lie to you," Gypsy said proudly. "Besides, what about Tom? What did you think I was planning? You should have known better than this."

"I'd tell myself, 'there's absolutely nothing in it,'" Sue went on. "I'd try to forget about it. And then I wouldn't hear from Hunt for weeks. I'd be sick to death listening for the sound of the phone. No matter who else called I couldn't be bothered. You know how it is." She appealed to the other woman.

"I know," Gypsy told her soberly. "I got awfully run down," Sue confessed. "I haven't been eating much. I don't sleep. The doctor tells me I'll crack up unless I go away and have a rest. And yet it's killing me to leave him. To think some other girl will be playing with him while I'm hundreds of miles away . . ."

Gypsy signalled the waiter, hovering in the background with a check. The two girls strolled out into the sunshine. "Come back to the apartment with me," Gypsy said. "Let's talk this thing out. I can't bear to think of your going away off there with nothing settled."

In the back of her mind there hovered the ghost of a plan. If Hunt could be made to see . . . If his eyes were opened there might be no need of Sue's long journey.

The trouble was, Gypsy thought ruefully putting down the receiver, she just didn't know how to say "no" to people. When Lila called, announcing her return and asking Gypsy to a dinner she was giving the following night, she had accepted without thinking. And Tom was behaving very oddly about it. He simply said he couldn't go. Gypsy knew he didn't approve of Lila, but that wasn't it entirely. He was too modern to stand aside and judge his wife's friends, no matter what they might do.

"But I said we would," she told him, puzzled. "We don't often go places together these days. Or rather, I didn't think at all. I just accepted, like an idiot, without thinking."

"I'm sorry, darling. I'll undoubtedly be tied up with Strathmore to-morrow night. Got to go up to Tarrytown to see him. Get out of it."

But when Gypsy called back to tell Lila all this the latter was gaily adamant. Nonsense, she would get another man. How about that nice, bronzed engineer chap—Gibson? She had met him at parties last winter and at Gypsy's tea. She'd give him a ring. He could pick Gypsy up . . .

Gypsy bit her lip and kept silent. It was idiotic—the whole thing was. Tom made no comment when she told him of Lila's arrangement but she had an idea he didn't exactly like it. Oh, dear, it wasn't her fault! Sue would be angry, too, if she heard.

She dressed for the party with mixed feelings. Hunt's arrival made her feel shy as a schoolgirl and self-conscious, too. He admired her new frock, a soft, adroitly curving affair of apricot satin. Tom had not even seen her in it. It set off her rounded small figure and creamy shoulders to perfection.

She went back into the bedroom for her wrap. David was seated in his high chair and Elsa was feeding him his supper.

"Good night, darling. Mr. Weaver said he'd be home about 10, Elsa. You'll remember just what I said about his supper. He said he'd stop at Grand Central for a bite but I'm sure he won't have had time."

"Ya, I fix it," Elsa held the blue mug to the baby's lips.

"Goodbye, angel," Gypsy clutched the little velvet jacket around her, dropped a kiss on the back of David's neck and went out.

In the taxi she chattered gaily about nothing at all. Later, she told herself, she would get around to Sue.

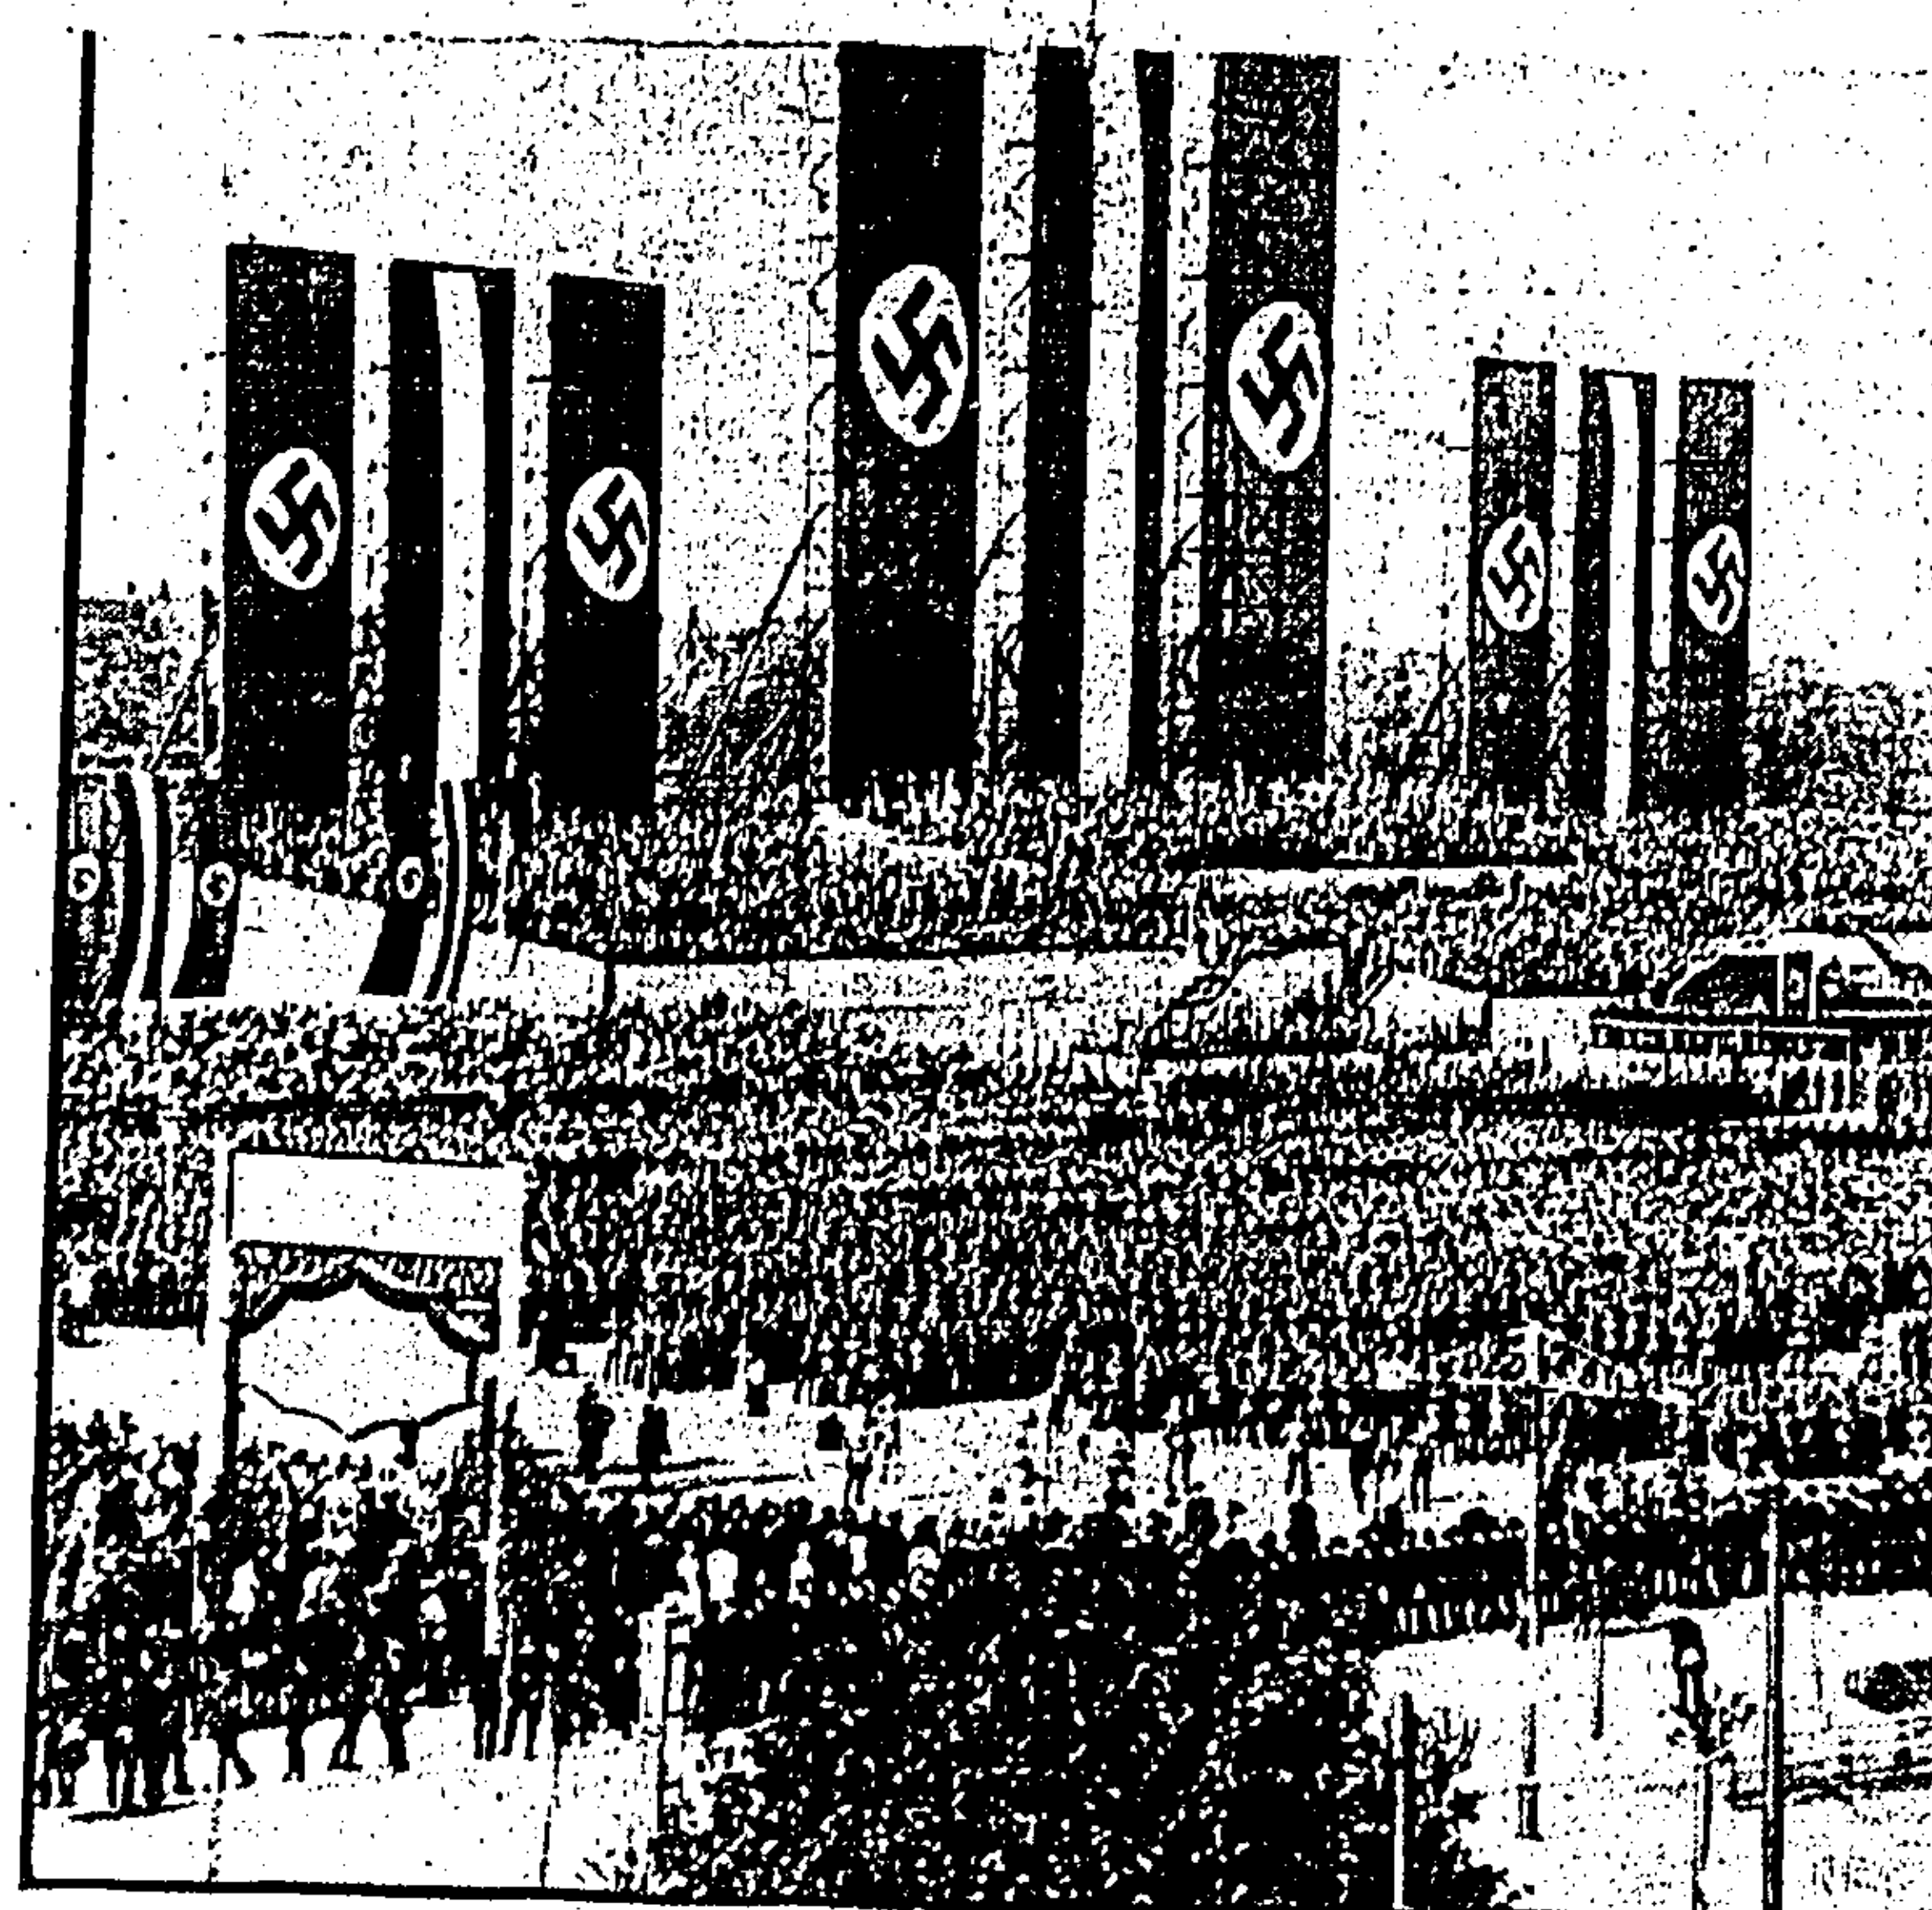

No one, Lila told them lightly, was in town. There were just a few people coming in. Yes, of course she remembered Mr. Gibson and it was sweet of him to come, so infrequently. Marko was there and two or three young men and their bird-like, beautifully caparisoned young women. Pep, Van, Norrie. Lila always introduced her guests thus, casually.

The table was a long, gleaming black surface with little white islands upon it. Lace runners. Glass birds. A foam of white flowers in a crystal bowl. Although the night was hot Lila's apartment seemed cool, high above the city.

Hunt seemed to fit in with this

(Continued on Page 4.)

The stupendous spectacle of 2,000,000 people gathered in one place was afforded in Berlin's great Tempelhof aerodrome recently when Chancellor Hitler, by means of 122 loud speakers, told the vast assemblage of Nazi aims and policies. It is credited with being the greatest single throng in history.

Barely larger than the proud boy and girl whose hands he clasps, smiling Dr. Dollfus strides across the arena in the stadium in Vienna before 5,000 school children assembled for a pageant marking the inauguration of Austria's new Fascist constitution. Simultaneously, Nazi sympathizers hung a banner marked "Death to Dollfus" near Vienna's Opera House.

As an example to Chinese residents of Shanghai Mayor Wu Teh-shen, of the Shanghai City Government, last week gave a demonstration of how a street should be swept. This practical example marked the commencement of Health Week in connection with the New Life Movement.

Japanese swordmakers seem to be overdoing preparedness as they forge a sword for the crown prince still in his cradle, a custom to which the Nipponese cling. The shining steel blade here by Matsuo Kato, imperial swordsmith, for his assistant's inspection, will be presented to the crown prince at his first festival.

New Proofed-Poplin RAINCOATS

Made of a highly mercerised poplin, thoroughly proofed by a special process, self-lined to afford double protection, yet light in weight.

Well cut on generous lines—with button to neck collar and storm cuffs, carefully finished in every detail, and cooler than a rubber coat because the heat of the body can get out.

$45.00

With or without belt.

Feather-weight rubber coats

From $17.50

We allow 10% discount for cash.

MACKINTOSH'S LTD

Don't be vague — ask for Haig

NO FINER WHISKY GOES INTO ANY BOTTLE

Sole Agents:—

GANDE, PRICE & CO., LTD.

Tel. No. 20135. Hongkong.

MAYFAIR'S GREAT SUMMER

SALE

Commencing 30th June

EVERYTHING REDUCED

To Your Advantage

SUMMER NEEDS FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

BE AMONG THE FIRST!

MAYFAIR CO.

CHINA—BUILDING. Opposite King's Theatre.

THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION

Cash, Camera Awards and Trophies to the Value of $1,200.00

IN ADDITION TO THE CAMERA AND CASH PRIZES MESSRS. ILFORD, LIMITED, OF LONDON OFFER

TWO SILVER TROPHIES

TO WHAT ARE ADJUDGED THE TWO BEST ENTRIES IN THE COMPETITION, IRRESPECTIVE OF CLASS.

COMMENCE SENDING IN YOUR ENTRIES NOW.
ENTRIES RECEIVED UP TILL 31st AUGUST.

SECTION 1

FOR THE BEST STORY-TELLING PICTURE

- 1st.—(Donated by the manufacturers—Franko & Heidecke in conjunction with the Hongkong Representatives, Messrs. Melchers & Co.) Rolleiflex Photo-Automat Camera 2 1/4 x 2 1/4 (6 x 6 cms) with Zeiss Tessar 3.8 lens. (Complete with Leather Case). VALUE $235.00.
- 2nd.—(Donated by the Eastman Kodak Company) New Continental Kodak 620-Duo, Zeiss Tessar f.3.5 lens and Compur Shutter; 16 pictures to the Verichrome, Panatomic or Supersensitive Panachromatic No. 620 Roll Film. VALUE $134.00.
- 3rd.—(Donated by "Agfa China Co.") "Agfa" Superior C. Camera 8 x 14 cm. with Anastigmat Trilinear f.6.3 lens, Compur Shutter and Self-timer. VALUE $60.00.
- 4th.—(Donated by the Eastman Kodak Company) Kodak 620, Anastigmat f.6.3 lens; 8 pictures 2 1/4 x 3 1/4 to the Verichrome Film Roll No. 620. VALUE $28.00.

Consolation Prize of New 620 Box Brownie

SECTION 2

BATHING AND PICNIC PHOTOGRAPHS

- 1st.—(Donated by the manufacturers—Franko & Heidecke in conjunction with the Hongkong Representatives, Messrs. Melchers & Co.) Rolleiflex Photo-Automat Camera 2 1/4 x 2 1/4 (6 x 6 cms) with Zeiss Tessar 4.5 lens. (Complete with Leather Case). VALUE $135.00.
- 2nd.—$50. 3rd.—$20. 4th.—$10. Consolation Prize New 620 Box Brownie.

SECTION 3

CHINESE STUDIES. (FIGURES AND FACES)

- 1st.—(Donated by the Mayen Studio) Baldax Camera with Meyer f.2.9 lens, Compur Shutter and built-in self-timer (Timing 1 sec. to 1/250th Sec., 16 pictures to the British New. Ensign Lukos 120 Film. VALUE $75.00.
- 2nd.—(Donated by Carlowitz & Company) Zeiss Ikon Camera. VALUE $35.00.
- 3rd.—(Donated by "Agfa China Co.") "AGFA" Speedex Record Camera, F 7.7. VALUE $25.00.

Consolation Prize of New 620 Box Brownie

SECTION 4

VIEWS, INCLUDING ARCHITECTURE & STREET SCENES

- 1st.—$50. 2nd.—$20. 3rd.—$10. Consolation Prizes of New 620 Box Brownie and one "AGFA" Box Camera.

SECTION 5

STUDIES IN STILL LIFE

- 1st.—$40. 2nd.—$20. 3rd.—$10. Consolation Prize of New 620 Box Brownie.

SECTION 6

SNAPSHOTS TAKEN BY CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF 14 YEARS

- 1st.—$12.50. 2nd.—$7.50 and 12 Consolation Prizes of No. O Box Brownie Cameras. (Donated by the Eastman Kodak Co.)

The following Rules will govern the Competition:—

- 1.—The Competition is confined exclusively to amateur photographers.
- 2.—The Prizes will be awarded to the competitors sending in what are adjudged to be the best photographs in each Section. Each entry must be accompanied by the form below.
- 3.—The right to publish any or all of the entries in the Telegraph is reserved.
- 4.—Photographs which have been already entered in local competitions are ineligible.
- 5.—At the conclusion of the Competition, entries will be returned to competitors on application at this Office within seven days.
- 6.—No responsibility will be accepted for non-delivery, loss or damage.
- 7.—Photographs which must not be less than 2 1/4 x 3 1/4 (excepting in the Children's Section) should be printed in black and white, with the entry form, lightly pasted on the back.
- 8.—No correspondence will be entered into in connection with the Competition.
- 9.—Entries in the Children's Section must bear the name, age and address on the entry form countersigned by a parent.
- 10.—Members of the Staff of the Hongkong Telegraph and South China Morning Post are not permitted to compete.
- 11.—The decision of the Judges shall be final.

Address your Entries to—The Hongkong Telegraph Amateur Photographic Competition.

READ THE RULES CAREFULLY.

USE THIS FORM

AND LIGHTLY PASTE
IT ON THE BACK OF EACH ENTRY.

ENTRY FORM

SECTION
NAME ADDRESS
DATE

Please use block letters and paste this on back of each Entry.
If entered in Children's Section, parent please countersign here

NIGHTMARE OF WAR

(Continued from Page 6.)

worked to explain to those who had remained at home just what this horror was. The novels and the plays have passed before us. We looked at the gruesome pictures and shuddered. But no one really understood. No one really learned anything. The artists were attempting the impossible. They were trying to translate a nightmare into the realm of actuality. Naturally they failed, as signally as did those who sought to bar their windows against a second visit of the terror.

Any soldier who served through any of the major engagements in the World War will agree with me that in looking back now the picture of those days is misted with unreality. Let him try, if he does not agree, to put his memories into actual words. He will find then that it cannot be done. He may cause a few shudders. But in the telling he will realize his inability to convey anything of the distorted picture which he may conjure up in his own thoughts. This present is one plane of existence. War, which is a flat denial of every cultural and ethical principle that has contributed to our present civilization, is a totally different one.

For example, let us glance back through the pages of history. Let us choose an isolated page of events which convulsed the world, however briefly. The Inquisition comes to mind. No doubt in those days there were those who struggled to open the eyes of their fellow men to the horror of the system. They failed because the confused majority believed in the necessity of doing evil that good might come of it. This confused thinking resulted in a nightmare of torture and cruelty—but is not war of the same stuff?

The parallel of the Inquisition is true to the point at first he is inclined to admit. There were those who believed that by torture and suffering men could be forced to embrace the true religion and their souls thereby be saved. But is not the belief in war based upon the same fallacy? We have believed that through murder, through such wholesale torture as the Inquisition never knew, by cruelty and barbarity, wrongs and inequalities might be righted.

Now, as we look back, we see clearly that the Inquisition was based on a condition of thought. It was in fact an unreality that gained credence. The Inquisition passed with the growing apprehension of liberty, justice and intelligence. Men woke from the dream that was the basis of the Inquisition's horror, and it passed into history as a dream of terror through which the world has long since passed.

If we had not seen that and recognized it clearly we to-day might be calling international conferences at which the experts would solemnly declare which instruments of torture might legally be used, and what form of religion a man must embrace to escape the attentions of the torturers.

But, because we have not yet classified war as another phase of the same distorted dream, we still debate and argue as to what weapons may legally be used when next we experience the nightmare. This is the dead weight that mankind carries in its struggle toward peace. We desire to escape the nightmare under certain conditions. We are ready to give up everything except the belief that we may awake from the nightmare with something tangible in our grasp.

In this state of unreason we call conferences and send our delegates and ambassadors. To our dismay the conferences fail. We cry out in our bitterness as we watch the evasions, the indecisions and blunderings of the conferees. Yet what else can we expect? These agents, in their confusion, but reflect the thinking of those whom they serve.

Thus it becomes increasingly clear that disarmament is like every other problem—an individual one. If we ourselves believe in the nightmare, can we expect others to awake? If we insist on the locks and shutters, can we complain that the windows and doors of others remain locked and bolted? The fierce dogs that we keep in our yard for strictly defensive purposes may appear startlingly offensive to our neighbours. And all of these things are but evidences that we cling to the reality of the dream.

We send our ambassadors and delegates to work under the dark pall of shadows that guns and warships throw across the conference chamber, and wonder why the results are unsatisfactory. An if every one of us did not know that true disarmament is the disarming of the fears and suspicions of others through our own manifest good will and sincerity.

So it is as an old soldier who was sent out once and might conceivably be called upon once more that I watch the struggle of the nations to avoid a cataclysm that no one wishes to experience.

SHARE PRICES

The following is the list of local share quotations issued to-day.

Banks.

H.K. Bank, $182 1/2 n. and 5/8 n.
H.K. Bank (London), $181 1/2 n.
Chartered Bank, $16 1/4 n.
Mercantile Bank, A. & B. $28 n.
Mercantile Bank C., $15 n.
East Asia Bank, $91 n.
Am. O. Finance Corp., $20 n.
China O. Fin. Ord. Sh. $4 n.
China O. Fin. Prof. Sh. $5 n.

Insurances.

Canton Ins., $300 n.
Union Ins., $565 s.
China Underwriters, $1 1/4 n.
China Fire, $610 n.
H.K. Fire Ins., $260 n.
International Assee, $6 n.

Shipping.

Douglas, $40 n.
H.K. Steamboats, $7 n.
Indo-China, (Pref.), $30 n.
Indo-China, (Def.), $38 n.
Shells (Bearer), 50/- n.
Union Waterboats, $11.80 n.

Mining.

Antamoks, 69 cts. n. A.T.M.
Balatocs, $32 n.
Banguit Gold, 36 cts. n.
Banguits, $32 1/4 n.
Banguit Exploration, 20 cts. n.
Banguit Goldfield, 20 cts. n.
Big Wedge, 12 cts. n.
Gold Creek, $2 1/2 n.
Gold River, 26 1/2 cts. n.
Ipo Mining, $4 n.
Itogons, $7 n.
Kailan, 20/- n.
Langkate (Single), $21 1/4 n.
S'hai Explorations, $5 n.
S'hai Loans, $5.35 n.
Raub, $18.20 n.
Venz: Goldfield, $7 n.

Docks, etc.

H.K. Wharves, $108 b.
H.K. Docks, $15 n.
S. China Motors A., $2 n.
S. China Motors B., $8 n.
Providents (old), $1 1/4 n.
Providents (new), 50 cts. n.
Hongkew (old), $322 1/2 n.
Hongkew (new), $320 n.
New Engineerings, $5 n.
Shanghai Docks, $131 n.

Cotton Mills.

Ewo Cottons, $11.30 n.
S'hai Cottons, (old), $72 n.
S'hai Cottons (new), $42 n.
Zoong Sings, $11 1/4 n.
Wing On Textiles, $57 n.

Lands, Hotels, etc.

H. and S. Hotels, $5.80 b.
H.K. Lands, $58 1/2 n.
S'hai Lands, $26 1/2 n.
Metropolitan Lands, $14 n.
Humphreys, $10.60 n.

POWELL'S

SALE

CONTINUES.

Everything throughout the Store is GENUINELY REDUCED.

You may choose from "Powell's" complete and wonderful stocks of fine quality

SUITS, RAINCOATS, HATS, SUN HELMETS, TIES, SOCKS, SHIRTS, PYJAMAS, ETC.

You are assured that every purchase will mean a definite genuine saving on the original price.

WM. POWELL, LTD.

THE GENTLEMEN'S HOUSE

10, Ice House Street.

H.K. Realities, $5.35 n.
Asia Realities "A", $140 n.
Asia Realities "B", $20 n.
Chinese Estates, $82 1/4 b.
China Realities, $15 1/2 n.
China Debuture, $187 n.

Public Utilities.

Tramways, $21 1/4 b.
Peak Trams (old), $15 n.
Peak Trams (new), $7 n.
Star Ferries, (old), $100 1/2 n.
Yau-mat Ferries, $20.65 n.
C. Lights (old), $8.80 b.
C. Lights (new), $8.80 b.
H.K. Electric, $27 1/4 n.
Macao Electric, $25 n.
Sandakan Lights, $3 n.
Telephones (old), $24 1/4 n.
Telephones (new), $12 b.
China Buses, $13.20 n.
Singapore Traction, 5/- n.
Singapore Pref., 16/10 1/2 n.

Industrials.

Malabon Sugars, $12 n.
Cald: Macg. (old), $21 n.
Cald: Macg. (Pref.), $19 1/4 n.

Canton Ices, $2.70 n.
Cements (new), $2.82 1/2 n.
H.K. Ropes, $4 1/2 n.

Stores, etc.

Dairy Farms, $25 b.
Watsons, $5.70 n.
Dor A. Wiags, $1 n.
Lane Crawford, $4.40 n.
Mackintosh, $21 n.
Sinceres, $9 n.
Wm. Powells, 70 cts. n.
Wing On (H.K.) $100 n.

Miscellaneous.

Amusements, $4 n.
H.K. Entertainments, $7 1/2 n.
S.C. Enterprises, $1 n.
United Theatres, $2 n.
Macao Greyhounds, $2 n.
Constructions (old), $1.55 b.
Constructions (new), 70 cts. b.
Ch. Govt. 5% 1926 G.S. Bonds 87 1/2 % n.
H.K. Gov. 4% Loan, 8 1/4 b. (prem.)
Wallace Harpers, $8 n.
Gov. Loan 3 1/2 % Loan, 1/4 b. (prem.)

YOU CERTAINLY CAN TAKE IT — WHEN IT'S A SNAPSHOT —

SHUCKS, WHO COULDN'T
WITH VERICHROME
FILM

NO OTHER FILM IS THE SAME AS VERICHROME

Folks needn't squint at the sun. They can stand in the shade... if the film in your camera is Verichrome. Ask for—see that you get—Kodak VERICHROME Film... in the yellow box with checkered stripes.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

HONGKONG SHANGHAI TIENTSIN

IF IT IS

Boots

IT IS BETTER!!

THE EVER INCREASING DEMAND FOR THE MEDICINES AND TOILET PREPARATIONS OF BOOTS PURE DRUG CO., LTD., PROVES THE POPULARITY OF THIS FAMOUS FIRM.

A. S. WATSON & CO., LTD.

THE HONGKONG DEPOT FOR Boots PURE DRUG CO. LTD. DISPENSARY

INTRODUCING THE

"PATTERSON"

ALL WAVE AUTOMATIC RADIO-GRAMOPHONE.

Note these features

10 Tube All Wave Receiver with a range between 15 to 575 meters.

Plays eight 10" or 12" records automatically.

Two speed motor for standard or long-playing records. Electrical amplification of records without the slightest distortion, and true fidelity of tone.

Retains all the features of the well known "Patterson" receiving sets—Supreme tone quality—automatic volume control—Shadow colour tuning—matched dynamic speaker.

Price $650.00 Net

(Terms if desired)

S. MOUTRIE & CO., LTD.

York Building.

Hongkong.

Chater Road.

Makers Of Distinctive

FURNITURE.

MADE FROM THE FINEST MATERIALS. DESIGNED ON PLEASING LINES AND GUARANTEED TO GIVE ENDURING SERVICE. UNDOUBTEDLY SOLID VALUE AT KEEN COMPETITIVE PRICES.

Furnishing Dept.

LANE, CRAWFORD LTD.

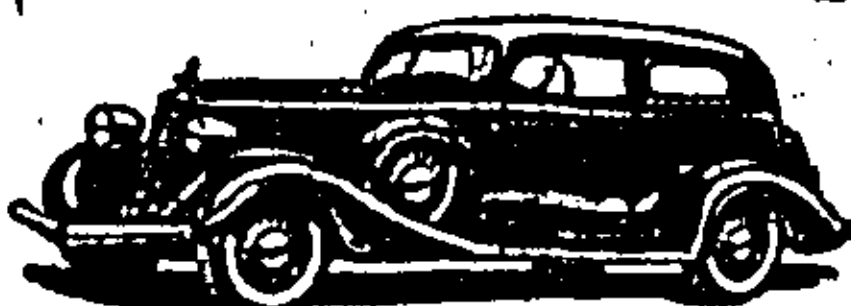

STUDEBAKER 1934

Popular demand—

"DICTATOR SIX"

Priced within reach of all!
DE LUXE SEDAN — Six-cylinder.

88-horsepower engine
113-inch wheelbase
Speedway stamina and crashproof bodies built like battleships — "Mechanical Brains" provided throughout that make driving almost entirely automatic.

Further arrivals due shortly!

HONGKONG HOTEL GARAGE

Show Room—Stubbs Road
Phone: 27778-9.
Arrange for a Studebaker Demonstration Drive!

The Hongkong Telegraph

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1934.

TRADE COMMISSION

General satisfaction will be felt at the announcement that the Government has decided to appoint a Commission which is to be charged with the task of studying the present position of trade in the Colony and making recommendations designed to improve the existing situation. The personnel of the Commission has not yet been announced, but it will be representative of the commercial, banking and shipping interests of the Colony and, if wisely chosen, it should be able to make really constructive proposals for effecting a much-needed improvement in the present state of affairs. The presumption is that the terms of reference will be widely drawn, so as to cover all relevant aspects of the problem, and that no restrictions will be imposed concerning the subject matter of the inquiry. Many specific proposals have already been forwarded to the Government by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, whilst latterly the question of the Colony's free port status has come in for considerable discussion. All these issues will doubtless be taken into account by the Commissioners, and it is to be assumed that a general invitation will be extended to all sections of the community to lay their views before the investigating body. Evidence of the decline in the Colony's trade has been revealed latterly in the periodical statistics issued by the Government, indicating in actual figures the slump which practically every business here has experienced and is still unhappily feeling. The depression may have taken a long time to hit the Colony, but its existence is now a matter of concern to almost every branch of trade. It will be the task of the Commission to analyse the causes of the decline and to put forward concrete ideas for overcoming it. The greatly-increased tariffs in China are undoubtedly a factor in the situation, but, serious as these are, they obviously do not wholly account for the present position. Currency and banking considerations cannot be overlooked, as these are vital matters when it comes to smoothing the path for commercial progress. It may be found also that reforms are needed in current business practice. But the main task of the Com-

NOTES OF THE DAY

WAR DEBT LOGIC

Britain's latest debt note points the obvious quite effectively. No-one of responsibility in the United States could have seriously entertained the idea that payment in kind presented fewer difficulties than the transfer of gold bars. Robbing Peter to pay Paul can only sound sense to the ill-informed and uninitiated, which perhaps explains why the States Department took the trouble to raise the subject and the British Government to make a pretence of keeping it open for further consideration later. All the Notes connected with the June 15 "settlement day" carry the same suspicion, that they have been drawn up primarily to lull the pound-of-flesh merchants into the belief that a serious effort is being made to obtain payment. A curious air of unreality pervades them all. Sometimes they seem to have been written with an eye to posterity—carefully phrased logic for future generations to pore over and decide about the rights and the wrongs. Perhaps, when all is said and done, that is the most intelligent way of handling the situation.

AMERICAN ASSENT

American opinion seems to accept Britain's plans for an all-round increase in armaments as a perfectly logical step. All the excuses are found before they have been advanced in justification by British jinglers and ready assent has been given. Whitehall could hardly have expected such encouragement. If any diffidence was felt about the programme before the good news came from Washington, it can be discarded now. Others can be left to speculate upon the next logical step. What a bust it will be when it does come.

ARMS AND THE PRESS

Two things in connection with the new defence programme would be interesting if the truth could be discovered: One is the extent of the influence exerted upon the Cabinet by the campaign of certain London newspapers for increased armaments. And the other is the extent of the influence of armaments interests behind the campaigns. It is acknowledged on all hands, of course, that no British Government in recent history has had a worse press—as far as the popular press is concerned—than the MacDonald National Government in the last twelve months. The opposition newspapers have naturally remained in opposition. And the traditionally Conservative journals have had nothing but criticism to offer, have been more reckless and spiteful in reference to certain Ministers than frankly opposition journals. Even so, it would be almost tragic to think that new armaments have been served up on a silver platter to gain the support of these journals in the next election.

SILVER MYSTERY

The silver plot thickens. Senator Dies made some very plain statements about the policy of the United States Treasury, declaring that 1,254,000,000 ounces of silver will be purchased by the end of the year. The picture of journalists swarming round the Treasury Department with demands from their newspapers for fresh and authoritative information can easily be conjured up. They seem to have gone empty away but it cannot lack significance that no denial was issued, and the local dollar is still going up, although it is still trailing behind its silver parity value. A prediction that the steady rise will continue seems to be as safe as any.

mission will undoubtedly be to ascertain whether, and, if so, what, new avenues can be opened up for improving the internal economic position of the Colony. The moment is certainly most propitious for the carrying out of a thorough investigation of the whole situation. Above all, it is to be hoped that the members of the Commission will be carefully chosen. Hopes of a really useful contribution being made will be strengthened if there is evidence that the Government is disposed to go outside the customary channels in selecting the personnel.

NIGHTMARE OF WAR

By AN OLD SOLDIER.

DISARMAMENT to me is not a vague abstraction. I cannot view it dispassionately and aloofly as so many of the so-called arms experts seem able to do. It seems to me vital and compelling to be treated as a mere vexing international problem.

To me armaments mean but one thing—ravaged lands, bolts of desolation across the face of the earth. Six-inch guns—eight-inch guns—howitzers—field pieces—naval guns—let the armament experts work out their charts to inform us which are defensive weapons and which offensive. Guns to me mean armies, men covering in cozy folds of shattered earth—the ghastly vistas of barbed wire—the broken shards of homes and cities—the obscenities of poison gas, high explosives and bayonets. Mine is the viewpoint of the old soldier.

For 10 years I have been grappling with the problem of what it is the world needs to drive home the lesson of the disaster which overtook us before is not to overtake us again. I speak as one who has the right to speak. I wore a uniform four years in the last war. I saw active service in four major offensives. And to-day I am below the age limit for active service. If another war should break upon the world within the next few years I should be called upon to serve once more.

For 10 years, therefore, I have watched intently the various phases of the effort to establish lasting peace. I have come to divide the peace seekers into two schools. On the one hand are those who have sought through international conferences and agreements to limit the world's armaments. The other group has turned out a flood of war literature, novels such as "All Quiet on the Western Front," plays like "Journey's End," pictorial records showing war in all its gruesome horror such as the collection ironically titled "The First World War." And, watching, I have gradually been forced to admit that neither group has been very successful.

Until a few days ago I did not fully realize why this was so. Then the chance remark of a wartime friend gave me the answer. We were surrounded by the comforts of this modern world. Around us the tide of industry was flowing, great natural scientists were solving the secrets that should bring us wider understanding, increased enlightenment. Yet, as we talked I saw again the valley of the Somme in 1916, that chalk-flecked, shattered segment of the western front, with its harvest of carnage and terror. And again the shadow of war seemed to rest upon the world around us.

Then my friend stopped suddenly in his talk. "You know," he said, "that was not in the same world that we know. It was on another plane of existence." The more I pondered that remark the clearer and stronger grew the conviction that my friend had voiced a great truth, that he had voiced for me something that I had known for a long time. I look back at my experience and see plainly the verity of his reasoning. I was brought up to steer my course in life by certain fixed principles. I was told I must be honest, compassionate, generous, forgiving. The Golden Rule underlay every moral law that was set before me.

I grew to manhood, went out into the world—and then the war. I was taught in the course of my training and experience to throw overboard every one of those rules. Murder was legalized. Indeed, I could become a hero in the eyes of my countrymen if my list of murders was long enough.

I see now that I had really stepped from one plane of existence to another. Or, to put it more clearly and no less logically, I became gripped by the mass hypnotism of a universal nightmare. The world had succumbed to a dream phantasmagoria and called it real. And I was fooled with the rest.

On different occasions during the war I glimpsed this, but not until my friend voiced it did I see it clearly. I remember one night in the outskirts of Lens when I was caught in a barrage laid down by the German guns. I hid in an angle of a wall behind the shattered remains of some miners' cottages. The roar of the guns ran along the whole front in a rippling crescendo of madness. The skeletons of houses about me gleamed starkly in the ghostly lightning of bursting shells.

Then, as I covered panic-stricken, something touched my face, and through the stench of high explosives I smelled the perfume of a rose. The fragrance of that flower came to me as a touch of reality. In this place men had laboured with love and patience that beauty might bloom. For the moment I forgot the drum fire, the guns and the terror, and saw the village as it was, the home of men who loved these gardens, who had planted rosebushes the perfume from which should be stronger than the stench of war.

To-day I see that it was the reality. The terror that surrounded me was the nightmare, the unreality from which men must one day wake, and, waking, recognize it not as the experience of actuality, but as having no more part in reality than the nightmare holds for us in the morning when we awake.

Because I now know this I can understand the failure of all our efforts to establish peace. We had passed through a nightmare. But upon waking we had accepted it as reality. And, instead of banishing the fear that induced it, we had sought stronger bars for our doors, thicker shutters for our windows and put fierce dogs on watch outside. Thus, we blindly reasoned, we should keep the nightmare from our dwellings.

From this premise we sought to work out a satisfactory conclusion. We attempted to make pacts with our neighbours who had experienced the same nightmare. We desired to join hands under such and such circumstances should the nightmare threaten again. Or we imagined that someone had been the cause of our experiencing the nightmare. And we sought to defend ourselves against him. Our war literature played its parts in the scheme. Men returned from the nightmare. From the depths of their revulsion they

(Continued on Page 5.)

The Very Idea!

OUR INVENTIONS

By Marchese Eddie "Marconi" Kelly, Genius

WE inventors have to put up with a lot of things.

All of which is prompted by the thought that we have to visit our doctor this afternoon to have our face X-rayed.

The asterisks are inserted in order to allow a suitable interval to pass, following the uncomplimentary references by those who have disliked the first paragraph.

The X-ray is really a modern invention, and should not be confused with the hip-ray, which is a football term, and has nothing to do with all this correspondence about the "Cult of Fashion" in a morning contemporary.

Nor should it be confused with ST-rayed, which generally ends in Police-raid.

Inventions are always the same. We were only saying to Marconi the other day that we inventors don't get any kudos for our inventions. And we love kudos. With a dash of tomato sauce they are delicious.

It's amazing, considering the way our inventions have been seized upon by the public, that we have been able to preserve our anonymity. ("Invent" is Jewish for "wont in.")

Who, for instance, invented the catapult for putting the cat out at night? Has anyone ever come and patted us on the back for it? No!

Then there was the machine we patented for beating up the hen in order to get positively fresh egg noggs.

There was another machine which cried for you when you peeled the onions.

Then there was our potato peeler. The potatoes were simply inserted one at a time and the peel went one way, the eyes went another way, pieces of your fingernails went another way, and all you had to do was to find the potato.

We got the idea for one of our best inventions while hunting grizzly bears in the Rockies far away.

The grizzly bear is so called because it is very snowy. It has a habit of snowing before you see him. (Oh, Mr. Kelly!)

Yes, we invented a robot for taking the blame for cigarette burns in carpets.

Here among our test tubes and retorts—a test tube is a thing used by international cricketers and a retort is a back answer—we won't be so technical in future—we carry out experiments which stagger the imagination. And if you've ever had an imagination with the staggers, you can sympathise with us.

We recently perfected an electric rat catcher. It rings a bell and wakes the headache, who rushes into the kitchen.

While wife is in kitchen wondering why no rat in trap, husband who has rung bell from front gate has gone to bed and is asleep to get his head there for hours to great astonishment of wife of the first part, heretofore mentioned.

We were the first man to prove that perpetual commotion in a home was not only possible, but almost unavoidable.

For the past eleven years we have been working on an apparatus to shut the wife up when we come home late. We think we have over-estimated our inventive powers. There are some things which are above human ingenuity.

Excuse us for a week. Pete, our laboratory assistant, has just called us on the phone to come across and test out our new invention for taking corks out of bottles.

Madam the Midvianis

We notice in a morning paper that Princess Midvianis has separated from the Prince and has gone back to America with her poppa.

Was Princess Midvianis (who, as everybody ought to know by now, was formerly Miss Barbara Hutton, the Woolworth heiress) in a London nursing home because there was discord in the Midvianis nest? Or was everything in the Midvianis nest too midvianis and was Princess Midvianis merely in a nursing home with the mnenales or an attack of mnenales or an attack of mnenales, enuntnimes called mnenathenias?

How many sleepless nights have we spent with the Midvianis on our mind instead of snoring snugly in our snoven and dinnepenny nightshirts? There were dimes (and we do not mean it) when we shouted "Madam the Midvianis."

Then suddenly the truth was told and we awoke. She was on a swimming nodel.

"Now take this guy—he had the lucky breaks, that's all."

MAJESTIC

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.20 p.m.

MIX and TONY
THE FOURTH HORSEMAN

PRICES THE PROOF!
THE PROOF YOUR GUIDE!

See the Special Announcement in the Pictorial Supplement

of the Hongkong Telegraph

— TO-MORROW —

AMAZING VALUES

FOR TWO WEEKS AT THE

TAJMAHAL SILK STORE

KING'S THEATRE BLDG.

D'AGUILAR STREET.

I know!

and wash all my Silks,
Flannels & Woollens
with

INO FLAKES

I also use
INO TOILET SOAP
always!

Made in Nottingham, England,
by Gerard's.

Sold by all better Stores.

Seller: Kerns & Co., Ltd.
Agents

At the

REPULSE BAY HOTEL

A SPECIAL CABARET DINNER DANCE

By Popular Request

ON SATURDAY, 30th JUNE

Extended night till 1 a.m.

ADDED ATTRACTION

KAILI'S HAWAIIAN TROUBADOURS

QUEENIE KAILI, PEARL ALAMA & DAVID KAILI

Presenting an Entertainment of

FASCINATING

HULA DANCES, SONGS & INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

DANCE MUSIC BY

THE "ANDETONIANS" BAND

Intending Diners are requested to book
as early as possible. Phone 27775
COVER CHARGE $6.00 PER PERSON.

THE HONGKONG & SHANGHAI HOTELS, LTD.

MURDER CHARGE.

CHINESE FACES CAPITAL INDICTMENT

Charged with the murder of a Chinese woman, Wong Sze-mul, on June 6, a Chinese, Cheung Chak, appeared before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. J. Lockhart-Smith, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, assisted by Inspector A. J. Dorling who was in charge of investigations.

In outlining the case for the Crown, Mr. Lockhart-Smith said that the scene of the crime was No. 1 Wong Cheuk Street, second floor, Shamshulpo, which belongs to an elderly Chinese woman, Chu Sze, who is the kit fat wife of Tso Fung. She also collected the rent of No. 117 Aplui Street, which was to let on June 6.

On June 4, about noon, a man came to the door of No. 1, Wong Cheuk Street, second floor, and asked Chu Sze how much money she wanted for the rent of 117 Aplui Street. She said "$16" and he replied that this was too dear. He then left.

On June 6, shortly after one o'clock, he again came to the flat and asked Ho Sai-yau to give him the key to 117 Aplui Street and to take him there. When she opened the door, he pushed her violently on the way in, striking her on the eye. Wong Sze-mul, the deceased woman, was also at the door and he pushed her aside and rushed out to the verandah where he met Wong Sau and struggled with her. He had a bright instrument in his hand. Wong Sze-mul rushed out to the verandah and jumped over, falling down onto the road.

The man then rushed back into the house, where he met Chu Sze and stabbed her and stamped on her feet. He dropped the instrument which was later found to be half of a pair of scissors.

He ran down into Wong Cheuk Street, followed by Wong Sau. She chased him into Yu Chau

ANCIENT RITES.

POMP AND CEREMONY WHEN KING VISITS LONDON CITY

London, June 28. Large crowds lined the route and warmly cheered the King and Queen, who drove from Buckingham Palace this morning to the City, where the King opened the new building of the Chartered Insurance Institute.

In accordance with ancient usage, His Majesty was met at the City of London boundary and admitted by the Lord Mayor, who, having received the Pearl Sword from the Sword Bearer, advanced, and, lowering its point, surrendered it to His Majesty.

The Lord Mayor and members of the Corporation, after performing this act of fealty, returned to their carriages and preceded the Royal Procession.—British Wireless.

Street, where a Chinese constable arrested him.

Wong Sze-mul and Chu Sze were taken to hospital, the latter dying a few hours after admittance.

After evidence regarding the post-mortem was given by Dr. J. T. Smalley, medical officer in charge of the Kowloon Hospital, Mr. C. A. Grimes, chief draughtsman attached to the Public Works Department, produced seven copies of plans of the flat.

Ho Sai-yau, concubine of Tso Fung, said that she lived at No. 1 Wong Cheuk Street, second floor, with Tso Fung's kit fat wife, Chu Sze, and gave evidence on lines similar to those outlined by the prosecution.

Evidence was given by Mun Hing-fong that on June 6 at 1.15 p.m., he was standing at the gate of the Wa Ha school playground opposite No. 1 Wong Cheuk Street with a friend. They heard cries of "save life and saw a Chinese woman, Wong Sau, chasing defendant. They joined in the chase and saw a policeman arrest defendant at No. 138 Yu Chau Street.

The hearing was adjourned until 2.30 this afternoon.

HOLLYWOOD UNIT.

METRO DIRECTOR AND PARTY ARRIVE IN HONGKONG

On their way to Saigon to take sound motion pictures, a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer party arrived in the Colony by the N.Y.K. liner Asama Maru yesterday and will remain here until they sail by the M. M. liner Jean Laborde on Tuesday.

The unit is under the direction of Mr. James McKay, a prominent Hollywood motion picture producer, and is composed of Mr. Clyde de Vinna, cinematographer; Mr. Harry Parkins, assistant cinematographer; Mr. H. D. Watson, sound engineer; and Mr. Alfred Inman, assistant sound engineer. Mrs. McKay is accompanying her husband, but is only making the trip as a holiday.

Interviewed yesterday Mr. McKay said that the expedition was for the purpose of obtaining a background for a talkie, the working title of which was "Indo-China." When the background was "shot" in Indo-China, Mr. McKay explained, the party would return to Hollywood, where the story would be superimposed by means of the Dunning process.

Mr. McKay will direct the picture and the cast will be headed by Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Adolphe Menjou, who will be supported by a cast of first-class players. The theme will be an Eastern romance.

The party will proceed from Saigon to Angkor Wat, the site of an ancient Indo-Chinese temple. The place is right in the heart of jungle country. It will be at this place where most of the "shots" will be taken. Besides, the scenic photographs, "shots" will be taken of native life in the country generally.

The taking of the background will occupy some time, Mr. McKay expects, as the Indo-China weather at this time of the year is usually most severe.

TO-DAY ONLY
DAILY AT 2.30, 5.10, 7.15
and
9.30 P.M.

KING

THEATRE

AIR-CONDITIONED THEATRE

BOOKING
AT THE
THEATRE
TEL. 25313.
& 25332.

No man-made laws here... the jungle knows only the law of the strongest... with life and beauty the reward of the winner!

Cecil B. De Mille's
"FOUR FRIGHTENED PEOPLE"

A Paramount Picture
with
CLAUDETTE COLBERT-HERBERT MARSHALL
MARY BOLAND-WILLIAM CAGAN

TO-MORROW

"The Answer Is No!"

It's tough to be a bad boy in love with a good dame!

SYLVIA
SIDNEY
FREDRIC
MARCH
IN
"GOOD DAME"

a B. P. Schulberg production
A Paramount Picture

4 SHOWS
DAILY
2.30-5.15
7.15-9.30

ORIENTAL

THEATRE

FOR TO-DAY & TO-MORROW.

FLEMING ROAD WANCHAI
TEL. 28473

JEAN HARLOW
LEE TRACY
"BOMBHELL"

FRANK MORGAN
FRANCY TONE
PAT O'BRIEN
UNA MENDEL
TED HEALY

TEMPEST
IN A MOVIE STUDIO!
A COMEDY SUPREME!

AN EXPLOSION OF LAUGHTER
WITH BEAUTIFUL JEAN HARLOW
AS THE FEMALE FIRE-CRACKER OF FILM DOM!

She's all T.N.T. (Tantalizing, Naughty, Temperamental) Harlow and Tracy make this one of the merriest pictures of the year!

THE INSIDE HOWLS
OF HOLLYWOOD STARDOM!

QUEEN'S

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.10, 7.20 & 9.30

TOO MANY MEN
WERE READY TO GIVE HER EVERYTHING
WHEN ALL SHE WANTED WAS ONE WHO'D GIVE HER A LITTLE TROUBLE... AND SHE GOT IT!

Chatterton
FEMALE

And superb cast including GEORGE BRENT, Philip Faversham, Johnny Mack Brown, Gavin Gordon, Ruth Donnelly

ALSO SHOWING

Musical Specialty
"FIFI"

Van Dine Thriller
"CAMPUS MYSTERY"

TO-DAY and
TO-MORROW

STAR

At 2.30, 5.20,
7.20 & 9.20

JESSIE MATTHEWS

in Britain's Most Brilliant Success

'Good Companions'

At Hankow Rd.
Kowloon

STAR

Phone
57795

ALHAMBRA

THEATRE

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.20

"AFTER YOU, MY DARLING, NO OTHER MAN CAN EVER MATTER."

Is it the same with every woman? Is there always one man to whom she belongs — all and forever? And is this man she secretly loves to the last, always the man who loved her first?

BARBARA
Stanwyck
"EVER IN MY HEART"

A Warner Bros. Picture with OTTO KRUGER, RALPH BELLAMY, RUTH DONNELLY.

CHINA'S CONCERN.

STABILITY OF SILVER HIGHLY DESIRABLE

London, June 28. Sir Arthur Salter, the distinguished British economist writing in the Manchester Guardian, says it is lamentable that China's influence has not been exercised strongly, not for the artificial appreciation of the price of silver but for its stability.

Her interest, he says, entitles her to a dominant influence in the matter of silver policy. China escaped the world depression of 1929-31 because silver was falling. Since sterling and the yen have gone off the gold standard and silver has been going up in value, her position has been reversed. Chinese exports have declined until there is a serious adverse balance of trade, necessitating the export of treasure.

The evil, Sir Arthur continues, has been accentuated by the drain of silver from the interior towards Shanghai, owing to the general insecurity. Thus a shortage of currency is threatened, with a further decline of prices.

China must restore her internal conditions in order to enable foreign capital to flow freely her ports, he adds.—Reuter.

Printed and Published for the Proprietors by FRANKLIN PERCY FRANKLIN, at 1 and 3, Wyndham Street in the City of Victoria, Hongkong.

OUR SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE

COMMENCING 30th JUNE

All the Latest

SUMMER GOODS

BATHING COSTUMES Etc.

RAINCOATS

HANDBAGS

GLOVES

STOCKINGS

TO CLEAR AT

Lower than Cost

ELITE STYLES

A.P.C. BUILDING.

A GREAT STAGE HIT!

—now a greater picture!

In its eighth big month on Broadway, it holds packed audiences spellbound. Its drama, its romance, comes to the screen even more powerful and moving!

Clark GABLE MYRNA LOY MEN IN WHITE

with Jean Hersholt
Elizabeth Allan, Otto Kruger
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

QUEEN'S

SUNDAY

6, China Bldg.
Pedder St.
(opp. H.K. Hotel)

SALE

Commencing Monday,
2nd July.

All Straw Hats at HALF PRICE.
Print Dresses were $12.50
NOW $6.75.

Washing Silk Dresses were $22.50
NOW $12.50.

Voile Silk Dresses were $26.00
NOW $15.00.

Organdie & Voile Semi Evening
Gowns were $39.00
NOW $23.00.

THE WORLD OF WOMEN

YOUR CHILDREN.

Children Have Regard For Niceties

By Olive Roberts Barton.

Two mothers have related almost identical stories. It brings up a point that may refute the general concept of the child's indifference to the niceties of life, or that a boy is merely "a noise" covered with dirt.

One small chap seven or eight years old said to his mother, "I wish you would tell Mrs. Jones not to talk the way she does. She talks so loud and her hands are always flying around. And she said, 'I ain't seen.' He also mentioned in the street car, after the motorman had remarked about "them door," that he had probably not gone to school.

His mother does not hail from Boston. She speaks correctly, of course, but has not accented grammar particularly in her home. Likewise his father. And the boy is not far enough along in school to have any grammar obsession from that source. As a matter of fact, the mother was surprised and amused in both cases. "And Bert is no prissy," she added. "He's as tough as the next one," which speech shows that she can use expressive American when she wants to.

Instinctively Cultured.

It just happens that this boy, nicely brought up, but no household plant, has an instinctive leaning toward culture or at least correct speech. Oh, that there were more of him.

The other story concerns a three-year-old. On a busy day, his "second course" was served on the plate he had cleared with a busy little fork. He held up his dish and remarked, "It's dirty."

His mother's first impulse was to change for a clean plate, but wondering if he was just noticant and scheming for his best net with the Dutch children on it, she experimented. She took the used plate, washed it, and then set the custard cup on it again.

He was satisfied. He ate his dessert without another word.

The same little boy did this, too. His mother was feeding the baby with a spoon one day that she had used to stir up the cereal. A bit had adhered to the handle just above the bowl. Watching her, he said "It's a dirty spoon. I'll take it downstairs and get a clean spoon."

Down he trundled and up he came with a brand clean spoon. "Ere," he remarked proudly, "now, sister eat."

These may be unusual cases, but we cannot count all straws that blow out of course with the wind.

Home Influence.

Both of these mothers are busy women. They keep house well, but fastidiousness never has been with their many duties a tyrannical God. In plain words environment has no opportunity to breed cranks. I can understand the child with a nursery governess or trained nurse bawling out the cook or maid if there is a smudge of soot on a napkin, becoming parsimonious, on the subject of perfection, and getting snooty if the asparagus is not laid symmetrically on his plate.

But this is different. It is innate decency and niceness, the inculcated germ of a grown lady and gentleman.

Children, I have found, rise to proud heights in clean, mended clothes, even though they forget and make mud pies in their Sunday best. Watch a boy after he has had a hair cut, or a girl with

Brides Are Picking Cotton— For Their Wedding Gowns

Nothing is more youthful than cotton. Realizing this, brides choose it for their wedding gowns. And they dress their attendants in it, too.

The bridal gown (above), an Elizabeth Hawes model, is fashioned from crisp organdy. It has an extremely high neckline, long sleeves and is worn with a short organdy veil. The bridesmaid also is wearing organdy in red, white and green candy stripes with a small hat of matching material.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF.

To Get Tan Without Sunburn Use Lotions

By Alicia Hart

Now is the time to decide what you're going to do about the care of your complexion this summer. Are you going in for a ruddy, deeply tanned skin or do you prefer to keep it as white as it is now? Whatever your decision, there are certain beauty treatments to follow if you expect to look presentable when vacation days are over and it's time to get back into town clothes.

Remember that a nice coat of deep tan is perfectly beautiful newly washed curls and a fresh pressed ribbon.

It is not always possible in a busy home to have things just so, but it won't hurt to keep in mind that all children are not mussy or indifferent through choice, and quite flattering to most women, particularly if they go in for pure white dresses. However, do not confuse tan with sunburn. There's nothing attractive about skin that has been burned until it is as red as the proverbial lobster. Furthermore, burning is decidedly bad for the skin. So, in order that you may tan without burning, lay in a supply of good suntan oils and lotions before you start for a holiday in the sunshine.

Apply your favourite suntan lotion generously to those parts of the body exposed to the elements. It will keep your skin from burning, but will not prevent tanning.

Don't stay in the sun too long the first day. Half an hour a day should be enough for the first five days. After that you can increase the time to one hour. After the first ten days, hours and hours in the sun should not hurt you—that is, providing you keep on using the suntan lotion or oil.

RCA VICTOR RECORDS

FOR JULY.

NOW ON SALE.

All the Latest Film Selections

and Dance Music.

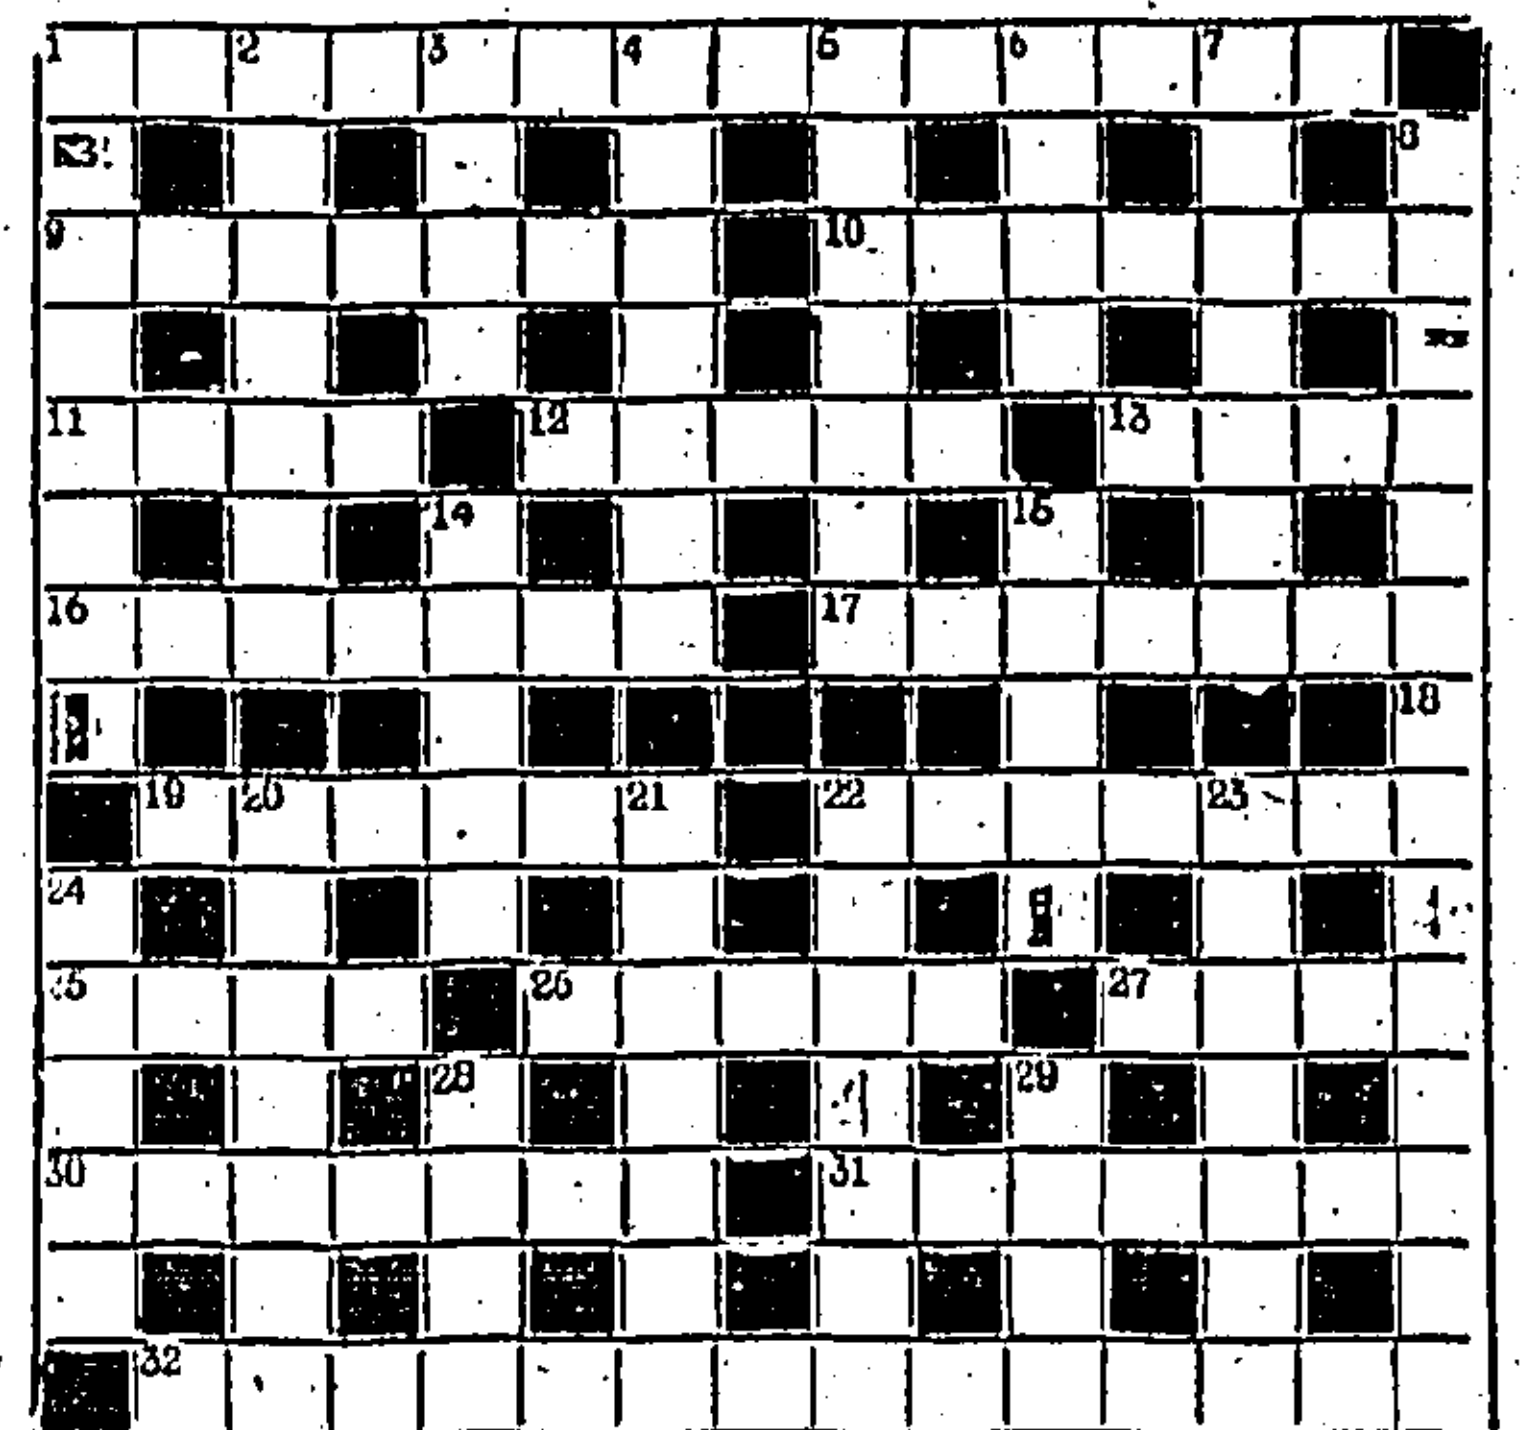

Ask for a Complete List.

TSANG FOOK PIANO CO.

9, Ice House Street, Hongkong.

USE ELECTRIC CHROMIC NEEDLES WITH YOUR PICK-UP

OUR BRITISH CROSSWORDS

Across

- 1 You and I (four words).
- 8 Harriers.
- 10 Kill.
- 11 Observe.
- 12 An ideal home for bird's-eye views.
- 13 Low but not ignoble.
- 16 Gallant men who have their dark hours.
- 17 To get the bird get round the girl.
- 19 A clumsy fellow is in rags.
- 22 The man on the qui vive gives audible warning.
- 25 This may be left yet right.
- 26 Greater than a hero—but it frequently flies.
- 27 Aid.
- 30 A modern wizard.
- 31 As an adept mother touches the hat on both sides.
- 32 Repetitively.

Down

- 1 Thames village that is slightly reminiscent of the Dead Sea.
- 2 The place in which to find an A. I. robin.
- 3 Christmas.
- 4 Well-known entertainer.
- 5 No, it isn't Neptune, but go on looking.
- 6 It is to be regretted that it sounds vulgar.
- 7 Evidently it isn't the bird to catch worms, but it means to try hard.
- 8 Father of a giant-killer.

14 Call out.

- 15 The modern girl is in no way bound by it, or you can sneak around, if you prefer it.
- 18 Figures.
- 20 It's only common or garden honesty, isn't it?
- 21 A spice may turn out to be designed for a particular purpose.
- 22 Painful affliction (rev.).
- 23 Pathlike.
- 24 It betrays a consciousness of guilt, perhaps, though largely pretence.
- 28 No one could mistake this butter for margarine.
- 29 Smartness.

Yesterday's Solution

STIRLING SALE ANCIENT ON SCAP OR RHONE
INFERNOS A STEED FI PRESS
EMLEWESIE
SAMPLER RUNNERS
RILEY BGLV
DIMOGES VILLAIN
NYVELEVEE EC
AGLEY ARNSTERP
LAENGRAVE SIO
TIBIA IN NAHUM
OFEREREDOS EP
ELMS TA EBRO

PIRATE SUSPECTS.

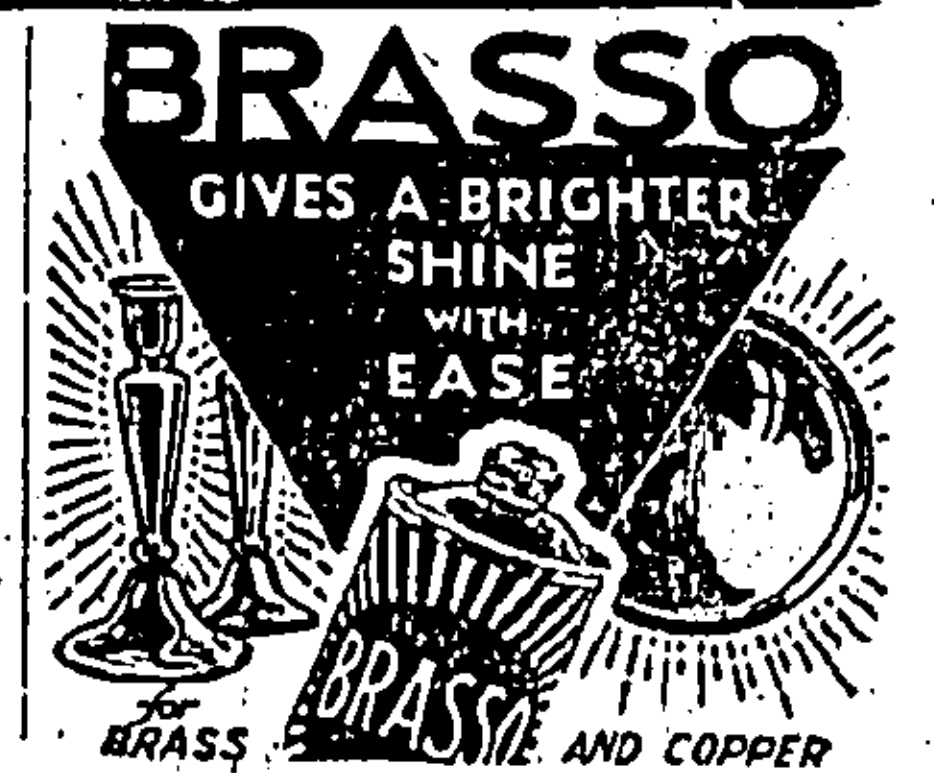

JUNK WHICH AIDED IN SHUNTEN AFFAIR

Tientsin, June 28.
Identified by its registration number, one of the five junks which participated in the Shuntien piracy and in which the raiders made their escape, was seized at Taku today. The crew were arrested and will be examined to determine whether they were involved in the piracy, willingly or otherwise.—Reuter.

CANTON AGENTS

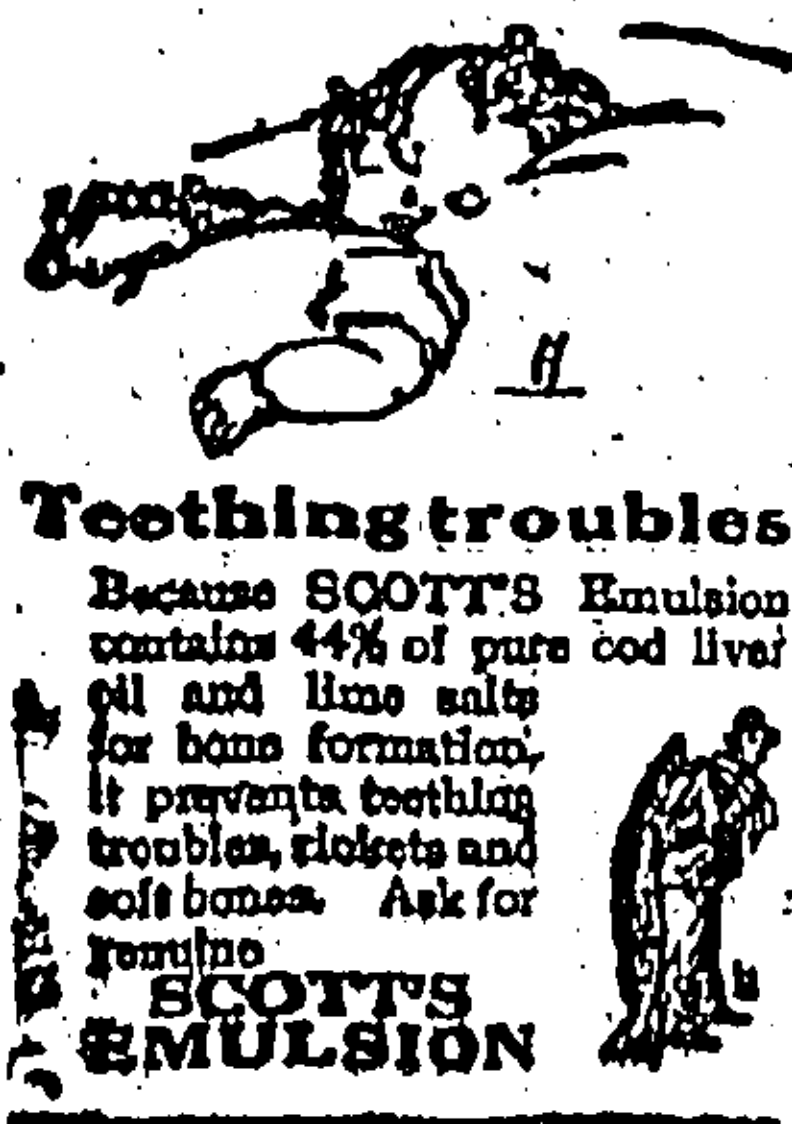

for
The Hongkong Telegraph.
WM. FARMER & CO.
Victoria Hotel Building.
Shameen, Canton.
Tel. 13501.

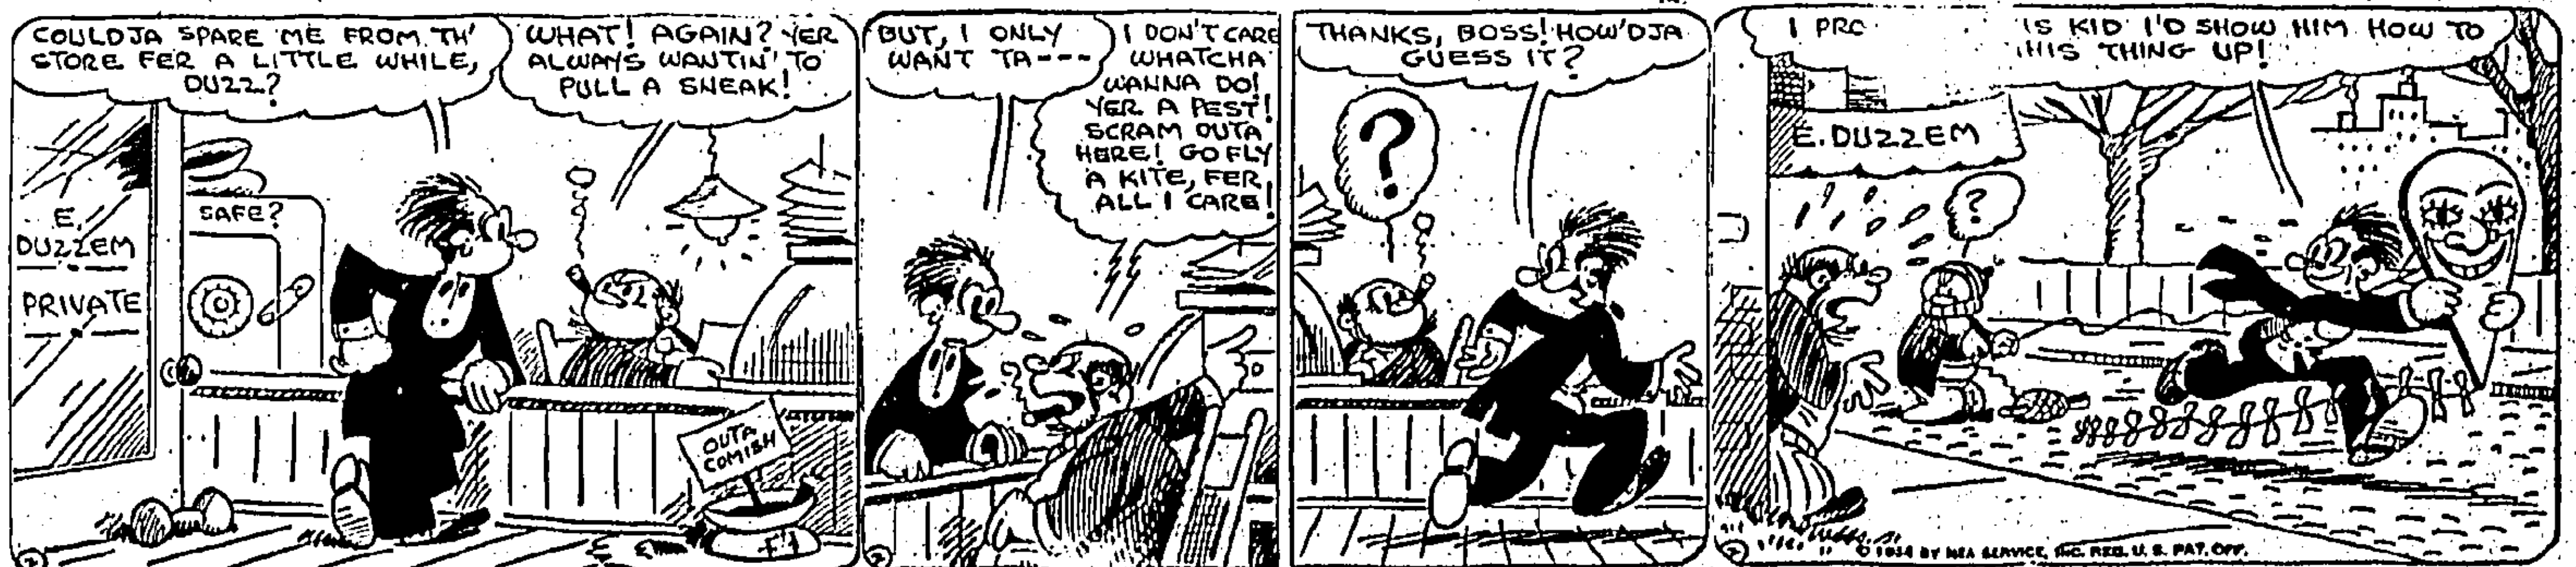

SALESMAN SAM

Mental Telepathy!

By Small

Toothing troubles
Because SCOTT'S Emulsion contains 44% of pure cod liver oil and lime salts for bone formation, it prevents toothling troubles, rickets and soft bones. Ask for SCOTT'S EMULSION

Married Flirts

by MABEL McELLIOTT

CHAPTER XXXVIII

"I don't know what you mean," Gypsy repeated but her heart was beating very fast. Sue's blazing eyes, in a white face accused her. "I never should have thought it of you," Sue went on in a low shaking tone. "Flirting around. You with a nice husband of your own."

"Sue! Why, I've never in the world..." Gypsy was hot, angry, mutinous. Hunt had been a friend; that was all. It was horrid of Sue. Her illness must be affecting her mind.

To Gypsy's amazement and discomfort, the other girl put her handkerchief to her eyes and began to weep. Gypsy glanced around in consternation. There were only a few people at the tables now. An old lady in black sat in the corner, enjoying a solitary tea. There were two or three absorbed couples. No one was noticing.

"Sue, you mustn't—here!" The other girl gulped, swallowed, put her handkerchief away. "I'm terribly sorry," she apologized. "I'm—not myself, you can see that. I didn't mean all I said. Forget it. You can see how it is with me."

Gypsy saw. Sue, in love with Hunt, desperate, jealous. And yet the accusation rankled. Was there any justice in what Sue had said? Had she, Gypsy, sought succor from her own pain in Hunt's attentions? She winced at the thought.

Impulsively she leaned across and patted Sue's hand. "I'm sorry if you've misunderstood," she said softly. "Hunt's awfully fond of you. See him before you go away."

Sue raised her head proudly. "I'll not run after him," she said quickly. "I'll not run after any man. It was only—well, you see, while he was away he used to write to me. Marvellous letter. I got—sentimental about him then. And when he got back, so tall and distinguished and interesting, I sort of—fell for him, I guess. It was silly of me. But he seemed to like me a lot. Until this winter. Then I began not to see so much of him. And he got in with that Village crowd. Ronny's..."

"I know," Gypsy interrupted to say, with a little spasm of guilt. "Well, then Elsiebeth drove me crazy, telling me he was in love with you—that he followed you around every place, that he wouldn't go to a party unless he heard you were to be there. I've cried myself sick over it."

"Elsiebeth!" Gypsy said with fine scorn. "And you listened to her." "Well, she's a mischief-maker, I know that, but some of it was true. He did see lots of you and whenever I met him it was always you he talked about."

"Nonsense," Gypsy's colour was high. "You don't know what a relief it's been to talk it out," Sue said, on a long sigh. "To hear you say there's nothing in it—to know you wouldn't lie to me."

"Of course, I wouldn't lie to you," Gypsy said proudly. "Besides, what about Tom? What did you think I was planning? You should have known better than this."

"I'd tell myself, 'there's absolutely nothing in it,'" Sue went on. "I'd try to forget about it. And then I wouldn't hear from Hunt for weeks. I'd be sick to death listening for the sound of the phone. No matter who else called I couldn't be bothered. You know how it is." She appealed to the other woman.

"I know," Gypsy told her soberly. "I got awfully run down," Sue confessed. "I haven't been eating much. I don't sleep. The doctor tells me I'll crack up unless I go away and have a rest. And yet—it's killing me to leave him. To think some other girl will be playing with him while I'm hundreds of miles away."

Gypsy signalled the waiter, hovering in the background with a check. The two girls strolled out into the sunshine. "Come back to the apartment with me," Gypsy said. "Let's talk this thing out. I can't bear to think of your going away off there with nothing settled."

In the back of her mind there hovered the ghost of a plan. If Hunt could be made to see... If his eyes were opened there might be no need of Sue's long journey.

The trouble was, Gypsy thought usefully putting down the receiver, she just didn't know how to say "no" to people. When Lila called, announcing her return and asking Gypsy to a dinner she was giving the following night, she had accepted without thinking. And Tom was behaving very oddly about it. He simply said he couldn't go. Gypsy knew he didn't approve of Lila, but that wasn't it entirely. He was too modern to stand aside and judge his wife's friends, no matter what they might do.

"But I said we would," she told him, puzzled. "We don't often go places together these days. I thought you might not mind. Or rather, I didn't think at all. I just accepted, like an idiot, without thinking."

"I'm sorry, darling. I'll undoubtedly be tied up with Strathmore to-morrow night. Got to go up to Tarrytown to see him. Get out of it."

But when Gypsy called back to tell Lila all this the latter was gaily adamant. Nonsense, she would get another man. How about that nice, bronzed engineer chap—Gibson? She had met him at parties last winter and at Gypsy's tea. She'd give him a ring. He could pick Gypsy up...

Gypsy bit her lip and kept silent. It was idiotic—the whole thing was. Tom made no comment when she told him of Lila's arrangement but she had an idea he didn't exactly like it. Oh, dear, it wasn't her fault! Sue would be angry, too, if she heard.

She dressed for the party with mixed feelings. Hunt's arrival made her feel shy as a schoolgirl and self-conscious, too. He admired her new frock, a soft, drooping affair of apricot satin. Tom had not even seen her in it. It set off her rounded small figure and creamy shoulders to perfection.

She went back into the bedroom for her wrap. David was seated in his high chair and Elsa was feeding him his supper.

"Good night, darling. Mr. Weaver said he'd be home about 10. Elsa, you'll remember just what I said about his supper. He said he'd stop at Grand Central for a bite but I'm sure he won't have had time."

"Yes, I fix it," Elsa held the blue mug to the baby's lips.

"Goodbye, angel," Gypsy clutched the little velvet jacket around her, dropped a kiss on the back of David's neck and went out.

In the taxi she chattered gaily about nothing at all. Later, she told herself, she would get around to Sue.

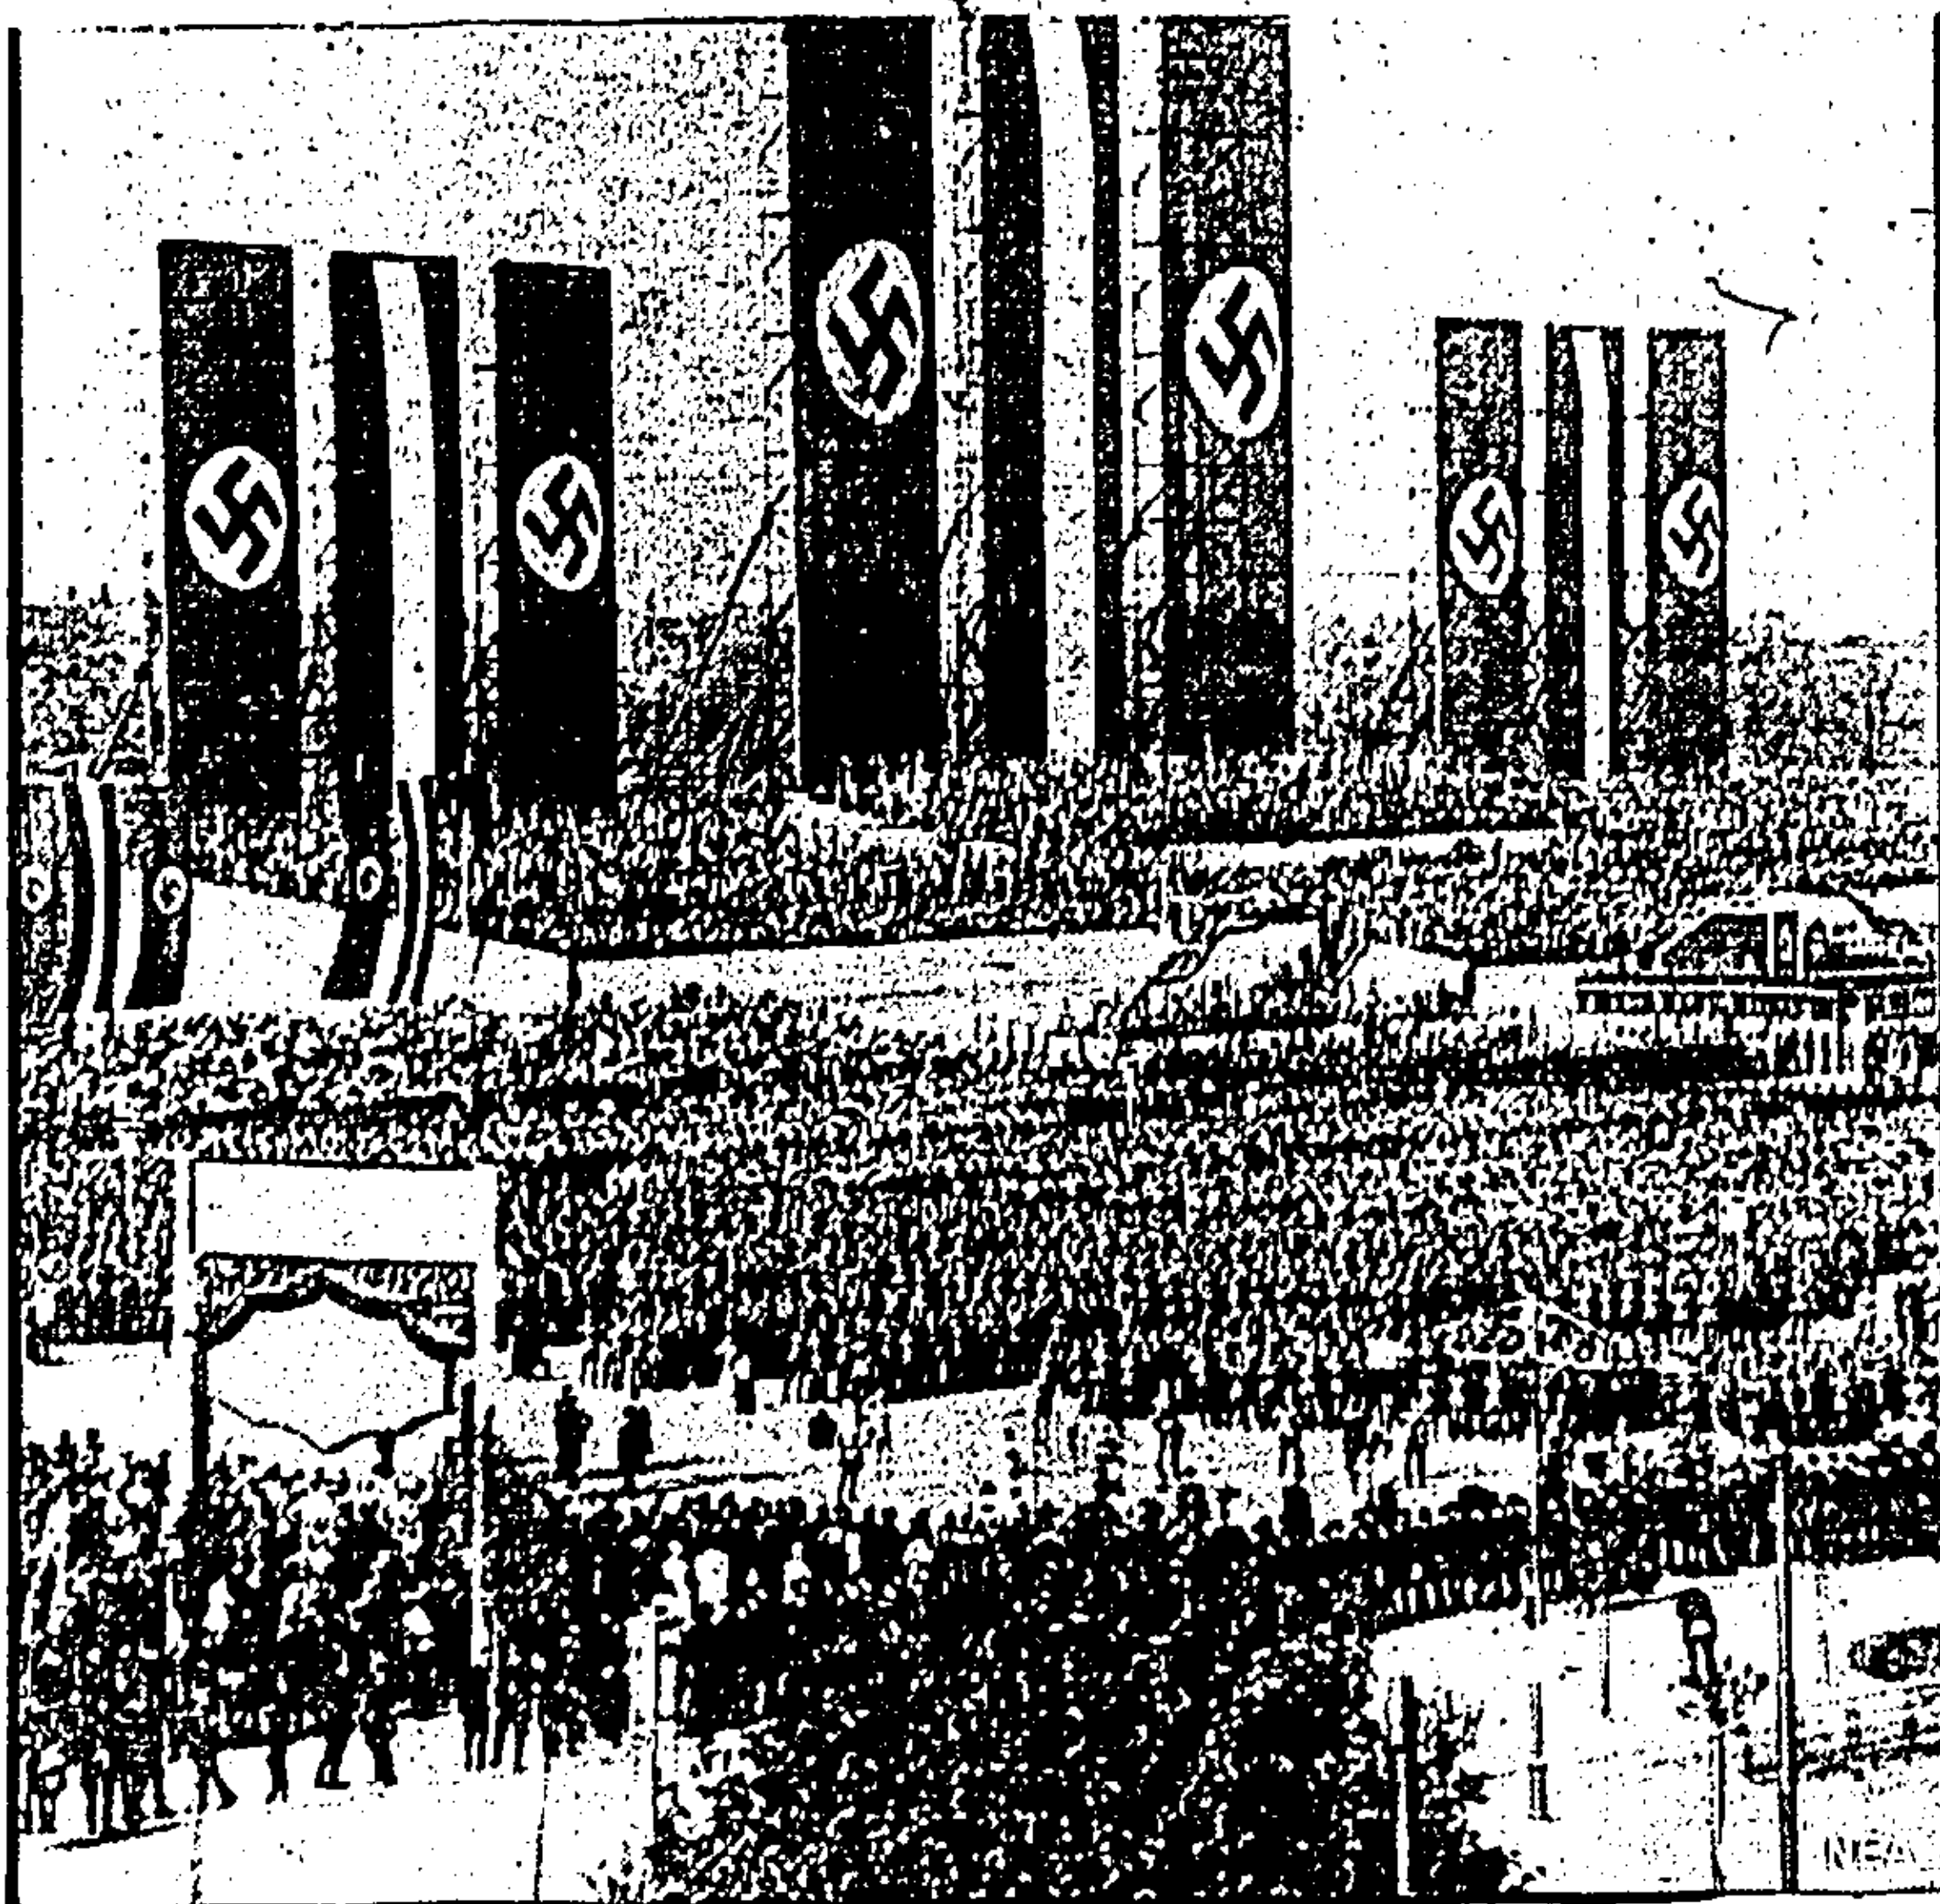

No one, Lila told them lightly, was in town. There were just a few people coming in. Yes, of course she remembered Mr. Gibson and it was sweet of him to come so informally. Marko was there and two or three young men and their bird-like, beautifully caparisoned young women. Pop, Van, Norrie. Lila always introduced her guests thus, casually.

The table was a long, gleaming black surface with little white islands upon it. Lace runners. Glass birds. A foam of white flowers in a crystal bowl. Although the night was hot Lila's apartment seemed cool, high above the city.

Hunt seemed to fit in with this

(Continued on Page 7.)

The stupendous spectacle of 2,000,000 people gathered in one place was afforded in Berlin's great Tempelhof aerodrome recently when Chancellor Hitler, by means of 122 loud speakers, told the vast assemblage of Nazi aims and policies. It is credited with being the greatest single throng in history.

Barely larger than the proud boy and girl whose hands he clasps, smiling Dr. Dollfus strides across the arena in Vienna before 54,000 school children assembled for a pageant marking the inauguration of Austria's new Fascist constitution. Simultaneously, Nazi sympathizers hung a banner marked "Death to Dollfus" near Vienna's Opera House.

As an example to Chinese residents of Shanghai Mayor Wu Teh-shen, of the Shanghai City Government, last week gave a demonstration of how a street should be swept. This practical example marked the commencement of Health Week in connection with the New Life Movement.

New Proofed-Poplin RAINCOATS

Made of a highly mercerised poplin, thoroughly proofed by a special process, self-lined to afford double protection, yet light in weight.

Well cut on generous lines—with button to neck collar and storm cuffs, carefully finished in every detail, and cooler than a rubber coat, because the heat of the body can get out.

$45.00

With or without belt.

Feather-weight rubber coats

From $17.50

We allow 10% discount for cash.

MACKINTOSH'S LTD

Don't be vague — ask for Haig

NO FINER WHISKY GOES INTO ANY BOTTLE.

Sole Agents:—

GANDE, PRICE & CO., LTD.

Tel. No. 20135. Hongkong.

MAYFAIR'S GREAT SUMMER

SALE

Commencing 30th June

EVERYTHING REDUCED

To Your Advantage

SUMMER NEEDS FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

BE AMONG THE FIRST!

MAYFAIR CO.

CHINA—BUILDING.

Opposite King's Theatre.

Japanese swordmakers seem to be overdoing preparedness as they forge a sword for the crown prince, still in his cradle, a custom to which the Nipponese cling. The shining steel blade here by Matsuo Kato, Imperial swordsmith, for his assistant's inspection, will be presented to the crown prince at his first festival.

CLASSIFIED
ADVERTISEMENTS25 WORDS $1.50 for 3 DAYS PREPAID
50 cents For Every Additional Day

Alternate Insertions 20% Extra.

If Not Prepaid a Booking Fee of 50 cents is Charged.The following replies have been received:—
10, 88, 103, 107, 108, 111, 113
186.

TUITION

PRIVATE LESSONS GIVEN—With good method of teaching Cantonese,
English and Spanish by a well-educated American Returned Student.
Excellent recommendations. Any Foreigner or Chinese interested, please write to 49, Jervois Street.

HOTELS

AIRLIE HOTEL, 23-25, Nathan Road, Kowloon, under British ownership and management. 2 minutes Star Ferry.
Every modern convenience. Excellent cuisine. Special rates families. Telephone 67357.CENTRAL
THEATRE

SHOWING TO-DAY

At 2.30, 5.15, 7.15 & 9.30 p.m.

ADOLPH POLLAK
presents ISLE OF
PARADISEAdmission:— Dress Circle 80 cts.
& Back Stalls 50 cts.Servicemen:—35 cts. to Back Stalls.

TO LET

TO LET—SHOP at 25 Nathan Road with large back accommodation, centrally situated, five minutes from Ferry, apply 23 Nathan Road, Kewloon.TO LET—OFFICES, in Chung Tin Building, 6, Des Voeux Road, Central, whole second floor. Please apply to office of K. C. Lau, Estate.TO LET—A few remaining ROOMS, are available for offices, in the Hongkong Stock Exchange, Ice House
Street. Apply to: Percy Smith,
Seth & Fleming, 6, Des Voeux Road, Central.

IN LONDON

The Hongkong Telegraph

Is on sale at

SELFRIDGES

For Advertising Rates

the London Representatives are—

REUTERS, LIMITED

Advertisement Dept.

24, Old Jewry,

LONDON, E.C.2.

Abscesses Ulcers
Boils PilesTo treat these complaints successfully get to the root of the trouble.
Clarke's Blood Mixture is the world's greatest blood purifier and healer. It is famous for Blood and Skin Disorders.

Of All Chemists and Stores.

Equality found in LIQUID or TABLET form.

CLARKE'S
BLOOD MIXTURE

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

BANK HOLIDAY.

In Accordance with Government Ordinance, the Exchange Banks will be closed for the Transaction of Public Business on Monday, the 2nd July, 1934. (The First Week Day in July).
Hongkong, 27th June, 1934.

NOTICE.

UNIVERSITY PHOTO
CLUB.ADVANCED MEMBERS'
COMPETITION.ENTRIES for MAY (Landscapes) and JUNE (Genre) must be sent to the Hon. Secretary, care of the UNION OFFICE, Hongkong
University not later than 1 p.m.,
SATURDAY, the 30th instant.LATE ENTRIES will not be accepted for competition.

COMING SOON

In Chinese it's 我愛你But Chevalier knows The Way to Love in any language!Maurice CHEVALIER
THE WAY
TO LOVEA Famous French Actor
EDWARD EVERETT HORTON

KING'S

Mr. & Mrs. Y. Mori.
MASSAGEAcupuncture, Moxibustion and Bone
Setting. Holder of Japanese and Hongkong Government Licences Cures
Sprained Ankles and Wrists. Recommended for many years by Local Hospitals and Doctors.4, Wyndham Street, (1st floor),
Tel. 26051

MRS. MOTONO

Hand and Electric Massage Holder of Diploma and Certificate of Tokyo Denki Ryoho Kenkyusho (Tokyo Electrical Cure Institute) and the Hongkong Government License.

31B, Wyndham Street.

G. R.

NOTICE.

Owners of motor vehicles
(except Public Motor Vehicles) and all drivers are hereby notified that licences are due for renewal on the 1st July, 1934.Owners must furnish certified proof of weight of vehicle on re-licensing.

E. D. C. WOLFE.

Inspector General of Police.
Hongkong, 29th June, 1934.

A. S. WATSON & CO. LIMITED.

NOTICE.

On Monday, the 2nd July,
All Departments will be Closed.The Hongkong Dispensary, Dispensing Department, will be opening for dispensing prescriptions from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 7.30 p.m.A. S. Watson & Co., Limited.
Hongkong, 29th June, 1934.NEW YORK STOCK
EXCHANGEYESTERDAY'S MARKET
STEADYAccording to Messrs. Swan Culbertson and Fritz, the New York market was steady yesterday. Business done 640,000 shares. The Wall Street Journal reports:—
Prices were upward due to speculations that to-night's Presidential radio broadcast would be bullish plus a spurt in grains due to the new drought heat-wave in the Corn Belt.
Gold-mining shares were higher, being led by Home Stake at 412, aided by rumors that the Gold Trust will eventually be advanced. Silver shares were upward due to silver futures having soared actively on the belief that the Treasury is absorbing offerings. Curb were steady. U.S. Government bonds were strong and upward. Speculative issues eased with to profit-taking, although some gained substantially. Foreign bonds were irregularly lower. German issues being downward. Italian 7% Bonds and Japanese 5 1/2% Bonds lost more than one point each.Messrs. Swan Culbertson and Fritz's New York office reports:—
Stocks: The market developed increased firmness, probably anticipating a favourable radio address by the President. Corn: Strong on the extreme heat wave which is at present being experienced in the corn sections. Wheat: Prices were aided by the strength of the corn market.Cotton: Prices are firm on the continued drought in Texas, increased agitation for the raising of the Gold
Price and hopefulness regarding the President's speech, which is scheduled for to-night. Offerings are being made from the South and profit-taking increases on bulges. Rubber: The market is firm on Trade and commission-house demand. It is reported that the estates are continuing to store rubber and that only off-grades are being offered.

Dow-Jones Averages:

	June 27.	June 28.
30 Industrials	96.94	97.14
20 Rails	44.47	44.50
20 Utilities	24.11	24.21
40 Bonds	94.71	94.85
11 Commodity Index	56.57	57.61

The following market closing prices are quoted subject to confirmation as to accuracy in transmission:

	June 27.	June 28.
Adams Express	8 1/4	9
Alaska Juneau Gold
Mining Company	20 1/2	22
Allied Chemical and
Dye	134 1/2	131 1/2
American Can	97	97
American & Foreign
Power	8 1/2	8 1/2
American Metal	22 1/2	24
American Smelting	42 1/2	43 1/2
American Tel. and
Tel.	115	115
American Tobacco
"B"	76	70 1/2

WATER LEVELS.

FOR WEST, NORTH AND EAST RIVERSThe River Conservancy Commission for Kwangtung Province notifies that the height of water in English feet in the West, North and East Rivers is as follows:

	June 27	June 28
West River at Shihing	23.2	23.9
North River at Tling- yuen	13.7	12.8
North River at Samshui	18.1	18.5
East River at Sheklung	7.7	7.0

American Water- works	20 1/2	20 1/2
Anaconda Copper
Mining	15	15 1/2
Atlas Corporation	10 1/2	10 1/2
Auburn Automobile	24 1/2	25 1/2
Baltimore and Ohio	24	24 1/2
Bechtel Steel	34	34 1/2
Borden Company	26 1/2	26 1/2
Borg Warner	23	23
Canadian Pacific
Railway	14 1/2	14 1/2
Coca-Cola	50 1/2	52
Consolidated Gas	26 1/2	26 1/2
Chesapeake Corpora- tion	40 1/2	40
Chrysler Corporation	39 1/2	40 1/2
Columbia Gas and
Electric	14 1/2	14 1/2
Commonwealth and
Southern	2 1/2	2 1/2
Consolidated Gas of New York	34 1/2	34 1/2
Consolidated Oil
Corporation	10	10 1/2
Continental Oil	19 1/2	19 1/2
Coty Inc.	5 1/2	6
Curtiss Wright Com.	3 1/2	3 1/2
Curtiss Wright "A"	10 1/2	10
Du Pont de Nemours	90 1/2	90 1/2
Eastman Kodak	90	90
Electric Bond and
Share	15 1/2	15 1/2
Electric Power and
Light	5 1/2	5 1/2
Fox Film "A"	14 1/2	13 1/2
General Aviation	4 1/2	4 1/2
General Electric	40 1/2	40 1/2
General Foods	32	31 1/2
General Motors	31	31 1/2
General Railway
Signals	Unq.	33
Gold Dust	20	20
Goodyear Tire and
Rubber	27 1/2	27 1/2
International Ce- ment	26 1/2	27
International Har- vester	33 1/2	33 1/2
International Nickel	26	26 1/2
International Tel. & Tel.	12 1/2	13 1/2
Johns Manville	54	54
Kennecott Copper	22 1/2	22 1/2
Lehman Corporation	Unq.	60
Liggett and Myers
"B"	97	96 1/2
Loew's Inc.	20 1/2	20 1/2
Lorillard P. (Com.)	18 1/2	18 1/2
Montgomery Ward	27 1/2	28 1/2
National City Bank	27 1/2	27 1/2
National Distillers	23 1/2	24
New York Central	29 1/2	29 1/2
North American Co.	17 1/2	17 1/2
Overland Illinois Glass	70 1/2	Unq.
Pacific Gas & Elec- tric	19	18 1/2
Packard Motors	3 1/2	3 1/2
Pennsylvania Rail- way	31 1/2	31 1/2
Pennroad Corpora- tion	2 1/2	2 1/2
Phillips Petroleum	17 1/2	17 1/2
Radio Corporation	7 1/2	7 1/2
Reynolds Tobacco
"B"	45 1/2	45 1/2
Sears Roebuck	42 1/2	43 1/2
Southern California	10 1/2	10 1/2
Edison	10 1/2	10 1/2
Socomey-Vacuum Cor- poration	15 1/2	16
Standard Gas and
Electric	11 1/2	11 1/2
Standard Oil Co. of N.Y.	44	44 1/2
Sterling Products Inc.	58 1/2	60
Studebaker Corpora- tion	4 1/2	4 1/2
Texas Corporation	24	23 1/2
Transamerica	6 1/2	7
Union Carbide and
Carbon	43 1/2	44
United Aircraft and Transport	123	122 1/2
United Corporation	18 1/2	18 1/2
United Gas Improve- ment	6 1/2	5 1/2
U.S. Rubber	16 1/2	16 1/2
U.S. Steel	18 1/2	18 1/2
Universal Leaf To- bacco	39 1/2	39 1/2
Vanadium	48	48
Warner Bros. Pic- tures	21 1/2	21 1/2
Westinghouse E. and A.	5 1/2	5 1/2
Woolworth	37	37 1/2
Woolworth	60	60 1/2

*Possible mutilation.

POWELL'S

SALE

CONTINUES.

Everything throughout the Store is GENUINE-LY REDUCED.You may choose from "Powell's" complete and wonderful stocks of fine qualitySUITS, RAINCOATS, HATS, SUN HELMETS, TIES, SOCKS, SHIRTS, PYJAMAS, ETC.You are assured that every purchase will mean a definite genuine saving on the original price.

WM. POWELL, LTD.

THE GENTLEMEN'S HOUSE

10, Ice House Street.

POST OFFICE NOTICE

GENERAL HOLIDAY.

On Monday, July 2, the Public Hall of the General Post Office will be closed, but postage stamps may be obtained at the back entrance from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Branch Post Offices will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 a.m.There will be one collection from the pillar-boxes and one delivery of ordinary correspondence as on Sundays.

The Money Order Office will be entirely closed.

INWARD MAILS.

For	Per	Date and Time.
Straits	Hakodate Maru	June 29.
Shanghai	Dardanus	June 30.
Shanghai and Europe via Siberia— London, 11th June	Fraussen	June 30.
Shanghai and Swatow	Soochow	June 30.
Straits	Agapenor	July 1.
Calcutta, Straits and Air Mail ex Imperial Airways Service	Hosang	July 2.
Manila	Pros. Lincoln	July 2.

OUTWARD MAILS.

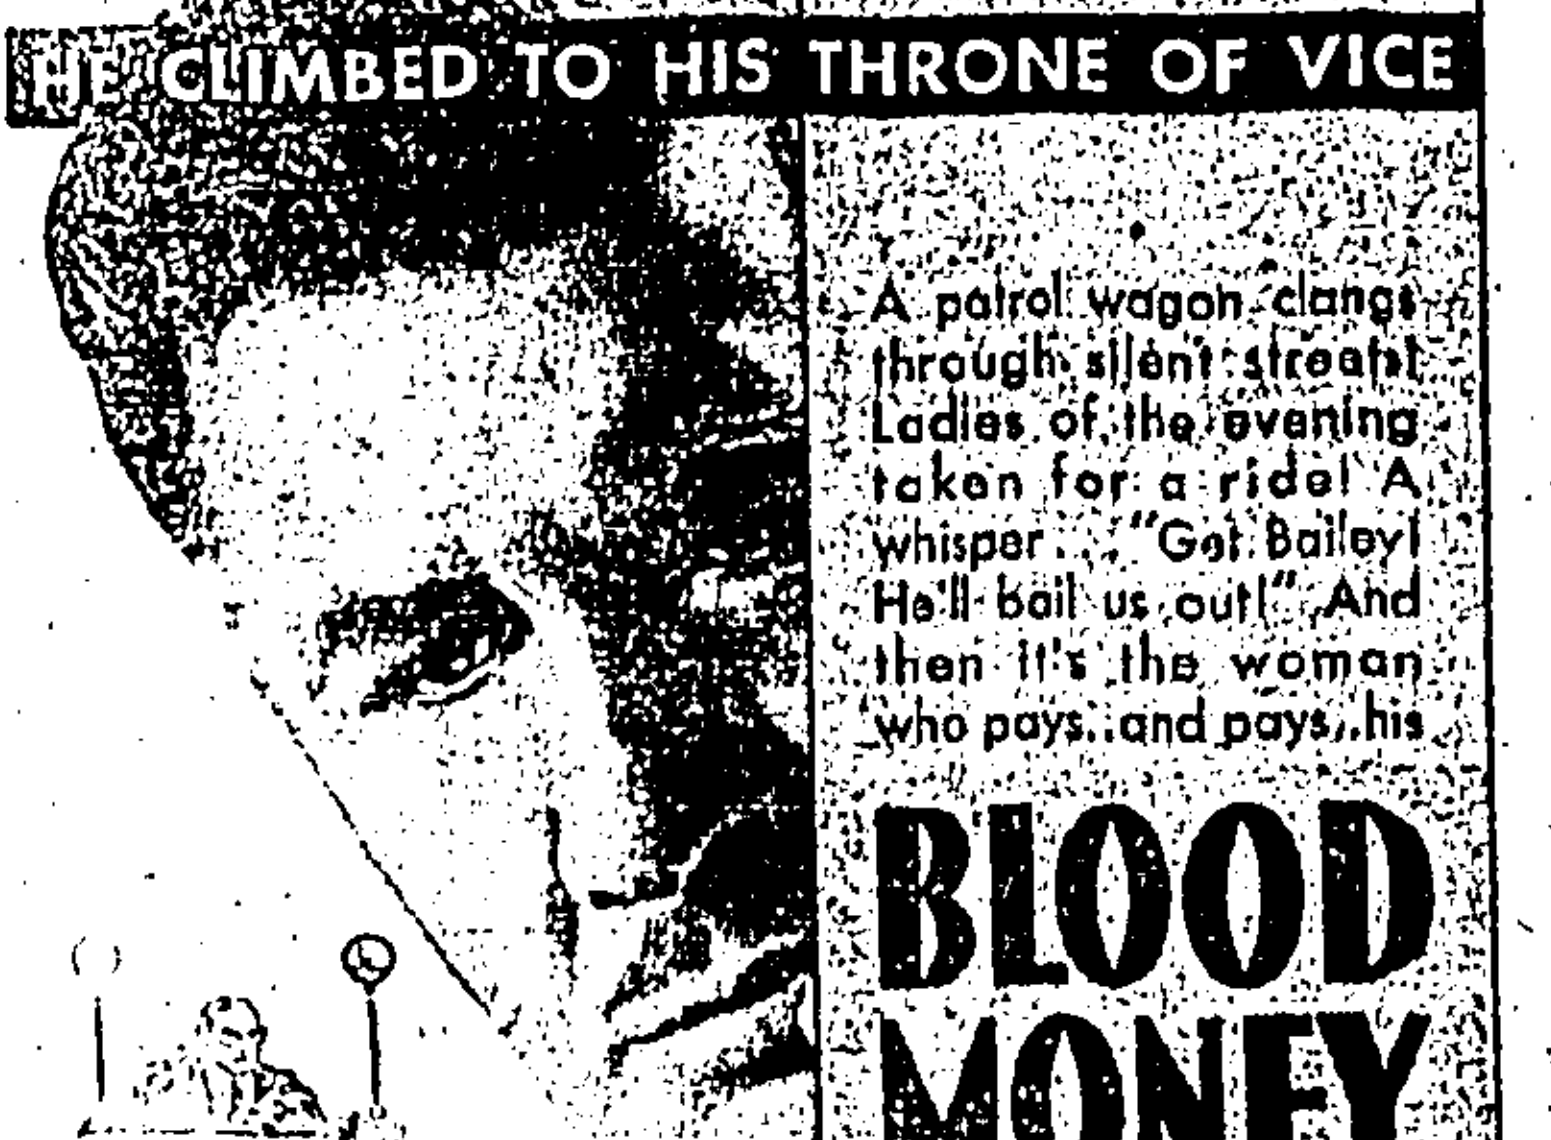

For	Per	Date and Time.
Swatow, Amoy and Foochow	Haiching	Fri., June 29, 4 p.m.
Samshui and Wuchow	Kongso	Fri., June 29, 4 p.m.
Shanghai and Japan	Felix Roussel	Fri., June 29, 4.30 p.m.

Letters for "Bandung—Amsterdam Kalsar-I-Hind" Sat., June 30.
Air Mail ServiceK. P. O. G. P. O.
Reg., June 29, 4.30 p.m. June 29, 5 p.m.
Letters, June 29, 5 p.m. Letters, June 29, 5 p.m.Straits, Ceylon, India, Mauritius, Kalsar-I-Hind Sat., June 30.
East and South Africa, Aden,
Egypt and Europe via Marseilles
(Due Marseilles, 27th July).K. P. O. G. P. O.
Parcels, June 29, 4.30 p.m. June 29, 5 p.m.
Reg., June 30, 9 a.m. June 30, 9.45 a.m.
Letters, June 30, 10.50 a.m. Letters, June 30, 10.50 a.m.Manila, Rabaul, Australia and New Nankin Zealand via Brisbane Sat., June 30.
Reg., June 30, 8.45 a.m. June 30, 9.30 a.m.
Letters, June 30, 9.30 a.m. Letters, June 30, 9.30 a.m.Amoy Hupoh
*Superscribed correspondence only.

SHARE PRICES

The following is the list of local share quotations issued to-day.Banks.
H.K. Banks, $1825 a. and sa.
H.K. Bank (London), $101 1/2 n.
Chartered Bank, $164 n.
Mercantile Bank, A. & B. $23 n.
Mercantile Bank, C. $15 n.
East Asiatic Bank, $91 n.
Am. O. Finance Corp., $20 n.
China O. Fin. Ord., $4 n.
China O. Fin. Prof., $5 n.Insurance.
Canton Ins., $300 n.
Union Ins., $555 a.
China Underwriters, $1 1/4 b.
China Fire, $510 n.
H.K. Fire Ins., $250 n.
International Asso., $6 n.Shipping.
Douglas, $40 n.
H.K. Steamboats, $7 n.
Indo-Chinas, (Prof.), $30 n.
Indo-Chinas, (Def.), $38 n.
Shells (Bearer), $50/- n.
Union Waterboats, $11.80 b.Mining.
Antamoks, 69 cts. n.
Balatocs, $32 n.
Baguio Gold, 36 cts. n.
Bonguet, $32 1/2 n.
Bonguet Exploration, 20 cts. n.
Bonguet Goldfield, 20 cts. n.
Big Wedge, 12 cts. n.
Gold Creek, 32 1/2 n.
Gold River, 26 1/2 cts. n.
Ipo Mining, $4 n.
Itogons, $7 n.
Kailan, 20/- n.
Langkats (Single), $21 1/2 n.
Shai Explorations, $5 n.
Shai Loans, $6.85 n.
Raubs, $13.20 a.
Vonz: Goldfield, $7 n.Docks, etc.
H.K. Wharves, $108 b.
H.K. Docks, $15 n.
S. China Motors, $2 n.
S. China Motors, $2 n.
Providents (old), $1 1/4 n.
Providents (new), 50 cts. n.
Hongkows (old), $322 1/2 n.
Hongkows (new), $320 n.
New Engineering, $5 n.
Shanghai Docks, $181 n.Cotton Mills.
Ewo Cottons, $11.80 n.
Shai Cottons (old), $72 n.
Shai Cottons (new), $42 n.Malabon Sugars, $12 n.
Cald: Macg. (old), $21 n.
Cald: Macg. (Prof.), $19 1/4 n.
Canton Ices, $2.70 n.
Cements (new), $2.82 1/2 sa.
H.K. Ropes, $4 1/2 n.
Stores, etc.
Dairy Farms, $26 b.
Watsons, $5.70 n.
Der A Wings, $1 n.
Lane Crawford, $4.40 n.
Mackintosh, $21 n.
Sinceres, $9 n.
Wm. Powells, 70 cts. n.
Wing On (H.K.), $100 n.Miscellaneous.
Amusements, $4 n.
H.K. Entertainment, 7 1/2 n.
S.C. Entertainment, $1 n.
United Theatres, $2 n.
Macao "Greyhound", $2 n.
Constructions (old), $1.55 b.
Constructions (new), 70 cts. b.
Ch. Govt. 5% 1925 G.S. Bonds
8 1/4 % n.
H.K. Gov. 4% Loan, 8 1/4 b.
(prem.)
Wallace Harpers, $8 n.
Gov. Loan 8 1/4 % Loan, 14 1/2 b.
(prem.)

ALHAMBRA SUNDAY

OVER THE BODIES OF FALLEN WOMEN
HE CLIMBED TO HIS THRONE OF VICEBLOOD
MONEYDARRYL F. ZANUCK
productionGEORGE
BANCROFTFRANCES DEE
CHICK CRANDALL
JUDITH ANDERSON
BLOSSIE BERRY20
REELS

RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

A "THUNDERBOLT" OF MIGHTY DRA

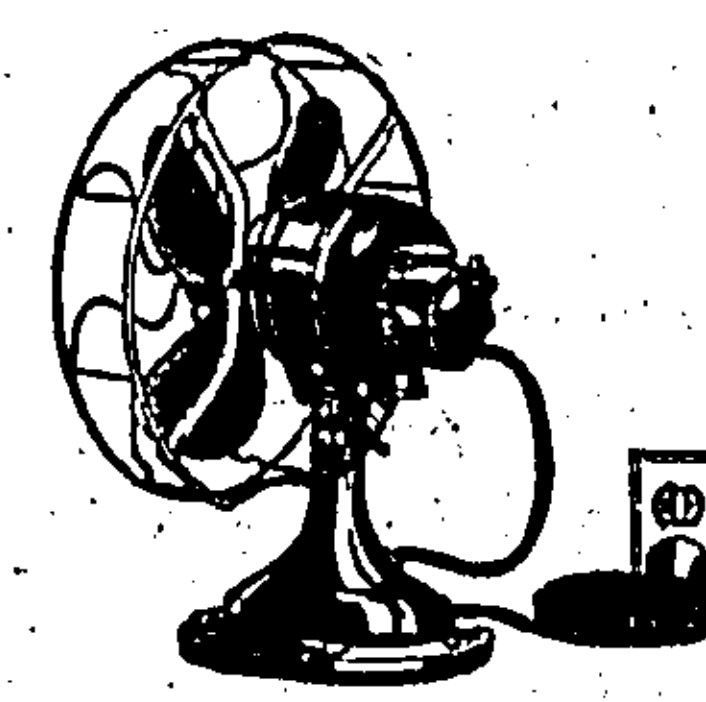

SPECIALTY

MICKEY MOUSE CARTOON

ELECTRIC FANS

"VERITYS"

BRITISH MADE

Century

MADE IN U.S.A.

THEY GIVE REMARKABLE COMFORT
EVERY IMPORTANT FAN CONVENIENCE
BUILT TO GIVE A LIFETIME SERVICEOn sale at leading local Electrical Dealers, the Hongkong Electric Co., Ltd., and:—

SHEWAN, TOMES & CO.

National

PERRY WINS SPECTACULAR FIVE-SET DUEL AT WIMBLEDON

WATER FAMINE LONDON'S SUPPLY RESTRICTED

London, June 28. Compulsory water restrictions were put into force throughout the London area to-day. There is fear of epidemics if the drought continues.

The Metropolitan Water Board announced prohibition of the watering of lawns and sports grounds by means of hoses, outside taps or sprinklers; and of washing automobiles with hoses.

Severe penalties will be imposed for the misuse of water in any form.

Heavy showers recently gave some relief from the long drought but if the dry weather continues it may be necessary to impose further and more drastic restrictions, such as cutting off the water supply in early evening.

Such a restriction is already enforced in many other parts of the country.

Orders prohibiting the use of water in parks were sent to caretakers to-day in the County of London. The parks are already parched and brown from the worst drought in eighty years.

Local authorities are urging the need of rigid economy in the use of water and conditions in the country generally are said to be very serious. Many reservoirs are practically empty and it is feared that unless plentiful rains fall epidemics will be inevitable.—Our Own Correspondent.

CHINA'S CONCERN.

STABILITY OF SILVER HIGHLY DESIRABLE

London, June 28. Sir Arthur Salter, the distinguished British economist, writing in the Manchester Guardian, says it is lamentable that China's influence has not been exercised strongly, not for the artificial appreciation of the price of silver but for its stability.

Her interest, he says, entitles her to a dominant influence in the matter of silver policy.

China escaped the world depression of 1930-31 because silver was falling. Since sterling and the yen have gone off the gold standard and silver has been going up in value, her position has been reversed. Chinese exports have declined until there is a serious adverse balance of trade, necessitating the export of treasure.

The evil, Sir Arthur continues, has been accentuated by the drain of silver from the interior towards Shanghai, owing to the general insecurity. Thus a shortage of currency is threatened, with a further decline of prices.

China must restore her internal conditions in order to enable foreign capital to flow freely to her ports, he adds.—Reuter.

ANCIENT RITES.

POMP AND CEREMONY WHEN KING VISITS LONDON CITY

Large crowds lined the route and warmly cheered the King and Queen, who drove from Buckingham Palace this morning to the City, where the king opened the new building of the Chartered Insurance Institute.

In accordance with ancient usage, His Majesty was met at the City of London boundary and admitted by the Lord Mayor, who, having received the Pearl Sword from the Sword Bearer, advanced, and, lowering its point, surrendered it to His Majesty.

The Lord Mayor and members of the Corporation, after performing this act of fealty, returned to their carriages and preceded the Royal Procession.—British Wireless.

A sailor hat wins many a girl's straw vote.

BATCH OF TRAFFIC OFFENDERS

CAUTIONS IN SEVERAL CASES

In the Traffic Court this morning before Mr. Hamilton, Mrs. H. Sanders was summoned for leaving her car unattended in Queen's Road Central, near the China Emporium, between 12.05 p.m. and 12.15 p.m. on June 16.

Mrs. Sanders said she did not agree that the car was near the China Emporium. She had parked it outside the Tak Cheong shop.

Sergeant Willerton said that he saw the car at the East end of the China Emporium, facing West. It was drawn in close to the kerb.

Mrs. Hamilton cautioned Mrs. Sanders, who had a clear record.

R. K. Valentine, of Messrs. Dodwell & Co., was summoned for leaving his car unattended near the China Emporium.

Defendant said his wife was driving that day.

Mr. Hamilton said he would strike out the summons and issue another for Mrs. Valentine, but defendant agreed to admit the offence and was cautioned.

Mr. Hamilton said that apparently Mrs. Valentine had handed the Sergeant her husband's licence instead of her own.

U Sze-wing, of Messrs. Dodwell & Co., was cautioned for leaving a private car unattended in Des Voeux Road.

SPEEDING.

Miguel Javier, driver to Sir William Shenton, was cautioned for driving at 28 miles an hour in Whitfield controlled area on June 19, after midnight.

Defendant: All I have to say is that the place was absolutely clear of traffic after midnight, and 28 miles an hour was not very fast, although it would be in the day time.

Mr. Hamilton said the speed in the control was ten miles an hour.

"TELEGRAPH" ART SUPPLEMENT

Many Competition Pictures.

A feature of to-morrow's issue of the Telegraph Picture Supplement will be the inclusion of numerous entries in our Photo Competition.

Some delightful studies will be found amongst the number.

Weddings illustrated will be those of Mr. Norman Ellis and Miss Elizabeth Alcock, Mr. H.W.B. Musket and Miss Maisie Martin, and Mr. Guy Satterthwaite and Miss Elizabeth Hack, in Sharnon.

Portraits of successful candidates in the Trinity College of Music examination will also appear.

and whether it was mid-night or mid-day he had got to remember that fact.

Defendant said he was driving Miss Shenton home after a party.

ACCIDENT SEQUEL.

When Lam Yu-ping, driver of a private car, was summoned for failing to have his brakes in efficient and good working order, and allowing the car to be on the road with inefficient brakes.

Traffic Sergeant McInnis stated that as a result of an accident in Queen's Road Central, a man was in hospital seriously injured and not expected to live.

Inspector Nicol said that Sergeant Freyer had seen Dr. Thomas and was told that the injured man would die within a month as he had serious injuries to his spine.

Mr. Hamilton, accordingly adjourned the summons sine die.

DANGEROUS DRIVING

Sergeant Gowns summoned Sung Koon-fook, driver of a public car, on three counts of dangerous driving, soliciting and failing to stop.

The Sergeant stated that defendant, soliciting outside the Taling Theatre, suddenly swung out from behind a bus nearly colliding with a car coming in the opposite direction. When defendant saw him coming he drove away, and did not stop.

Mr. Hamilton fined defendant $15 or 14 days for dangerous driving, cautioned him for soliciting, and imposed a similar fine for failing to stop.

Kong Ying, the driver of public car No. 177, was summoned for soliciting and failing to stop, and was fined $5 on the first count and $15 on the second.

Sergeant Gowns stated that defendant was driving just behind Sung Koon-fook, summoned in the previous case.

Dazzling Display of Terrific Hitting: Menzel's Brightest

A DEVASTATING FIRST SET

HURRICANE SERVICE SHOCKS BRITON

GREAT COME-BACK

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Agency, London, June 28, 1934.)

London, June 28. Frederick John Perry, the world's fastest tennis player, and England's finest exponent of the game for over two generations, gave a typically dazzling display of terrific hitting against R. Menzel, the Czechoslovakian ace at Wimbledon to-day, as a result of which Perry entered the last sixteen in the men's singles.

It was one of the greatest fights of his career.

The match was easily the most spectacular yet staged during the current meeting. Menzel, against such a doughty opponent, pulled out his best strokes, and in a match of magnificent fighting tennis took Perry to 0-5, 6-3, 6-7, 6-4, 6-2, before admitting defeat.

Not since the days of "Big Bill" Tilden has Wimbledon seen such devastating serving as that of Menzel's in the first set against Perry.

TERRIFIC SERVICE.

It was so fast that the flight of the ball could scarcely be discerned, and one slashing ace which Perry did not even catch a whiff, nearly knocked the racket out of the Englishman's hand.

The general opinion around the court was that Menzel's serving during the early stages of the match was fully equal to Tilden-at-his-best.

But although driven completely on the defensive by Menzel's service, Perry held the balance in other phases of the game.

He drove with amazing power and precision, finding the side and base lines with unerring accuracy.

Menzel, refusing to be outplayed off the ground, returned drive for drive, but he could not sustain accuracy like his opponent, and was lured into many errors.

THRILLING EXCHANGES.

Both players stormed the net on the slightest pretext, and spectators were thrilled with some glorious volleys at which Perry again excelled, being mastery in his angle volleys and stop volleys.

Menzel absolutely overpowered his opponent in the first set, and Perry had the now rare experience of losing a set to love. It was Menzel's serving which did the trick. Perry took the whole of the set to "find" it and to discover means of an adequate return and counter.

He accomplished this in the second set, and thereafter, although always dangerous, Menzel's service lost much of its potency.

SAZZLING DRIVES.

Perry, instituting a driving campaign drove the Czech back on the defensive in the second set and went to his points after conceding three games.

Menzel, however, was still formidable, and despite the extraordinary pace of the exchanges, maintained a firm grip. There was a titanic struggle for leadership in the third set from which Menzel emerged triumphant.

During this period he too raided the net after some sizzling drives on both hands, and after twelve exciting games broke through once again to lead.

MENZEL BREAKS.

It was noticeable when the players returned from their rest that Perry was much the fresher. He again set up a fierce attack, exposing Menzel to a merciless hail of drives to all parts of the court, and following up with crisp and definite volleys and smashing.

Menzel gradually gave way, and

F. J. Perry in a smashing mood.

COTTON, WHEAT AND SILVER

LATEST NEW YORK QUOTATIONS

Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz have received the following quotations on the New York cotton and wheat and silver exchanges for yesterday.

Cotton	June 27.	June 28.
Close		Closing Range
July	12.12	12.22-12.24
October	12.35	12.47-12.48
December	12.48	12.61-12.62
January	12.53	12.65-12.66
March	12.64	12.76-12.76
May	12.74	12.87-12.87
Spot	12.35	12.46

Chicago Wheat	June 27.	June 28.
Close		Closing Range
July	90	92 1/4-92 1/4
September	90 1/2	92 3/4-92 3/4
December	92	93 3/4-93 3/4

Winnipeg Wheat	June 27.	June 28.
Close		Closing Range
July	76	77 1/2-77 1/2
October	78 1/4	79 1/4-79 1/4
December	79 1/4	80 3/4-80 3/4

Silver	June 27.	June 28.
Close		Closing Range
July	45.89	46.22-46.31
September	46.37	46.70-46.72
December	47.00	47.45-47.45
January	47.15	47.65-47.65
March	47.85	48.15-48.15
May	48.40	48.65-48.65
Total sales:	5,350,000 ozs (214 contracts)	5,850,000 ozs (234 contracts)

SALESMAN "WANTED"

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Leung Kau-ping on a charge of obtaining goods by false pretences.

Leung, a salesman at Messrs. Dowell & Co., is accused of having obtained 160 drums of linseed oil, valued at $1,200, and converting this to his use. He has been missing since the 16th, when suspicions were aroused.

once Perry had broken through at the tenth game to level the scores, he was a beaten man.

The Englishman, gathering all his resources in the fifth set, just leaped away from his opponent, and playing very nearly as well as in the three previous sets, had the Czech tied up.

Perry conceded only two games in this final stanza, and thus entered the last sixteen as a result of the most spectacular victory of the tournament.—Reuter.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LATEST SHARE QUOTATIONS

The following quotations on the London Stock Exchange have been received by Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz in conjunction with Reuter.

Chinese Bonds.	June 27.	June 28.
4 1/2% Bonds 1898 (Eng. Iss.)	£101 1/4	£101 1/4
4 1/2% Loan 1908	£ 92 1/4	£ 92 1/4
5% Loan 1912	£ 70 1/4	£ 71
5% Recog. Loan 1913 (Eng. Iss.)	£ 95 1/4	£ 95 1/4
5% Bonds 1926-27	£ 90 1/4	£ 90 1/4
5% Shai-Nanking Rly.	£ 65 1/4	£ 65 1/4
5% Tient-Pukow Rly.	£ 34	£ 34
5% Tient-Pukow Railway (Suppl. Loan)	£ 26	£ 26
5% Shai-Hchow-Ningpo Rly.	£ 98 1/4	£ 98 1/4
5% Honan Rly.	£ 31 1/4	£ 31 1/4
5% Hukwang Rly.	£ 36	£ 36
5% Lung Tsing Rly.	£ 16 1/4	£ 16 1/4

Foreign Bonds and Banks.

German 7% Int. Loan 1924	65 1/4	66
Japan 5% Sterling Loan 1907	£ 74 1/4	£ 74 1/4
Japan 5% Sterling Loan 1924	£ 89	£ 89
H.K. & Shai Bk. (Ldn. Regd.)	£130 1/4	£131 1/4
Charit. Bk. 5% sh.	£ 10 1/4	£ 10 1/4

Industrials and Breweries.

Associated Elec. Industries	18/6	18/6
Brit-Amor. T. O. B. (Bearer)	118/9	119/4 1/2
Chinese Eng. and Min. (Bearer)	20/-	20/-
Tate & Lyle	60/1 1/4	61/4 1/4
Countess	90/9	91/1 1/4
Distillers	40/1 1/4	40/3
Dunlop Rubber	28/0	28/0
Eveready 5/- sh.	40/6	40/6
General Electric (England)	43/1 1/4	43/3
Boots	35/0	35/0
Impl. Chem Ind.	8/10 1/2	8/10 1/2
Impl. Tobacco	125/-	126/3
Woolworths	100/7 1/2	101/10 1/4
Internat. Nickel	no par val	£ 25 1/2
Pinchin Johnson	40/-	39/0
Turner & Newall	47/6	48/-
Unilever	22/0	23/-

LOTTERIES-BILL.

PREPARING MEASURE IN COMMITTEE

London, June 28. The Betting and Lotteries Bill passed second reading in the House of Commons last night without a division after a long debate in which its provisions were subjected to criticism by opponents of the measure.

At the conclusion of the debate it was announced that the Bill would be dealt with in the committee stage by the Standing Committee and not by a Committee of the whole House, whose programme, until the Summer adjournment, is very congested.

Although this course offers greater opportunities for obstruction and some newspapers suggest the Bill may ultimately be withdrawn. The Times says that the work of the Standing Committee will be begun within a fortnight and completed before the recess so that later stages of the measure may be taken in the Commons soon after it reassembles in October.—British Wireless.

Miscellaneous.

Anglo-Dutch	24/3	24/1 1/4
Burma Corp. Ltd.	12/0	12/10 1/4
10
Canadian Pacific Rly. 5% sh.	$ 14 1/4	$ 14
(Bearer)
Charit. 16/- sh.	22/0	22/9
Estates	11/0	12/-
London Tin 10/- sh.	13/4 1/2	13/3
Pekin Synd. 2/- ord. sh.	2/-	2/-
Rubber Trusts	32/7 1/2	32/7 1/2
Shai Elec. Constr.	63/-	63/-
Van Eyn Deop	63/1 1/2	63/1 1/2
Electric Musical Industries	20/-	28/0

Oils.

Anglo-Persian Oil	46/3	46/10 1/4
Burma Oil	78/0	79/4 1/4
Southern Railway	24/3	24/1 1/4
Royal Dutch 100 fl. sh.	£ 21 1/4	£ 21 1/4
Shell Trans and Trad. (Bearer)	50/-	50/-
Geldenhuis	30/-	29/4 1/4
Crown Mines	241/0	241/3

YOU CERTAINLY CAN TAKE IT — WHEN IT'S A SNAPSHOT

SHUCKS, WHO COULDN'T WITH VERICHROME FILM.

NO OTHER FILM IS THE SAME AS VERICHROME

Folks needn't squint at the sun. They can stand in the shade... if the film in your camera is Verichrome. Ask for—see that you get—Kodak VERICHROME Film... in the yellow box with checkered stripes.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY
SHANGHAI
HONGKONG
TIENTSIN

New VERICHROME differs from other films:
1 Double-coated. 2 Layers of sensitive surface.
2 Highly color-sensitive.
3 "Isolation" "Prism" prevented by colored light on the film.
4 Fine detail in high lights, portions that represent light parts.
5 Fine detail in shadows, portions that represent dark parts.
6 Translucent, instead of transparent.
Made by an exclusive process of Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y.

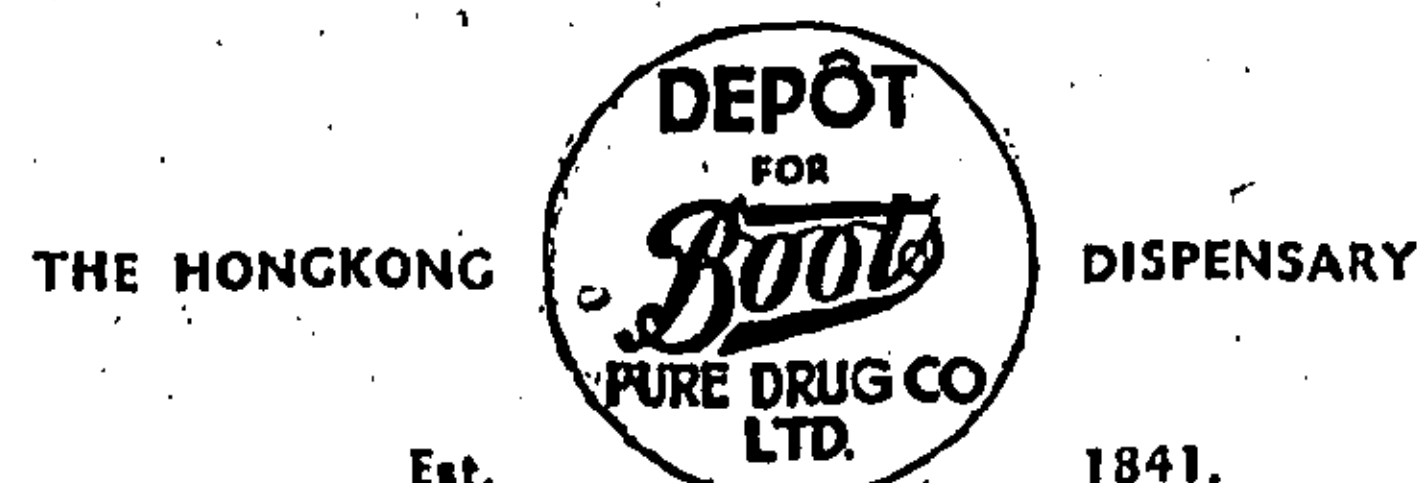

IF IT IS

Boots

IT IS BETTER!!

THE EVER INCREASING DEMAND FOR THE MEDICINES AND TOILET PREPARATIONS OF BOOTS PURE DRUG CO., LTD., PROVES THE POPULARITY OF THIS FAMOUS FIRM.

A. S. WATSON & CO., LTD.

INTRODUCING THE

"PATTERSON"ALL WAVE AUTOMATIC RADIO-GRAMOPHONE.

Note these features

10 Tube All Wave Receiver with a range between 15 to 575 meters.

Plays eight 10" or 12" records automatically.

Two speed motor for standard or long-playing records. Electrical amplification of records without the slightest distortion, and true fidelity of tone.

Retains all the features of the well known "Patterson" receiving sets—Supreme tone quality—automatic volume control—Shadow colour tuning—matched dynamic speaker.

Price $650.00 Net

(Terms if desired)

S. MOUTRIE & CO., LTD.

York Building. Hongkong. Chater Road.

Makers Of Distinctive

FURNITURE.

MADE FROM THE FINEST MATERIALS, DESIGNED ON PLEASING LINES AND GUARANTEED TO GIVE ENDURING SERVICE. UNDOUBTEDLY SOLID VALUE AT KEEN COMPETITIVE PRICES.

Furnishing Dept.

LANE, CRAWFORD LTD.STUDEBAKER
1934Popular demand—
"DICTATOR SIX"Priced within reach of all!
DE LUXE SEDAN — Six-cylinder.

88-horsepower engine + 113-inch wheelbase. Speedway stamina and crashproof bodies built like battleships — "Mechanical Brains" provided throughout that make driving almost entirely automatic.

Further arrivals due shortly!

HONGKONG HOTEL GARAGE

Show Room—Stubbs Road
Phone: 27778-9.
Arrange for a Studebaker Demonstration Drive!

The Hongkong Telegraph

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1934.

TRADE COMMISSION

General satisfaction will be felt at the announcement that the Government has decided to appoint a Commission which is to be charged with the task of studying the present position of trade in the Colony and making recommendations designed to improve the existing situation. The personnel of the Commission has not yet been announced, but it will be representative of the commercial, banking and shipping interests of the Colony and, if wisely chosen, it should be able to make really constructive proposals for effecting a much-needed improvement in the present state of affairs. The presumption is that the terms of reference will be widely drawn, so as to cover all relevant aspects of the problem, and that no restrictions will be imposed concerning the subject matter of the inquiry. Many specific proposals have already been forwarded to the Government by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, whilst latterly the question of the Colony's free port status has come in for considerable discussion. All these issues will doubtless be taken into account by the Commissioners, and it is to be assumed that a general invitation will be extended to all sections of the community to lay their views before the investigating body. Evidence of the decline in the Colony's trade has been revealed latterly in the periodical statistics issued by the Government, indicating in actual figures the slump which practically every business here has experienced and is still unhappily feeling. The depression may have taken a long time to hit the Colony, but its existence is now a matter of concern to almost every branch of trade. It will be the task of the Commission to analyse the causes of the decline and to put forward concrete ideas for overcoming it. The greatly-increased tariffs in China are undoubtedly a factor in the situation, but, serious as these are, they obviously do not wholly account for the present position. Currency and banking considerations cannot be overlooked, as these are vital matters when it comes to smoothing the path for commercial progress. It may be found also that reforms are needed in current business practice. But the main task of the Com-

NOTES OF THE DAY

WAR DEBT LOGIC

Britain's latest debt note points the obvious, quite effectively. No-one of responsibility in the United States could have seriously entertained the idea that payment in kind presented fewer difficulties than the transfer of gold bars. Robbing Peter to pay Paul can only sound sense to the ill-informed and uninformed, which perhaps explains why the States Department took the trouble to raise the subject and the British Government to make a pretence of keeping it open for further consideration later. All the Notes connected with the June 15 "settlement day" carry the same suspicion, that they have been drawn up primarily to lull the pound-of-flesh merchants into the belief that a serious effort is being made to obtain payment. A curious air of unreality pervades them all. Sometimes they seem to have been written with an eye to posterity—carefully phrased logic for future generations to pore over and decide about the rights and the wrongs. Perhaps, when all is said and done, that is the most intelligent way of handling the situation.

AMERICAN ASSENT

American opinion seems to accept Britain's plans for an all-round increase in armaments as a perfectly logical step. All the excuses are found before they have been advanced in justification by British jingoists and ready assent has been given. Whitehall could hardly have expected such encouragement. If any diffidence was felt about the programme before the good news came from Washington, it can be discarded now. Others can be left to speculate upon the next logical step. What a bust it will be when it does come.

ARMS AND THE PRESS

Two things in connection with the new defence programme would be interesting if the truth could be discovered. One is the extent of the influence exerted upon the Cabinet by the campaign of certain London newspapers for increased armaments. And the other is the extent of the influence of armaments interests behind the campaigns. It is acknowledged on all hands, of course, that no British Government in recent history has had a worse press—as far as the popular press is concerned—than the MacDonald-National Government in the last twelve months. The opposition newspapers have naturally remained in opposition. And the traditionally Conservative journals have had nothing but criticism to offer, have been more reckless and spiteful in reference to certain Ministers than frankly opposition journals. Even so, it would be almost tragic to think that new armaments have been served up on a silver platter to gain the support of these journals in the next election.

SILVER MYSTERY

The silver plot thickens. Senator Dies made some very plain statements about the policy of the United States Treasury, declaring that 1,254,000,000 ounces of silver will be purchased by the end of the year. The picture of the Treasury Department with demands for their newspapers for fresh and authoritative information can easily be conjured up. They seem to have gone empty away but it cannot lack significance that no denial was issued, and the local dollar is still going up, although it is still trailing behind its silver parity value. A prediction that the steady rise will continue seems to be as safe as any.

mission will undoubtedly be to ascertain whether, and if so, what, new avenues can be opened up for improving the internal economic position of the Colony. The moment is certainly most propitious for the carrying out of a thorough investigation of the whole situation. Above all, it is to be hoped that the members of the Commission will be carefully chosen. Hopes of a really useful contribution being made will be strengthened if there is evidence that the Government is disposed to go outside the customary channels in selecting the personnel.

NIGHTMARE OF WAR

By AN OLD SOLDIER

DISARMAMENT to me is not a vague abstraction. I cannot view it dispassionately and aloofly as so many of the so-called armaments experts seem able to do. It seems too vital and compelling to be treated as a mere vexing international problem.

To me armaments mean but one thing—ravaged lands, belts of desolation across the face of the earth. Six-inch guns—eight-inch guns—howitzers—field pieces—naval guns—let the armaments experts work out their charts to inform us which are defensive weapons and which offensive. Guns to me mean armies, men covering in oozy slots of shattered earth—ghastly vistas of barbed wire—the broken shards of homes and cities—the obscenities of poison gas, high explosives and bayonets. Mine is the viewpoint of the old soldier.

For 16 years I have been grappling with the problem of what it is the world needs to drive home the lesson if the disaster which overtook us before is not to overtake us again. I speak as one who has the right to speak. I wore a uniform four years in the last war. I saw active service in four major offensives. And to-day I am below the age limit for active service. If another war should break upon the world within the next few years I should be called upon to serve once more.

For 16 years, therefore, I have watched intently the various phases of the effort to establish lasting peace. I have come to divide the peace seekers into two schools. On the one hand are those who have sought through international conferences and agreements to limit the world's armaments. The other group has turned out a flood of war literature, novels such as "All Quiet on the Western Front," plays like "Journey's End," pictorial records showing war in all its gruesome horror such as the collection ironically titled "The First World War." And, watching, I have gradually been forced to admit that neither group has been very successful.

Until a few days ago I did not fully realize why this was so. Then the chance remark of a wartime friend gave me the answer. We were talking of the war. We were surrounded by the comforts of this modern world. Around us the tide of industry was moving, great natural scientists were solving the secrets that should bring us wider understanding, increased enlightenment. Yet, as we talked I saw again the valley of the Somme in 1916, that chalk-flecked, shattered segment of the western front, with its harvest of carnage and terror. And again the shadow of war seemed to rest upon the world around us.

Then my friend stopped suddenly in his talk. "You know," he said, "that was not in the same world that we know. It was on another plane of existence."

The more I pondered that remark the clearer and stronger grew the conviction that my friend had voiced a great truth, that he had voiced for me something that I had known for a long time. I look back at my experience and see plainly the verity of his reasoning. I was brought up to, steer my course in life by certain fixed principles. I was told I must be honest, compassionate, generous, forgiving. The Golden Rule underlay every moral law that was set before me.

I grew to manhood, went out into the world—and then the war. I was taught in the course of my training and experience to throw overboard every one of those rules. Murder was legalized. Indeed, I could become a hero in the eyes of my countrymen if my list of murders was long enough.

I see now that I had really stepped from one plane of existence to another. Or, to put it more clearly and no less logically, I became gripped by the mass hypnotism of a universal nightmare. The world had succumbed to a dream phantasmagoria and called it real. And I was fooled with the rest.

On different occasions during the war I glimpsed this, but not until my friend voiced it did I see it clearly. I remember one night in the outskirts of Lens when I was caught in a barrage laid down by the German guns. I hid in an angle of a wall behind the shattered remains of some miners' cottages. The roar of the guns ran along the whole front in a rippling crescendo of madness. The skeletons of houses about me gleamed starkly in the ghostly lightning of bursting shells.

Then, as I covered panic-stricken, something touched my face, and through the stench of high explosives I smelled the perfume of a rose. The fragrance of that flower came to me as a touch of reality. In this place men had laboured with love and patience that beauty might bloom. For the moment I forgot the drum fire, the guns and the terror, and saw the village as it was, the home of men who loved these gardens, who had planted rosebushes, the perfume from which should be stronger than the stench of war.

To-day I see that it was the reality. The terror that surrounded me was the nightmare, the unreality from which men must one day wake, and, waking, recognize it not as the experience of actuality, but as having no more part in reality than the nightmare holds for us in the morning when we awake.

Because I now know this I can understand the failure of all our efforts to establish peace. We had passed through a nightmare. But upon waking we had accepted it as reality. And, instead of banishing the fear that induced it, we had sought stronger bars for our doors, thicker shutters for our windows, and put fierce dogs on watch outside. Thus, we blindly reasoned, we should keep the nightmare from our dwellings.

From this premise we sought to work out a satisfactory conclusion. We attempted to make pacts with our neighbours who had experienced the same nightmare. We desired to join hands under such and such circumstances should the nightmare threaten again. Or we imagined that someone had been the cause of our experiencing the nightmare. And we sought to defend ourselves against him.

Our war literature played its parts in the scheme. Men returned from the nightmare. From the depths of their revulsion they

(Continued on Page 10.)

The Very Idea!
OUR INVENTIONS

By Marchese Eddie "Marconi"

Kelly, Genius

WE inventors have to put up with a lot of things.

All of which is prompted by the thought that we have to visit our doctor this afternoon to have our face X-rayed.

The asterisks are inserted in order to allow a suitable interval to pass, following the uncomplimentary references by those who have digested the first paragraph.

The X-ray is really a modern invention, and should not be confused with the hip-ray, which is a football term, and has nothing to do with all this correspondence about the "Cult of Fashion" in a morning contemporary.

Nor should it be confused with ST-rayed, which generally ends in Police-raid.

Inventions are always the same. We were only saying to Marconi the other day that we inventors don't get any kudos for our inventions. And we love kudos. With a dash of tomato sauce they are delicious.

It's amazing, considering the way our inventions have been seized upon by the public, that we have been able to preserve our anonymity. ("Invent", Jewish for "went in.")

Who, for instance, invented the catapult for putting the cat out at night? Has anyone ever come and patted us on the back for it? No!

Then there was the machine we patented for beating up the hen in order to get positively fresh egg noggs.

There was another machine which cried for you when you peeled the onions.

Then there was our potato peeler. The potatoes were simply inserted one at a time and the peel went one way, the eyes went another way, pieces of your fingernails went another way, and all you had to do was to find the potato.

We got the idea for one of our best inventions while hunting grisly bears in the Rockies far away.

The grisly bear is so called because it is very sivey. It has a habit of sinew before you see him. (Oh, Mr. Kelly!)

Yes, we invented a robot for taking the blame for cigarette burns in carpets.

Here among our test tubes and retorts—a test tube is a thing used by international cricketers and a retort is a back answer, we won't be so technical in future—we carry out experiments which stagger the imagination. And if you've ever had an imagination with the staggers, you can sympathize with us.

We recently perfected an electric rat catcher. It rings a bell and wakes the headache, who rushes into the kitchen.

While wife is in kitchen wondering why no rat in trap, husband and wife have rung bell from front gate as gone to bed and is so asleep that he has been there for hours to great astonishment of wife of the first part, heretofore mentioned.

We were the first man to prove that perpetual commotion in a home was not only possible, but almost unavoidable.

For the past eleven years we have been working on an apparatus to shut the wife up when we come home late. We think we have over-estimated our inventive powers. There are some things which are above human ingenuity.

Excuse us for a week. Pete, our laboratory assistant, has just called us on the phone to come across and test out our new invention for taking corks out of bottles.

Mdmn the Mdivani

We notice in a morning paper that Princess Mdivani has separated from the Prince and has gone back to America with her poppa.

Was Princess Mdivani (who, as everybody ought to know by now, was formerly Miss Barbara Hutton, the Woolworth heiress) in a London nursing home because there was discord in the Mdivani meat? Or was everything in the Mdivani meat too mdivino and was Princess Mdivani merely in a nursing home with the mneascles or an attack of mneascles or an attack of mneascles? Sometimes called mneascles?

How many sleepless nights have we spent with the Mdivanis on our mind instead of snoring snugly in our seven and nine-penny nightgowns? There were dimes (and we do not mean it) when we shouted "Mdmn the Mdivanis."

Then suddenly the truth was told and we asept. She was on a sniffling midlet.

"Now take this guy—he had the lucky breaks, that's all."

EUROPEAN DRIVER WARNED

POWERFUL CAR AND IMPATIENCE

FIFTY DOLLAR FINE

Warning him that any further offence of a like character would be met with drastic treatment, Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy this morning, imposed a fine of $50 on E. Greyer, of Messrs. Sander Weller & Co., on a summons for dangerous driving in Repulse Bay Road on June 9.

Mr. Hamilton also convicted Greyer on another summons for having failed to drive with due care and caution in Shek-O Road on June 17, and administered a caution.

In his summing up of the case, Mr. Hamilton said he had visited the scene of the alleged passing of other cars by defendant. It happened that on his return journey, his car was held up by another car considerably less powerful than the one which was practically from Deep Water Bay to the top, and although he was in a more powerful car, they were not able to pass the other car without safety.

BLIND CORNERS.

"I think from what I know of the road," continued Mr. Hamilton, "that there are only two or three places where you can pass safely. There is definitely no safe place to pass when proceeding from the Repulse Bay end until a little green hut on the right side of the road is passed, and this is well below Mr. Compton's house. Both corners are blind and most dangerous, especially the second one, which Mr. Booth said was a semi-circle. I gather the defence denies this."

"On the first summons, the evidence discloses two very dangerous cases of cutting in and passing on a bend, an offence which I gather causes a large percentage of accidents at home."

AMAZING LUCK.

"Mr. Greyer tells me he has driven for 25 years without an accident. If this is true, I can only say he has driven on much safer roads than ours, with much greater skill and care and with amazing luck. I convict him on this summons, and fine him $50 in view of the fact he has a previous conviction."

"With regard to the second summons, the state of affairs is somewhat different. I am not prepared to disregard the views of safety. I shall caution on this summons."

SERIOUS WARNING.

"But taking the two summonses together, I must issue a word of warning. I must say that defendant has a very powerful car, and so becomes somewhat impatient. I must warn him very seriously that any further case of dangerous driving will be met with drastic treatment."

It will be recalled that Mr. L. H. V. Booth, Director of Criminal Intelligence, the complainant in the first summons, gave evidence on Thursday that half-a-mile from the Gap, defendant overtook his car and another car ahead on a blind corner, and cut into a stream of about six cars. Defendant continued in the stream of cars, and when he came to the Gap itself he cut over to the right hand side of the road to overtake again on a completely blind corner.

EMPIRE FOOD SHIP

VESSEL LAUNCHED AT BELFAST

London, June 28. The motor vessel Waipawa, of 10,700 tons, the second of two Empire food ships which Harland and Wolff are building for Shaw, Savill and the Albion Company, was launched at Belfast to-day.

The vessel will be engaged between London and New Zealand via the Panama Canal.—British Wireless.

DUBLIN-NEW YORK FLIGHT

POPE BLESSES THE PROJECT

Vatican City, June 28. His Holiness the Pope to-day granted an audience to the Transatlantic fliers, Captain Foad and Lieut. Siboldi, and listened with interest to the details of their flight.

When he heard that they proposed to return from Dublin in New York, the Pope blessed all their projects.—Reuter.

SILK DUTY IN BRITAIN

BIG INCREASES ANNOUNCED

THE ANGLO-FRENCH AGREEMENT

London, June 28. Special silk duties form one of the features of the agreement recently concluded between France and Britain.

In connection with the Anglo-French trade agreement, the Treasury has issued an order bringing into operation, as from July, a revised schedule for Customs and Excise duties on silk, artificial silk and articles made wholly or partly of silk or artificial silk.

The duties include special rates on eastern tissues known as Shantung, Ninghai, Nanshan, Honan, Antung and Hsibutal, amounting to 3s. 6d. per pound where they are dyed or printed, and 2s. 9d. a pound where they are undyed or unprinted.

MADE-UP ARTICLES.

In the case of made-up articles, consisting wholly or partly of silk or artificial silk, the rates of duty are unchanged, except where the value of the silk or the artificial silk component exceeds five per cent, but does not exceed 20 per cent. of the aggregate value of all components of the article. In this case, the duty is increased from twenty to 25 per cent.

In addition to the duty per pound on the Eastern tissues already specified, they will be subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of the full value of the article, or, in the case of dyed or printed tissues, 7½d. per square yard, whichever is the greater.—Reuter.

CUSTOMS STATION FOR SHANHAIKWAN

Sequel to Railway Agreement

Peking, June 29. It is understood that the Chinese Maritime Administration is proceeding with preparations for the establishment of a Chinese customs station at Shanhaikwan after the commencement of the through train service between Peking and Mukden, in order to check the influx of foreign goods from Manchuria. Negotiations with the Japanese authorities for this purpose are proceeding.—Central News.

AID FOR BRITISH SHIPPING

LIMITED SUBSIDIES POSSIBLE

London, June 28. While the main feature of the Government scheme for helping British shipping will be the granting of financial guarantees for the construction of new merchant ships, on condition that three old vessels are scrapped for every new one, it is learned also that there are proposals for a limited subsidising of merchant ships which are competing against specially heavy foreign subsidies.—Reuter.

DARROW REPORT ON N.R.A.

THIRD INSTALMENT COMPLETED

Washington, June 28. The third instalment of the Darrow Report on the working of the National Recovery Administration codes and "Blue Eagle" practices, has been completed and forwarded to President Roosevelt.

The Darrow Board has now finished its work and will now disband.

Mr. s. Clarence Darrow, the veteran lawyer at the head of the Board, has already tendered his resignation.—Reuter.

The quarantine restrictions imposed by the Government of the Straits Settlements against arrivals from Hongkong on account of small-pox have been removed.

Amongst the passengers leaving for Shanghai on the Empress of Canada is Professor C. A. Middleton Smith, of the University.

ANGLO-FRENCH AGREEMENT

TEXT OF TRADE PACT

CONCESSIONS BY BOTH

London, June 28. The new Anglo-French trade agreement which was signed yesterday will come into operation on 1st July and is to remain in force till 1st April, 1935, and thereafter will be continued subject to the right of either Government to denounce it at any time so as to terminate it in three months at the end of quarter in which the notice is given.

Under the agreement, the text of which was issued to-night each country undertakes the most favoured nation treatment in matters of customs duties, with certain exceptions.

All quotas in respect of United Kingdom goods are to be restored to 100 per cent. of the United Kingdom proportionate share in each trade concerned as calculated upon the figures of such trade in the basic period.

The surtax of 20 per cent. imposed on certain French goods by the order of 9th February, 1934, is to be removed.

The agreement also contains certain provisions regarding the operation of the French quotas, designed to enable the United Kingdom trade to utilise fully the quotas allotted to it.

QUANTITY GUARANTEES.

In addition to these undertakings regarding French quotas, guarantees have been given as to the quantities of many of the more important classes of United Kingdom goods subject to quota in France which will be admitted from the United Kingdom during the period of the agreement.

In regard to imports of United Kingdom coal into France, the French Government undertake to maintain in full the existing percentage namely 49.5 per cent. of the normal global quota which at present is 58.5 per cent. of the average imports into France from all foreign sources in the period 1928 to 1930.

There are, in addition to the basic percentage, certain supplementary allocations for ports etcetera.

COAL.

It is laid down that these shall not be reduced in greater proportion than the normal quota and shall remain open to free competition. For mechanical coal, freedom of purchase is to be maintained as at present. These guarantees regarding coal are linked with an agreement between the United Kingdom importers and the French coal importers regarding the purchase of pit props.

On the United Kingdom side, the duties on certain classes of goods imported from France which are of special importance to the latter country are fixed for the period of the agreement. The most important of these classes are silk and artificial silk.

BRANDY DUTIES.

United Kingdom duties on French brandy and sparkling

DR. H. H. KUNG'S TOUR

MEETS PROFESSOR ROGERS IN PEKING

Peking, June 28. Dr. H. H. Kung, Finance Minister, is proceeding to Tientsin to-day evening to consult with the Shansi authorities concerning financial reorganisation. The provincial authorities have already resolved to reduce the strength of the Shansi Army by one third in order to reduce the financial deficiencies.

Prior to his departure, he had a meeting with Professor Rogers, the American silver expert, who is staying here and who is expected to return to Shanghai shortly.—Central News.

FOR DANGEROUS DRIVING

$50 FINE IMPOSED ON EUROPEAN

E. Greyer, of Sander, Weller & Co., was fined $50 for dangerous driving when he overtook a stream of cars round two blind corners on the road from Repulse Bay to Wongneichong on the 9th instant. The case was heard before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy this morning.

Another summons against defendant for failing to drive with due care and caution at Shek-O resulted in a caution being imposed on the defendant.

CEMENT WORKS RESTARTED

BUT ONLY ONE KILN IN OPERATION

After having been idle since October last, the Hoik Un works of the Green Island Cement Co., Ltd., have again resumed production, but only one of the two kilns is in operation.

The resumption is in accordance with the intimation made by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, Mr. J. Scott Harston, at the annual general meeting of the Company on April 25 last.

AIR DISPLAY IN CANTON

"RIVAL" FORCES IN A MIMIC WAR

Canton, June 28. A magnificent air display is promised by the Canton air forces to-day. All Army planes are to be divided into two "hostile" squadrons, one defending the city, while the other will subject it to a "severe air attack."

The mimic air warfare was started this morning.—Central News.

wines are not to be increased during the period of the agreement.

A further clause of a type normal in recent French trade agreements makes provision as to the procedure if either Government should take action which upsets the equilibrium resulting from the agreement.—British Wireless.

DAY BY DAY NEWS IN BRIEF

FEAR NOT THE FLOOD AND THE HAUGHTY; FEAR RATHER HIM WHO FEARS GOD.—Saadi.

Kwok Po, paint-scraper, received head injuries when he fell from a plank whilst scraping a ship at Messrs. W. S. Bailey and Company's wharf at Kwai Yau, yesterday. The injured man was removed to the hospital.

The Kam Kai, a steam-launch of nearly 30 tons gross, which has been laid up for some time at Yumati Bay, was put up for auction by Messrs. Lammett Bros. to-day, but was withdrawn after bidding advanced up to $4,200, had failed to reach a reserve price set by the vendors.

The theft of fifteen yards of silk from the Sincere Company, Canton, was traced to a Chinese who was arrested when attempting to pawn the silk in the Yuen Hing Pawnshop, Hongkong. Brought before Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning, the man, Man Chung, 28, unemployed, pleaded guilty. Sub-Inspector J. Dredge stated that when questioned by a detective, defendant frankly admitted he had stolen the silk. A fine of $30, or three weeks' hard labour, was imposed.

Three weeks' hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning on Leung Ho, aged 22, who pleaded guilty to stealing 69 copper cents from the Sun Hing Grocery, No. 90 Jubilee Street. Detective-Sergeant Goodwin said at 1.15 p.m. yesterday, defendant walked into the shop and the salesman was attending a customer, snatched a tin box, which contained the money. He was chased by the shop master and a foki and was intercepted by a detective.

The many friends of Mr. F. Hamer, of the Government Assessor's office, will be pleased to learn that his eldest son, Stuart Marshall Hamer, who was a student of the London University, has passed his Inter B.A. examination.

An attempt to end her life by jumping into the harbour at low water off the Fraya, at Wanchai yesterday, resulted in serious injuries being received by a married woman, Wong Ho, of No. 219 Jervois Street. She struck a cluster of rocks. She was sent to the Government Civil Hospital.

A bank draft for $800, a quantity of clothing and some money, were stolen by armed robbers who entered a hut in Chuk Yuen village, Kowloon City district early yesterday morning. The tenant and three of his women folk were gagged and trussed up, and the place was completely searched before the robbers made their escape.

Charged before Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy this morning, with interfering on the first floor of No. 115 Wanchai Road, Chiu Sang was sentenced to three months' hard labour. Detective-Sergeant Fitches said when the complainant, Ngan Ho, a bailiff, came home about 3.25 a.m. on June 28, he found the defendant crouching underneath the bed.

Admitting a charge of stealing a leather wallet containing $18.20, Chan Sang, aged 22, was sent to prison for two months by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning. Sub-Inspector Dredge said complainant, Li Chan, an accountant of No. 680 Castle Peak Road, was in Wing Lok Street watching a Chinese doctor demonstrating his skill and offering to cure people's ill for nothing. The defendant, standing close by, took the wallet from the complainant's pocket.

RADIO BROADCAST

TO-DAY'S BROADCAST.

RUSSIAN MUSIC CONCERT THIS EVENING

From ZBW on a wavelength of 355 metres (845 k/c): 1.20-1.30 p.m. Chinese Programme. 7.30-8.30 p.m. European Programme. 7.30 p.m. Closing Local Stock Quotations, etc. 7.33-8 p.m. From the Studio. Jazz Violin and Piano Solos by Camille Nalux and Pomping Villa. Programme.

1. Aint She Sweet.
2. Boulevard of Broken Dreams.
3. Coffee in the Morning.
4. Some of these Days.
5. Sentimental Over You.
6. I'll see you Again.
7. Come up and See me Sometime.
8 p.m. Local Time and Weather Report.

8.03-8.20 p.m. Song Memories
Great Bass Ballads.
Norman Allin and Chorus.

Hermann Lohr-Vocal Gems.
Columbia Light Opera Company.
8.20-8.42 p.m. Light Orchestral Music.

Love's Last Word (Cremieux).
Le Chaland Qui Passe (Bixio).
Albert Sandler and His Orchestra.
Symphonic Rhapsody on "I Pitch my Singing" and "Bird Songs at Eventide" (Eric Coates).

Eric Coates and Symphony Orch.
Souvenir D'Ukraine (Ferraris).
Black Eyes—Russian Impression (Ferraris).
Albert Sandler and His Orchestra.
8.42-9 p.m. Octets.

Memories of Chopin (arr. Willoughby).
J. H. Squire Celeste Octet.

A Venetian Barcarolle—Serenade (arr. Willoughby).
J. H. Squire Celeste Octet.

9.30-10 p.m. From the Studio.
A Short History and Traditions of the Lincolnshire Regiment by Captain F. W. Young.

9.30-10.30 p.m. A Concert of Russian Music.
Pianoforte Solo—Polichinelle (Rachmaninoff).

Pianoforte Solo—Prelude in D Flat (Rachmaninoff).
Leff Polishhoff.

1st Movement from Concerto in D for Violin and Orchestra (Tchaikovsky Op. 35).

Bronislaw Huberman (Violin) and the Berliner Staatskapelle conducted by Steinberg.

1st Movement—Allegro Moderato. Overture—Prince Igor (Borodin).

Symphony Orchestra conducted by Albert Coates.

Theme and Variations from Suite No. 3 in G (Tchaikovsky).

London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sir Landon Ronald.

Orchestra—Gopak—The Fair at Sorochinskii (Moussorgsky).

London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Albert Coates.

10.30 p.m. Rugby Mid-Day Press News.

10.35 p.m. Close Down.

GEN. HO CHIEN'S MISSION

ARRIVES ON VISIT TO HU HAN-MIN

After a series of conferences with the Canton leaders, General Ho Chien arrived in Hongkong early this morning from Canton by special train. In the company of the Mayor of Canton, Mr. Liu Chi-wen, and the Canton Finance Commissioner, Mr. Au Fong-po, interviewed, General Ho Chien confirmed reports that the results of his conference with General Chan Chal-tong and Kwangsi officers had been satisfactory. He expects further success in his forthcoming meeting with Mr. Hu Han-min.

It is understood that Ho Chien will ask Mr. Hu Han-min to return to Nanking and share with Mr. Wang Ching-wei the administration of the Central Government. After meeting Mr. Hu Han-min, Ho Chien will submit the result of his mission to the Nanking Commander-in-Chief.

OLYMPIA HORSE SHOW

FRANCE WINS THE PRINCE'S TROPHY

London, June 28. The Prince of Wales attended the International Horse Show at the Olympia this afternoon and saw the jumping competition for the Prince of Wales' Cup.

The event was won by the French team, to whom he presented the trophy, with the Irish Free State second, Sweden third, and Britain fourth.—British Wireless.

Chau Fung, a coolie, was fined $15 or three weeks by Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning for making a nuisance of himself outside the Kowloon Godowns yesterday. It was stated that as a passenger was coming off a ship, defendant forcibly snatched a suitcase from him despite the fact that he was told that his services were not required.

AGAIN IN 1934 CHEVROLET ACHIEVES WHILE OTHERS STILL TRY.

Longer Wheelbase, new "Aer-Stream" Styling . . . larger, lower Fisher Bodies . . . Fisher No Draft Ventilation Cushion balanced engine for smoothest operation . . . Synchro-mesh gear shift with silent second and most outstanding of modern improvements are the

NEW YK FRAME, 15 times stronger.

BLUE STREAK COMBUSTION gives Greater Power and More Economy.

SHOCKPROOF STEERING

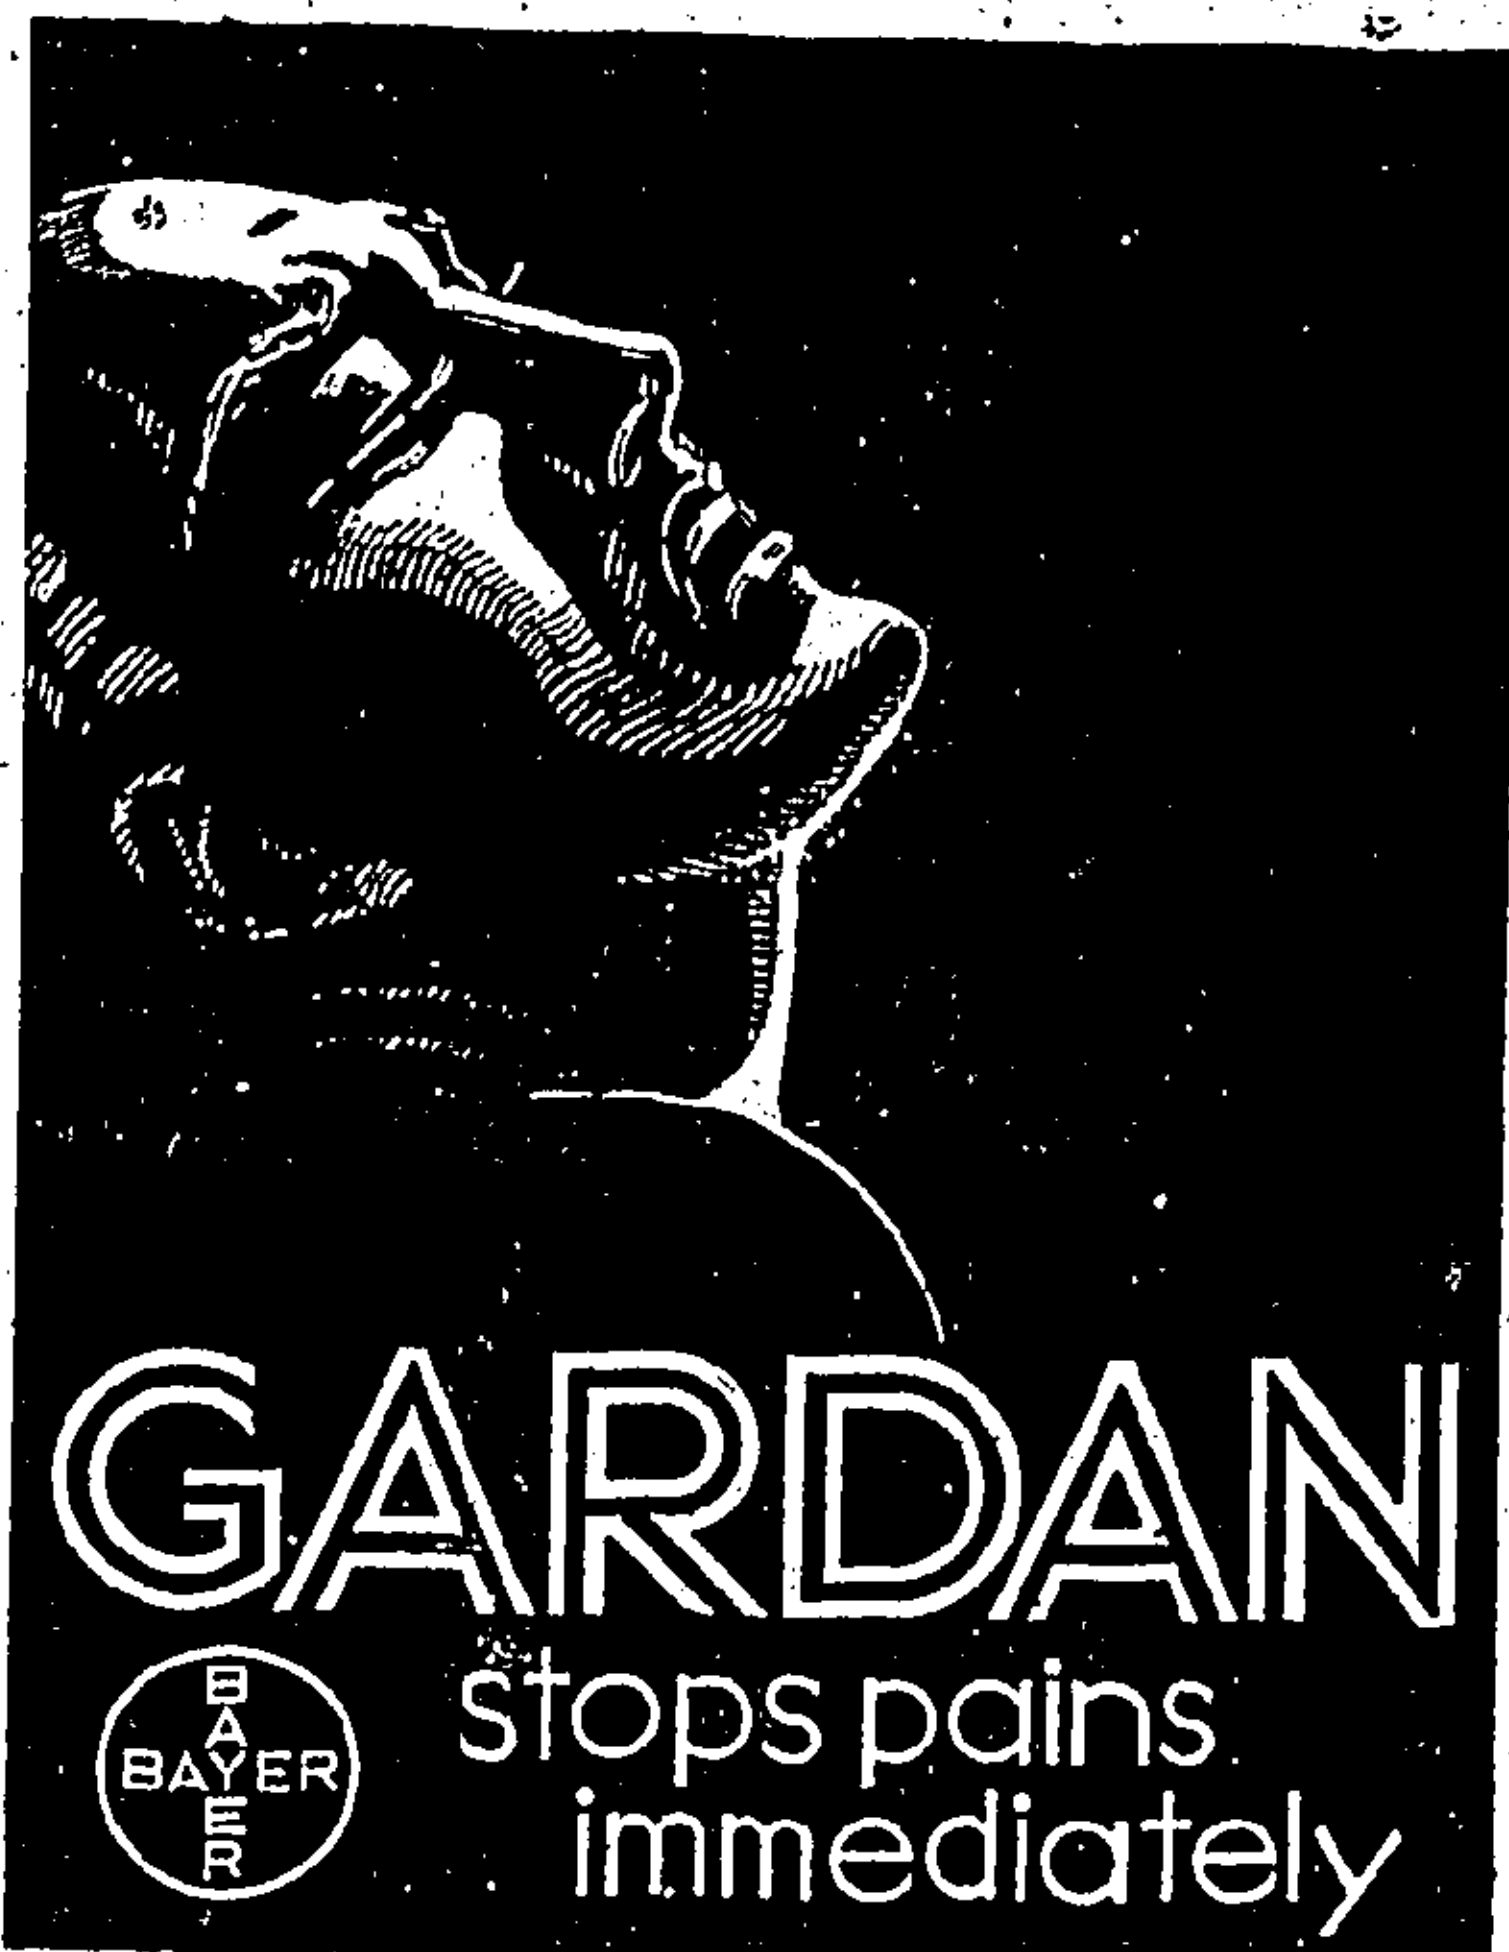

KNEE ACTION WHEELS.

New models on display in our new showrooms.

FAR EAST MOTORS

26. Nathan Road—Kowloon Telephone 59101.

GARDAN stops pains immediately

MARRIED FLIRTS

(Continued from Page 3.)

crowd, Gypsy thought, eyeing him critically. His manner with Marko was exactly right, a blend of deference and camaraderie. He didn't call him "sir" as Tom had. Tom hadn't liked Marko and had been consequently brusque with him. Gypsy had a momentary twinge when she thought of Tom, toiling away with a tiresome old client to-night while she was enjoying herself in her fine feathers.

Kong had disappeared and in his place was an impassive elderly maid. The food was delicious and the glasses were filled over and over again. Champagne, Lila explained lightly, which Marko had sent. Although there had been no open announcement of the state of affairs between her and Marko everyone seemed to understand. And there was possessiveness in every line of Marko's portly, well-fed body. In the rich, unctuous curve of his voice when he spoke to Lila. It all made Gypsy uncomfortable. She told herself that this was what she got for being a bit of a Sybarite; for liking Lila's parties so well she hated to refuse an invitation to one of them. But the atmosphere of the place rather got on her nerves. Lila was different. There was something brittle and artificial about her love-ness now. She wasn't in the least like the girl Gypsy had known. They were still at table. The tall ivory candles were guttering in their silver sticks. The white flowers were wilting in their crystal bowl when the maid came in and whispered something to Lila. Lila looked annoyed. Then she laughed lightly and disagreeably. "Why, bring him in, Davies," she said carelessly. She looked around at the company.

"Derek has dropped around, people," she told them. "Derek's come to be the ghost at the feast." Something twanged at Gypsy's tautened nerves. What was going to happen? There was thunder in the air.

(To Be Continued.)

MASSEUR R. SHIMIDZU
MASSEUSE S. KISAKI
Recommended for many years by Government Civil Hospital, Peak Hospital, etc., and by all the local doctors.
24, Wyndham Street, Telephone 24945.

CRAIGENGOWER STIFF TASK

TO-MORROW'S LEAGUE LAWN BOWLS

CHAMPIONS VISIT THE K.C.C. INDIANS SHOULD WIN

Craigengower first string, who successfully entertained Kowloon Bowling Green Club last week, have a stiff task in front of them for to-morrow, when they visit Civil Service. A win here will do much to restore their position, but defeat may mean the end of their attempt for the championship.

The Bowling Green, present leaders of the first division are on their neighbours' green at the K.C.C., and ought to win despite the vagaries of the green. Craigengower "B" and Police would appear to be other winners.

In the second division the Indian Recreation Club should be able to consolidate themselves at the head of the table, for they are at home to the Yacht Club. Police are confronted with a big job in visiting the Recreation and may further lose their grip as a result.

The programme of matches for to-morrow follows:

SENIOR DIVISION.

Civil Service C.C. v. Craigengower "A"
Kowloon C.C. v. Kowloon B.C. C.
Craigengower "B" v. Kowloon B.C. C.
Police R.C. v. Club de Recreio

JUNIOR DIVISION.

Craigengower C.C. v. Civil Service C.C.
Kowloon B.C. C. v. Kowloon C.C.
Indian R.C. v. Yacht Club
Club de Recreio v. Police R.C.
Football Club v. Kowloon Electric
Teams selected for to-morrow's matches are appended:

SENIOR DIVISION.

CIVIL SERVICE v. CRAIGENGOWER "A" T. Armstrong
W. Champelver
L. R. Whant
A. W. Grimmit (skip)
P. E. Knight
S. Alderman
S. E. Eccles
J. Deakin (skip)
E. W. Simmonds
J. Houlidge
A. O. Brown (skip)
P. J. Jones (skip)

A. E. Costa
W. V. Field
D. R. Rumbold
H. W. Bradbury
G. L. Buchanan
A. S. Gomes
H. J. B. B. B.
U. M. Omar (skip)
J. S. Landall
R. F. Liza
D. B. B. B. B.

KOWLOON C.C. v. KOWLOON B.C. C.
J. W. M. Brown
E. C. Fincher
W. H. H. H.
W. P. Phillips (skip)
H. Hampton
J. A. H. H.
C. E. Elliott-Haywood
A. E. Silstone (skip)
H. G. G. G.
J. S. Dinnen
C. J. Tarchi
J. Fraser (skip)

CRAIGENGOWER "B" v. KOWLOON DOCKS
E. Tuck
M. J. Medina
F. el Arcull
J. Cavanagh (skip)
G. Duncan
L. R. Souza
W. T. Drighman
C. E. Roselet (skip)
A. E. Marchant
H. Milson
W. Gill
C. Simmonds (skip)

POLICE R.C. v. CLUB DE RECREIO
J. S. C. Fender
T. Talon
F. E. H. H.
A. H. Clarke (skip)
E. H. H.
W. Nolan
G. C. Mose
W. H. H.
G. H. H.
F. G. Post
J. Shepherd
W. E. Hollands (skip)

JUNIOR DIVISION.

CRAIGENGOWER C.C. v. CIVIL SERVICE
J. H. H. H.
S. H. H.
W. H. H.
A. C. H. H.
W. H. H.
W. H. H.
W. H. H.
W. H. H.
W. H. H.
W. H. H.

KOWLOON B.C. C. v. KOWLOON C.C.
G. H. H.
C. L. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.
M. J. H.

INDIAN R.C. v. YACHT CLUB
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.

CLUB DE RECREIO v. POLICE R.C.
D. C. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.
A. H. H.

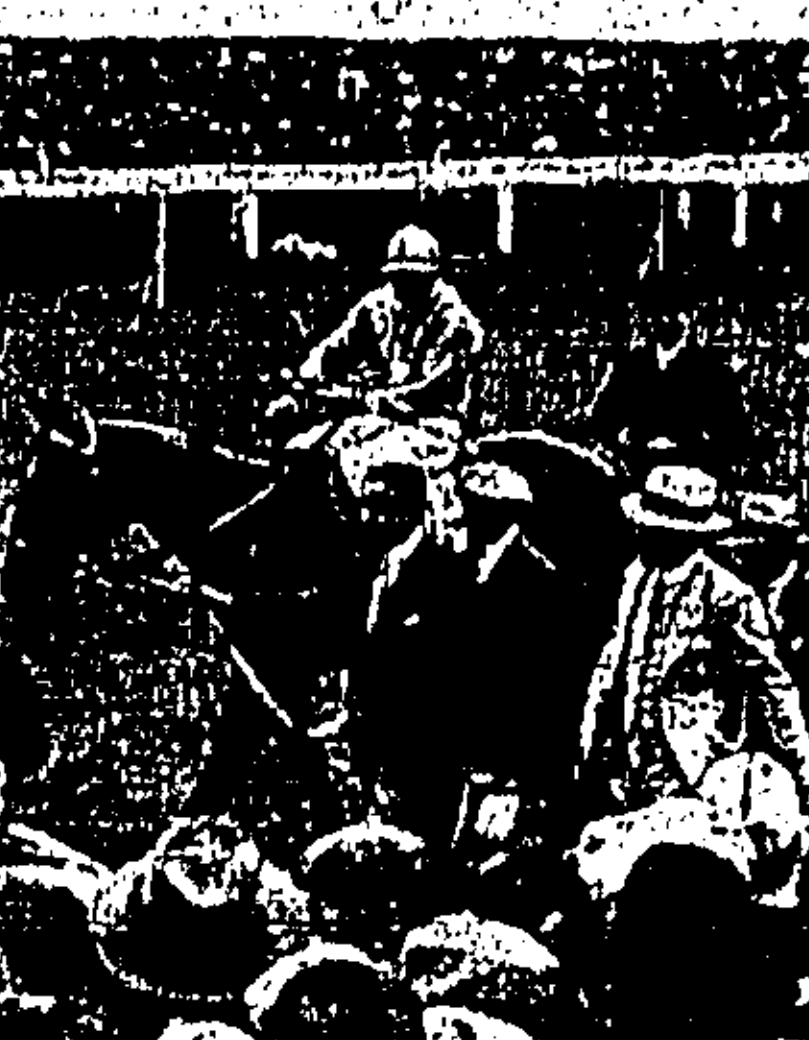

FOOTBALL CLUB v. H.K. ELECTRIC
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.
H. H. H.

WIMBLEDON: LEADING PLAYERS WIN
(Continued from Page 8.)

Hopman, wife of the Australian Davis Cup player, Mrs. Hopman put up a brilliant display, and only lost after three sets.

She was much the better player in the first set which she took to the fore. She had the Frenchwoman guessing with a repertoire of strokes which allowed her to

FACE VERY EXPANSION

Maharaja of Rajppla photographed at the Epsom Derby with horse Windsor Lad which after one of the most exciting runs in the history of the 153 years old Derby brought his master victory and a fortune.

SOUTHEND'S NEW HOME

More Tickets For Cup Finalists

The Football League at the annual meeting decided to defer consideration of a resolution that players' agreements should contain a clause enabling clubs to reduce wages almost immediately after incapacitation through illness or injury. The Management Committee decided to circulate clubs on the matter.

Southend United were given permission to remove from the Kursaal to a new ground at the local Greyhound Stadium.

The League decided to recommend to the Football Association that 15,000 Cup Final tickets instead of 7,500 be allocated to the clubs reaching that stage.

On behalf of the League clubs, Sir Samuel Hill-Wood presented an inscribed silver salver and a cheque for £200 to Mr. T. Charnley, the former secretary of the League, who recently retired after 31 years' service.

Messrs. W. I. Bassett (West Bromwich), M. F. Cadman (Tottenham) and A. Brook Hirst (Huddersfield) were re-elected to the Management Committee.

Mr. F. W. Rinder (Aston Villa) was elected a vice-president of the League, and in tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Herbert Chapman, and officials of other clubs who have died since last year, the meeting stood in silence for a minute.

The Northern Section Championships Shield and medals were presented to Barnsley.

cover the whole of the court in a facile and effective manner.

Madame Mathieu recovered in the second set, when she established the initiative which was not again conceded.

Mrs. Hopman held her own well in the final set, but in the end was beaten by the severity of Madame Mathieu's attack. Reuter.

How Windsor Lad Won A Thrilling Derby

Masterly Riding By Smirke

The 1934 Derby is regarded to be one of the best and most thrilling on record, and the following round-the-course account by "Piqueur" in the News-Chronicle, reveals exactly how exciting was the race.

How and why did Colombo lose the Derby? That is the question that the whole world is asking this evening, for the cold fact now goes down on the scrolls that Lord Glanely's idol lost by a length and a neck to the Maharaja of Rajppla's Windsor Lad and Lord Woolavington's Easton.

From the evidence of my own eyes and the evidence of several jockeys who had a "close up" of the incidents of the race, I will endeavour to explain the calamity and its cause. Donoghue, still the supreme master of the situation when he is riding in the Derby, jumped Medieval Knight off in front and took the best position.

Johnstone, on Colombo, also struck off well and proceeded to go with Medieval Knight. Had he but known, he was being lured to his own destruction, for Medieval Knight was in effect the unconscious villain of the piece.

Donoghue continued to lead and at the crest of the hill Colombo dropped back a little and Bandonian had gone just ahead of him. There were a few changes in the order as they went over the hill, with Medieval Knight leading. Colombo had lost a little ground and Medieval Knight moved up suddenly alongside Medieval Knight. Tiberius was also there and Windsor Lad was improving his position as was Easton.

When Fleetfoot had gone up to Medieval Knight he stopped and so did Donoghue's mount. The latter was just in front of Colombo and the favourite received a check. As they made the turn, with Medieval Knight dropping out, Smirke saw an opening and he dashed Windsor Lad into it, while Gordon Richards went with him on Easton.

WHAT THE JOCKEYS SAY.
Nicoll had then secured the rails on Tiberius. This all happened before Colombo had recovered from his check, with the result that Johnstone had to hold Colombo right out to the middle of the field. Some of the jockeys estimate that Windsor Lad had gained a full 100 yards on Colombo when they had settled down in the straight. Tiberius was not left long in command of the situation, and Windsor Lad went ahead of him.

Colombo, racing by himself, was running on strongly and Johnstone thought that when they were a furlong from home he was almost with Windsor Lad. He thinks that from that point his mount was weakening.

He did not seem so to many people. I thought that Colombo was running on strongly. He never got there with the handicap that had been imposed on him at the turn and he lost the Derby.

Windsor Lad ran on like a good stayer and Easton, too, ran on well, but the French-bred colt was not good enough to beat the Irish colt. Lord Woolavington has, however, the consolation that in buying Easton, after he had run second to Colombo in the Guineas, he made no bad bargain.

It was a truly run race in the good time of 2m. 34sec., which equaled that of Hyperion last year.

Allah was one who had had bad luck, for Perryman, who came off a sick bed to ride him, lost both irons when another horse gave him a bump at the top of the hill. He was nearly brought down, and travelled two furlongs more before he recovered them.

"A nice sight I should have been coming down the straight without my irons," was his comment. Allah ran a good race in the circumstances, for he finished sixth. Actually Tiberius finished fourth, Allah fifth, Valerius sixth, Umidwar seventh, and Patriot King, whom it was not decided to start until an hour before the race, eighth. Tiberius, although he came into the straight with the best position, could not find much extra speed, nor could Primero, who was well up at the turn.

Colombo's GOOD BEHAVIOUR.
Colombo gave the lie to all the moonshine that has been talked about his temperament. He was saddled in The Durdans, but his trainer was made to understand that he must be in the paddock 25 minutes before the race. From the moment he came in he was completely undisturbed, and the slight sweat that broke out behind his girths dried as quickly as it came. He went through the parade, turning his head repeatedly to look at the crowd and taking a most intelligent interest in everything. At the post there was no colt better behaved, but he lost the Derby and the circumstance seemed to stun his owner and trainer.

Marcus Marsh had Windsor Lad looking beautiful. He is one of our youngest trainers—he has only been "on his own" for a year—but he has inherited the magic touch of his father, the late Richard Marsh, with classic horses. He bought this colt as a yearling for 1,300 guineas on his own judgment, and wisely never attempted to do much with him last season.

EXPANSION OF CYCLING ACTIVITIES

LONG DISTANCE RECORDS TO BE ATTACKED

CHRISTMAS CAMPING RUN TO CANTON

At a meeting held recently, the Committee of the Hongkong Cycling Club carried the Club further along the tide of success and, in addition to settling a few general items, the programme for the cooler months was fully dealt with.

The first item arranged is a Picnic Trip on August Bank Holiday, and the many people interested in the Club who are at the moment non-cyclists. A launch will be hired for about seven hours, the destination being one of the neighbouring islands. Refreshments will be provided by the Club, and in order to cover the expenses of the excursion it will be necessary for intending participants to obtain a ticket from either Mr. C. Read, 7 Fuk Wing St., Shamshuipo, or Mr. H. A. G. Keates, Wellington Barracks (R.A.S.C.), Victoria.

The winter activities are scheduled to commence with an Opening Run on October 21, the route to be taken being via Nathan Road and Leichok to Castle Peak where refreshments are being arranged by the Club at the Caterers. Cyclists who have not already joined the Club by that time will be extended a cordial invitation to the run, but will be made subject to a charge of $1 for refreshments.

Members will refresh themselves at the Club's expense. The return journey will be by the same route, the following time-table having been arranged:
Leave Vehicle Ferry, Kowloon at 9 a.m.
Arrive Castle Peak Cafeteria at 11 a.m.
Leave Castle Peak Cafeteria at 1 p.m.
Disperse at Shamshuipo at 3.30 p.m.

On the following Saturday October 27, a Night Run is to be held around the Kowloon Circuit, the starting time being 9 p.m. from the Vehicle Ferry, Kowloon. Refreshments will be arranged by each individual. It is hoped to reach Shamshuipo for dispersal by 2.30 a.m.

Other events arranged are as follows:
Nov. 4.—Open Tourist Time Trial—50 Miles in four hours. Kowloon Circuit. Start at 1 p.m. from Shamshuipo. Entrance Fee—Members $1.50; Non-members $3.00. Refreshments provided by the Club en route at 35 miles.
Nov. 11.—Club Run, leave Vehicle Ferry at 1.15 p.m.
Nov. 18.—50 Miles Record Attempts. Kowloon Circuit at 6.30 a.m.

Dec. 16.—Open Free-Wheel Competition—Repulse Bay Road to Hill-top near Stanley. Leave Vehicle Ferry at 2.30 p.m. (Island Pier). Timekeepers—Mr. C. Read and Mr. H. A. G. Keates. Entrance Fees—Members $1.50; Non-members $2.50.
Jan. 13.—Club Run—leave Vehicle Ferry at 1.15 p.m.
Jan. 20.—Open Tourist Time Trial—50 Miles in four hours. Kowloon Circuit. Start at 1 p.m. from Shamshuipo. Entrance Fee—Members $1.50; Non-members $3.00. Refreshments provided by the Club en route at 35 miles.
Jan. 27.—25 Miles Open Race—Kowloon Circuit—first rider to start at 7 a.m. Timekeepers—Mr. H. A. G. Keates. Entrance Fees—Members $2.00; Non-members $5.00.
In each competitive event suitable awards will be made to the leading three riders, whilst in the Tourist Time Trial events certificates are to be given to the riders covering the 50 miles within the required time. No award will be made in this instance to the rider covering the 50 miles in the fastest time.

DRIFTERS

CHIEF OFFICE FOR SOUTH CHINA, Asiatic Building, Hongkong, Tel. 20601.

E. J. R. MITCHELL, Branch Manager, CANTON, No. 187, The Bund, Tel. 15372.

S. V. GITTINS, District Manager, SHAMEN, 2, French Concession.

V. E. FERRIER, Representative, MACAO.

A. A. T. BORGES, Agent, SWATOW.

F. MURER, Agent.

4 APR 15

THE MANUFACTURERS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

HEAD OFFICE TORONTO, CANADA

"no!"

He'd always had his way with women but for once, his will power wasn't as strong as her won't power!

SYLVIA SIDNEY FREDRIC MARCH in
"GOOD DAME"
a B. P. Schulberg production
A Paramount Picture

TO-MORROW AT THE KING'S

PRESIDENT LINERS are LUXURY LINERS

with Roomy Decks, Outdoor Swimming Pool

Nothing that might help to make an ocean voyage most pleasant has been overlooked on the President Liners. For your comfort, every stateroom is outside, large and airy. And for your recreation, you'll find spacious public rooms, broad decks for sports... and an outdoor swimming pool. Anyone who has ever traveled on a President Liner will agree: Dull moments aren't found on these popular ships.

TO SAN FRANCISCO 18 DAYS

THE SUNSHINE ROUTE Via Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, San Francisco, Panama Canal, Havana, New York.

Fortnightly sailings
Pres. Lincoln 6 a.m. July 4
Pres. Coolidge 6 a.m. July 14
Pres. Cleveland 6 a.m. Aug. 1
Pres. Hoover 6 a.m. Aug. 11
Pres. Taft 6 a.m. Aug. 20

EUROPE, NEW YORK

Inquire for round-trip tickets to Europe in connection with Lloyd Triestino.

Via Manila, Singapore, Penang, Colombo, Bombay, Suez Canal, Alexandria, Naples, Genoa, Marseilles.

Pres. Monroe 8 a.m. July 7
Pres. Van Buren 8 a.m. July 21
Pres. Garfield 8 a.m. Aug. 4
Pres. Cleveland 8 a.m. Aug. 18
Pres. Adams 8 a.m. Sept. 1

TO SEATTLE, VICTORIA 17 DAYS

THE EXPRESS ROUTE Via Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama and Victoria.

Fortnightly sailings
Pres. Jefferson 6 a.m. Aug. 4
Pres. Grant 6 a.m. Aug. 18
Pres. McKinley 6 a.m. Sept. 1
Pres. Jackson 6 a.m. Sept. 15
Pres. Jefferson 6 a.m. Sept. 29

MANILA

THE MOST FREQUENT SERVICE

Next Sailings
Pres. Coolidge 9 p.m. July 5
Pres. Monroe 8 a.m. July 7
Pres. Van Buren 8 a.m. July 21
Pres. Cleveland 8 p.m. July 24
Pres. Jefferson 6 p.m. July 28

MOST FREQUENT SERVICE ON THE PACIFIC

DOLLAR STEAMSHIP LINES AMERICAN MAIL LINE

PEDDER BUILDING—HONGKONG.
CANTON BRANCH—No. 4, Shikkee Street.

MESSAGERIES

3, Queen's Building.
Tel. 26651.

MARITIMES UNZEN!!!

1934 Holiday Season

The Messageries Maritimes Steamers will call at NAGASAKI as follows:

Leave Hong Kong	Arrive Nagasaki	Steamers	Leave Nagasaki	Arrive Hong Kong
June 29	July 8	Felix Roussel	July 11	July 17
July 15	July 22	Chenonceaux	July 26	July 31
July 29	Aug. 5	D'Aragnan	Aug. 9	Aug. 14
Aug. 12	Aug. 19	Athos II	Aug. 23	Aug. 28
Aug. 24	Sept. 2	Aramis	Sept. 6	Sept. 11
Sept. 9	Sept. 16	Andre Lebon	Sept. 20	Sept. 25
Sept. 21	Sept. 30	Felix Roussel	Oct. 4	Oct. 9

RATES OF PASSAGE

	HONG KONG to NAGASAKI
	1st Class	2nd Class	3rd Class	4th Class
Single	$135	$85	$50	$30
Round Trip (available 3 months)	$220	$130	$85	—

First class round trip tickets to Kobe, Nagasaki, Yokohama only interchangeable with the Canadian Pacific Railway Coy. For particulars apply to the Company's Agency, 3, Queen's Bldg.

They change so fast, there should be a new picture at least once a year, for photographs of the children never grow up.

Make an appointment to-day.

THE MING YUEN STUDIO

17, Queen's Road Central (First Floor)
(Between the H.K. Hotel and Dairy Farm Store, Queen's Road C.)

NIGHTMARE OF WAR

(Continued from Page 4.)

worked to explain to those who had remained at home just what this horror was. The novels and the plays have passed before us. We looked at the gruesome pictures and shuddered. But no one really understood. No one really learned anything. The artists were attempting the impossible. They were trying to translate a nightmare into the realms of actuality. Naturally they failed, as signally as did those who sought to bar their windows against a second visit of the terror.

Any soldier who served through any of the major engagements in the World War will agree with me that in looking back now the picture of those days is misted with unreality. Let him try, if he does not agree, to put his memories in actual words. He will find then that it cannot be done. He may cause a few shudders. But in the telling he will realize his inability to convey anything of the distorted picture which he may conjure up in his own thoughts. This present is one plane of existence. War, which is a flat denial of every cultural and ethical principle that has contributed to our present civilization, is a totally different one.

For example, let us glance back through the pages of history. Let us choose an isolated page of events which convulsed the world, however briefly. The Inquisition comes to mind. No doubt in those days there were those who struggled to open the eyes of their fellow men to the horror of the system. They failed because the confused majority believed in the necessity of doing evil that good might come of it. This confused thinking resulted in a nightmare of torture and cruelty—but is not war of the same stuff?

The parallel of the Inquisition is truer than one might at first be inclined to admit. There were those who believed that by torture and suffering men could be forced to embrace the true religion and their souls thereby be saved. But is not the belief in war based upon the same fallacy? We have believed that through murder, through such wholesale torture as the Inquisition never knew, by cruelty and barbarity, wrongs and inequalities might be righted.

Now, as we look back, we see clearly that the Inquisition was based on a condition of thought. It was in fact an unreality that gained credence. The Inquisition passed with the growing apprehension of liberty, justice and intelligence. Men woke from the dream that was the basis of the Inquisition's horror, and it passed into history as a dream of terror through which the world has long since passed.

If we had not seen that and recognized it clearly we to-day might be calling international conferences at which the experts would solemnly declare which instruments of torture might legally be used, and what form of religion a man must embrace to escape the attentions of the torturers.

But, because we have not yet classified war as another phase of the same distorted dream, we still debate and argue as to what weapons may legally be used when next we experience the nightmare. This is the dead weight that mankind carries in its struggle toward peace. We desire to escape the nightmare under certain conditions. We are ready to give up everything except the belief that we may awake from the nightmare with something tangible in our grasp.

In this state of unreason we call conferences and send our delegates and ambassadors. To our dismay the conferences fail. We cry out in our bitterness as we wait for the evasions, the indecisions and blunderings of the conferees. Yet what else can we expect? These agents, in their confusion, but reflect the thinking of those whom they serve.

Thus it becomes increasingly clear that disarmament is like

21 YEARS AGO

Extracts From the "Telegraph" Files

The following extracts are from the Hongkong Telegraph for the week ended June 28th, 1913.

The rate of dollar on demand was 1.115/8d.

Mr. G. W. Sewell was commended at the Police Court for his plucky rescue of a would-be suicide by diving into the harbour from a "Star" ferry-boat when the man jumped overboard.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen, interviewed on arrival in Hongkong, urged concessions to foreigners to build railways in China, saying in this way 60,000 or 70,000 miles could be laid down in ten years.

The Bandmann Opera Company appeared at the Theatre Royal in such musical comedies as "The Runaway Girl," "Gypsy Love," "The Pink Lady," and "The Count of Luxembourg."

every other problem—an individual one. If we ourselves believe in the nightmare, can we expect others to awake? If we insist on the locks and shutters, can we complain that the windows and doors of others remain locked and bolted? The fierce dogs that we keep in our yard for strictly defensive purposes may appear startlingly offensive to our neighbours. And all of these things are but evidences that we cling to the reality of the dream.

We send our ambassadors and delegates to work under the dark pall of shadows that guns and warships throw across the conference chamber, and wonder why the results are unsatisfactory. As if every one of us did not know that true disarmament is the disarming of the fears and suspicions of others through our own manifest good will and sincerity.

So it is as an old soldier who was sent out once and might conceivably be called upon once more that I watch the struggle of the nations to avoid a cataclysm that no one wishes to experience.

Fight The Depression!

Keep yourself in condition and you will better be able to weather business depression; for nothing gets a man down sooner than bad business coupled with ill-health.

To be fit, it is essential to keep the stomach and bowels in good order and to do this there is nothing better than an occasional dose of Pinkettes. This little laxative is non-gripping and non-habit-forming, and assists nature in a perfectly natural way to cleanse the food tract regularly. For perfect health take Pinkettes, obtainable at all chemists.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICES.

THE EAST ASIATIC CO. LTD. COPENHAGEN.

The Danish Motor Vessel, "AFRIKA"

having arrived from Copenhagen, Oslo, Gothenburg, Antwerp, Hamburg and Genoa, consignees of cargo are hereby informed that all goods are being landed and placed at their risk into the hazardous and/or extra hazardous Godowns of The Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co. Ltd., where delivery can be obtained as soon as the goods are landed.

No claims will be admitted after the goods have left the godowns and all goods remaining undelivered after the 4th July, 1934, 4 p.m., will be subject to rent.

All broken, chafed and damaged goods are to be left in the Godown, where they will be examined by Messrs. Anderson and Ashe on the 3rd July, 1934, at 10 a.m.

All claims against the vessel must be presented to the Underwriter within ten days of the ship's arrival, or they will not be recognised.

No Fire Insurance will be effected. Bills of Lading will be countersigned by JOHN MANNERS & CO. LTD., Agents.

Mercantile Bank Building, Hongkong, 27th July, 1934.

WHEN AT HOME

The Hongkong Telegraph.

MAY BE PURCHASED

AT

SELFRIDGE'S

LONDON, W.1.

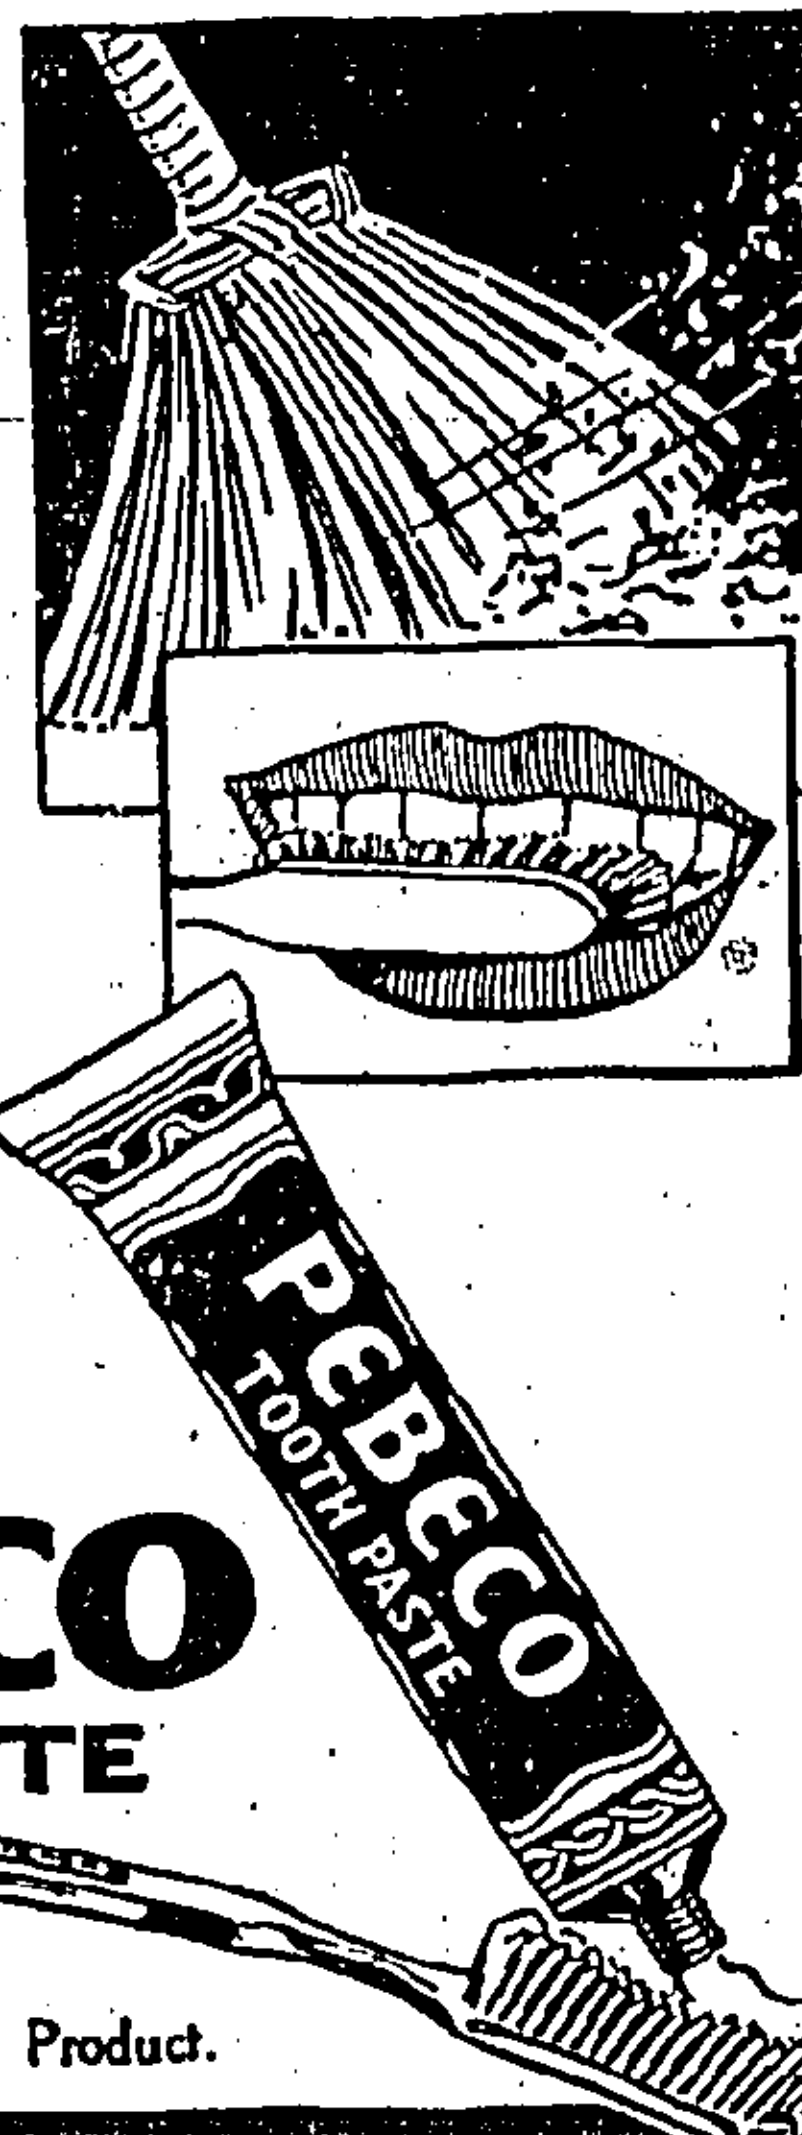

Sweep the germs of disease out of your mouth!

Disease most frequently enters the body by way of the mouth. Prevent tooth decay and sweep out the germs of disease by the daily use of Pebecco.

A healthy mouth can withstand infection—an unhealthy mouth cannot resist disease. Keep your mouth healthy, and your teeth sound, with Pebecco.

PEBECO TOOTH PASTE

A British Product.

THE BLUE FUNNEL LINE

REGULAR AND FAST
FREIGHT AND
PASSENGER SERVICES

LONDON SERVICE

SARPEDON 14 July: Marseilles, London, Rotterdam & Glasgow

PERSEUS 11 July: Casablanca, London, Rotterdam, Hamburg & Hull

LIVERPOOL SERVICE

DARDANUS 1 July: Tripoli, Havre, Liverpool, Glasgow, Hamburg, Danzig, Neufahrwasser & Gdynia

NEW YORK SERVICE

ADRASTUS 14 July: Boston, New York, Philadelphia & Baltimore via Manila, Straits & Bues

PACIFIC SERVICE

IXION 12 July: Japan, Victoria, Seattle & Vancouver

INWARD SERVICE

ACAPENOR Due 1 July From U. K. via Straits.

IXION Due 9 July From Pacific Coast via Japan & Shanghai

Specially reduced fares are quoted for cargo steamers with limited passenger accommodation.

For freight, passage rates and information apply to the under-mentioned.

BUTTERFIELD & SWIRE.

Agents.

BARBER-WILHELMSSEN LINE

MONTHLY SERVICE.

To Pacific To Panama Atlantic
SAN FRANCISCO BALBOA NEW YORK
LOS ANGELES CRISTOBAL BOSTON

NEXT SAILING

M.V. "TRICOLOR"

18th JULY.

EXCELLENT ACCOMMODATION
FOR 12-PASSENGERS.

DODWELL & CO., LTD.

Agents.

Queen's Building.

Telephone 28021.

SWAN, CULBERTSON & FRITZ.

Investment bankers and brokers in securities and commodities.
Daily New York and London Stock Exchange Service.
Commodity Futures on the principal American markets.

Members of:

New York Cotton Exchange

Chicago Board of Trade.

Commodity Exchange, Inc.

(Silver, Rubber, Silk, Copper, Hides and Tin).

New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange.

Correspondents for Hayden, Stone & Co.

Telephones: 30244, 30245, 30246. Cable Address: Swanstock

9, Queen's Road Central

(Corner of Ice House Street).

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Freckles Has to Have His Joke!

By Blosser

WEDDING OR BIRTHDAY PRESENTS

Remember, whenever you have to send a present for any occasion, you will find what you want at

KOMOR'S

Chater Road. York Building.

Lacquer, Porcelain, Ivory,
Silk-Ware, Etc.

Prices from 50 cts. upwards.

ROUND TRIP SPECIAL SUMMER EXCURSIONS

To JAPAN: 1st Class
Nagasaki-Kobe H.K.$225
Yokohama 255

On sale June, July, August & September
Return limit 3 months. Final limit Oct. 31.
Tickets interchangeable with M.M.,
P. and O. and N.Y.K. (Pacific Service).

Tourist 1st Class
To HONOLULU G$224 G$365
VICTORIA G$240 G$432
VANCOUVER G$240 G$432
SEATTLE

Fares via Empress of Japan and Empress of Canada slightly higher.

To MANILA (1st Class) H.K.$180
On sale June, July, August & September
Return limit one month.

Memoranda: N.Y.K. Ship Nagasaki Kobe Yokohama Honolulu
Leave Arrive Leave Arrive
Emp. of Japan July 15 July 20 July 27 July 31
Emp. of Canada Aug. 10 Aug. 15 Aug. 22 Aug. 26
Emp. of Japan Aug. 24 Aug. 29 Sept. 5 Sept. 9

TO MANILA
EMPRESS OF RUSSIA July 5.

For further information please apply to:

CANADIAN PACIFIC
WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

General Passenger Agents in the Orient for the CUNARD LINE.

San Francisco via Shanghai, Japan Ports & Honolulu.
Asama Maru (calls Nagasaki) Wed., 4th July at 7 a.m.

Chichibu Maru (calls Nagasaki) Wed., 1st Aug. at 8 a.m.

Tatsuta Maru Wed., 15th Aug. at 10 a.m.

Seattle & Vancouver.
Hiyama Maru (starts from Kobe) Mon., 16th July.

London, Marseilles, Antwerp & Rotterdam.
Katori Maru Sat., 7th July.

Kashima Maru Sat., 21st July.

Yasukuni Maru Fri., 3rd Aug.

Sydney & Melbourne via Manila & Ports.
Kamo Maru Sat., 28th July.

Kitano Maru Sat., 26th Aug.

Bombay via Singapore, Penang, & Colombo.
Tottori Maru Sat., 29th June.

Tango Maru Wed., 11th July.

South America (West Coast) via Japan, Honolulu,
Los Angeles, Mexico & Panama.
Bokuyo Maru Mon., 30th July.

New York via Panama.
Taketoyo Maru Wed., 18th July.

Asuka Maru Thurs., 16th Aug.

Liverpool via Port Said, Beyrouth, Istanbul, Piraeus, Genoa & Valencia.
Daiban Maru Sat., 14th July.

Calcutta via Singapore, Penang & Rangoon.
Tokushima Maru Fri., 29th June.

Bongal Maru Sun., 8th July.

Morioka Maru Sat., 14th July.

Shanghai, Kobe & Yokohama.
Akita Maru Thurs., 5th July.

Hakone Maru Fri., 6th July.

Kitano Maru (Nagasaki direct) Fri., 20th July.

*Cargo only.

For further information apply to:—
NIPPON YUSEN KAISHA.
Tel. 30291. (private exchanges to all Depts.)

LLOYD TRIESTINO
FLOTTE RIUNITE LLOYD TRIESTINO-MADITIMA ITALIANA-SITHAR

FAR EAST-INDIA-ITALY.

Express Passenger Service.

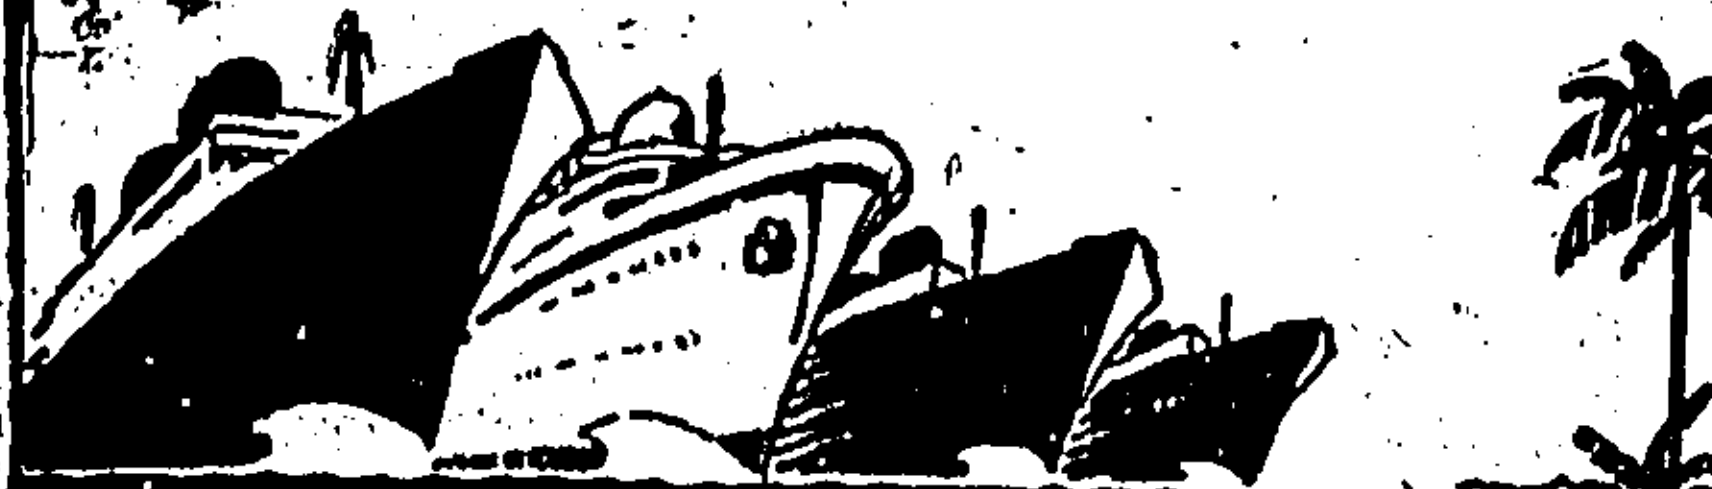

S.S. "GANGE" for Shanghai 5th JULY
S.S. "GANGE" for Italy (London) 15th JULY

Freight Service.

M.V. "HILDA" for Italy via ports 20th July.

DODWELL & CO., LTD.

Agent.

P. & O. BANKING CORPORATION LTD.

Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed and Paid-up $2,500,000
Reserve Fund $2,500,000

HEAD OFFICE: 17-19, Leadenhall Street, London, E.C. 3.

WEST END BRANCH: 14-16, Cockspur Street, London S.W.1.

BRANCHES: Bombay, Calcutta, Canton, Colombo, Hongkong, Madras, Shanghai, Singapore.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted. Loans and overdrafts granted on approved security. Current and Fixed Deposit accounts opened.

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS: Interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT and PASSENGERS' CHECKS issued.

For use only on Board P. & O. and D. L. Line steamers, and at Ports of Call.

British Income Tax Recovered. Executions and Trusteeships undertaken.

J. DONALDSON, Acting Manager.

Hongkong, 20th February, 1934.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By W. E. McKenney

Solution to Previous Contract Problem

A player never is considered good until he can play a good defensive game. The opportunity for fine plays on the defence are naturally much more rare than those given to the declarer; and again, good plays are somewhat difficult to recognize, on the defence.

But here is one hand that helped keep the team of Irving H. Silverman in the runnings in the recent Cleveland Inter-Club Whist League race.

Mr. Silverman was sitting in the East, and in response to his partner's diamond overall, he opened the eight of diamonds, which North won with the jack. North now reasoned that with the ace, king, queen, and jack of spades out against him, the spades 'undoubtedly were evenly divided—otherwise, why didn't one of his opponents bid spades?

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

On this play, Mr. Silverman discarded his ace of spades, hoping thereby to create an entry for his partner. Of course, that is just what happened.

Now, when the declarer led the eight of spades, to try to establish the fourth spade trick, West won with the queen and cashed the queen and ten of diamonds, thereby defeating the contract one trick.

He could see that he could make four hearts, three diamonds, and a club—eight in all—and now, if he could establish the fourth spade, he could make his contract without the necessity of trying for the club finesse.

Therefore, he led a small spade, Mr. Silverman in the East winning with the king and returning the six of diamonds, North winning with the king. North played another small spade. Mr. Silverman realized what the declarer was attempting to do and he could see that, unless the diamond suit could become established before the spades, the declarer was going to make his contract.

So, on this trick he played a small spade. The ten was played from dummy and West won the trick with the jack.

The deuce of diamonds was returned, and North had to win the trick with the ace. This informed Mr. Silverman that his partner's diamond suit was now set, but to defeat the contract, West would have to get into the lead.

BANKS.

THE CHARTERED BANK OF INDIA, AUSTRALIA & CHINA.

Incorporated by Royal Charter 1824.
HEAD OFFICE: LONDON.

Paid-up Capital $5,000,000
Reserve Fund $5,000,000
Reserve Liability of Proprietors $5,000,000

HEAD OFFICE: 17-19, Leadenhall Street, London, E.C. 3.

WEST END BRANCH: 14-16, Cockspur Street, London S.W.1.

BRANCHES: Bombay, Calcutta, Canton, Colombo, Hongkong, Madras, Shanghai, Singapore.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted. Loans and overdrafts granted on approved security. Current and Fixed Deposit accounts opened.

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS: Interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT and PASSENGERS' CHECKS issued.

For use only on Board P. & O. and D. L. Line steamers, and at Ports of Call.

British Income Tax Recovered. Executions and Trusteeships undertaken.

J. DONALDSON, Acting Manager.

Hongkong, 20th February, 1934.

THE YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK, LIMITED.

Capital (fully paid up) $100,000,000
Reserve Fund $12,750,000

HEAD OFFICE: YOKOHAMA.

Branches and Agencies at: Alexandria, Honolulu, Hongkong, Kobe, London, Lyons, Manila, Peking, San Francisco, Shanghai, Singapore, Suez, Tientsin, Yokohama.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted. Loans and overdrafts granted on approved security. Current and Fixed Deposit accounts opened.

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS: Interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT and PASSENGERS' CHECKS issued.

For use only on Board P. & O. and D. L. Line steamers, and at Ports of Call.

British Income Tax Recovered. Executions and Trusteeships undertaken.

J. DONALDSON, Acting Manager.

Hongkong, 11th April, 1934.

THE BANK OF CANTON, LTD.

ESTABLISHED 1912.
Head Office: Hongkong.

Authorized Capital $11,000,000
Paid-up Capital $5,000,000
Total Resources $5,110,000

Branches: Canton, Tientsin, Shanghai, Hankow, London, San Francisco, Hongkong.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted. Loans and overdrafts granted on approved security. Current and Fixed Deposit accounts opened.

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS: Interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT and PASSENGERS' CHECKS issued.

For use only on Board P. & O. and D. L. Line steamers, and at Ports of Call.

British Income Tax Recovered. Executions and Trusteeships undertaken.

J. DONALDSON, Acting Manager.

Hongkong, 2nd June, 1934.

THE BANK OF EAST ASIA, LIMITED.

Authorized Capital $10,000,000.00
Paid-up Capital $5,000,000.00
Reserve and Undivided Profits $2,484,000.00

HEAD OFFICE: HONGKONG
12, Des Voeux Road Central.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Sir Shewan Chow, Chairman.

Li Koon Chiu, Esq., Li Lan Sang, Esq., P. C. Kwok, Esq., Wong Chee Gon, Esq., Wong Yee Tung, Esq., Kan Yung Po, Esq., Chan Ching Shuk, Esq., Kan Tung Po, Esq., Chief Manager, Li Te Fong, Esq., Manager.

BRANCHES AND AGENCIES: Amoy, Melbourne, Shanghai, Batavia, Nanking, Singapore, Bombay, New York, Swatow, Calcutta, Canton, Szechuan, Haiphong, Peking, Tientsin, Hankow, Penang, Malacca, Hongkong, Kobe, Yokohama, London, San Francisco, Manila, Cebu.

Every description of Banking and Exchange business transacted. Loans granted on approved security. Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local and Foreign Currencies on terms which will be quoted on application.

Safe Deposit Boxes To Let. KAN TUNG PO, Chief Manager.

Hongkong, 1st March, 1934.

THE HONG KONG PENINSULA HOTEL; HONGKONG HOTEL; REPULSE BAY HOTEL; PEAK HOTEL

&
SHANGHAI

ASTOR HOUSE; PALACE HOTEL; HOTELS

LIMITED.

In association with the Grand Hotel des Wagons Lits, Peking.

Penang

The Scenic Gem of Malaya

Runnymede Hotel

Malaya's Premier Hotel

also under the same management

THE CRAG HOTEL

Penang Hill

(A health station)

CABLES "RUNNYMEDE"

RUNNYMEDE HOTEL, LTD.

HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION.

Authorized Capital $50,000,000
Issued and Fully Paid-Up $20,000,000

Reserve Fund: Sterling $5,000,000
Silver $10,000,000
Reserve Liability of Proprietors $20,000,000

HEAD OFFICE: HONGKONG
BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Hon. Mr. C. G. S. Maclellan, Chairman.

S. H. Dowdell, Esq., Deputy Chairman.

Hon. Mr. W. H. Dell, G. M. M. Esq., A. H. Compton, Esq., T. S. Morrison, Esq., Mr. J. Kewell, Esq., T. E. Pearce, Esq., G. C. Kitchin, Esq.

V. M. GRAYBURN, Esq., CHIEF MANAGER.

BRANCHES: LONDON, LYONS, MALACCA, MUAR (JOHORE), SINGAPORE, NEW YORK, PEKING, PENANG, HONGKONG, SHANGHAI, SINGAPORE, SOERABAYA, SUNGAI PATANI, TIENTSIN, YOKOHAMA, YOKOHAMA, YOKOHAMA.

Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local Currency and Sterling on terms which will be quoted on application.

Hongkong, 24th May, 1934.

HONGKONG SAVINGS BANK.

The business of the above Bank is conducted by the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. Rules may be obtained on application.

FOR THE HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION.
V. M. GRAYBURN, CHIEF MANAGER.

Hongkong, 26th February, 1934.

THE BANK OF EAST ASIA, LIMITED.

Authorized Capital $10,000,000.00
Paid-up Capital $5,000,000.00
Reserve and Undivided Profits $2,484,000.00

HEAD OFFICE: HONGKONG
12, Des Voeux Road Central.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Sir Shewan Chow, Chairman.

Li Koon Chiu, Esq., Li Lan Sang, Esq., P. C. Kwok, Esq., Wong Chee Gon, Esq., Wong Yee Tung, Esq., Kan Yung Po, Esq., Chan Ching Shuk, Esq., Kan Tung Po, Esq., Chief Manager, Li Te Fong, Esq., Manager.

BRANCHES AND AGENCIES: Amoy, Melbourne, Shanghai, Batavia, Nanking, Singapore, Bombay, New York, Swatow, Calcutta, Canton, Szech

MAJESTIC

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.20 p.m.

PRICES THE PROOF!
THE PROOF YOUR GUIDE!

See the Special Announcement in the Pictorial Supplement

of the Hongkong Telegraph

— TO-MORROW —

AMAZING VALUES

FOR TWO WEEKS AT THE

TAJMAHAL SILK STORE

KING'S THEATRE BLDG:

D'AGUILAR STREET.

I know!

and wash all my Silks,
Flannels & Woollens
with

INO FLAKES

I also use
INO TOILET SOAP
always!

Made in Nottingham, England,
by Gerard's.

Sold by all better Stores.

Keller, Kern & Co., Ltd.
Agents

At the
REPULSE BAY HOTEL

A SPECIAL CABARET DINNER DANCE

By Popular Request
ON SATURDAY, 30th JUNE
Extended night till 1 a.m.

ADDED ATTRACTION
KAILI'S HAWAIIAN TROUBADOURS
QUEENIE KAILI, PEARL ALAMA & DAVID KAILI
Presenting an Entertainment of
FASCINATING
HULA DANCES, SONGS & INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

DANCE MUSIC BY
THE "ANDETONIANS" BAND

Intending Diners are requested to book
as early as possible. Phone 27775
COVER CHARGE $6.00 PER PERSON.

THE HONGKONG & SHANGHAI HOTELS, LTD.

SHARP RISE IN SILVER

DOLLAR WELL BELOW PARITY

LAGGING BEHIND METAL PRICE

The Hongkong dollar again rose 1/8th this morning to 1s. 5 3/4d., and the local market remains steady. The dollar is, however, still considerably below silver parity.

Within the past ten days, silver has risen 1 1/16d., but the Hongkong dollar has advanced only 5/8ths. Parity is about 1s. 6 3/4d. The falling due of certain speculative contracts this month is one of the factors keeping the dollar below parity rate.

Silver is firm both in London and New York, where continued rises in the prices are reported.

SHARP RISE.

The American Oriental Finance Corporation report that Messrs. E. A. Pierce and Co., of New York, comment as follows on the silver market:—Futures were sharply higher on speculative buying of distant months and the market continued to absorb July offerings, which were credited to Government account. March option was sold at 48.64, within a fraction of fifty cents, the basis on which the Government is expected to value silver. It was the opinion of the market that this was the present objective of bull operators.

Messrs. White, Weld and Co., of New York, for whom Messrs. S. E. Levy and Co. are the local agents, report:—Prices are strong and are working into new high levels for the current movement. Overseas expect further strength in view of the Government silver purchase plan.

STEEL STRIKE AVERTED

AN ARBITRATION BOARD

AGREED BY BOTH SIDES

Washington, June 28.

The threatened strike in the steel industry, which at one time seemed likely to bring half a million men out of work, has been averted.

A Board of Three will be appointed to arbitrate the differences. Both sides have agreed to accept the decisions of the Board, which will be selected by President Roosevelt.

The steel agreement was negotiated by Miss Perkins, the Secretary of Labour, the only woman in the American Cabinet, whose plan was approved by the President.

The Board has been appointed and consists of Judge Stacey, of North Carolina, Rear-Admiral (Ret.) H. E. Wiley, of New York, and James Mullenbach, of Chicago.

ROOSEVELT STATEMENT.

President Roosevelt has issued a statement proclaiming that the Board consists of impartial men of thoroughly independent judgment and fully empowered to act.

The functions of the Board will be limited to labour relations in the iron and steel industry.

The President anticipates that the Board will serve to maintain industrial peace with justice and the further establishment of sound labour relations in this important industry.

He confidently expects the full cooperation of both sides.—Reuter.

GOOD PROGRESS

CLEARING-HOUSE NOT NOW NECESSARY?

ANGLO-GERMAN DISCUSSIONS

London, June 29.

It is understood that good progress has been made in the Anglo-German financial discussions, arising from the threatened moratorium on the Dawes and Young Loans, and Britain's counter-measures.

It is stated that there is now a reasonable prospect of an agreement which will obviate the necessity for the establishment of a clearing-office.

In the House of Lords this evening, the Debts Clearing Offices and Import Restrictions Repeals Bill was read a second time and passed the remaining stages.

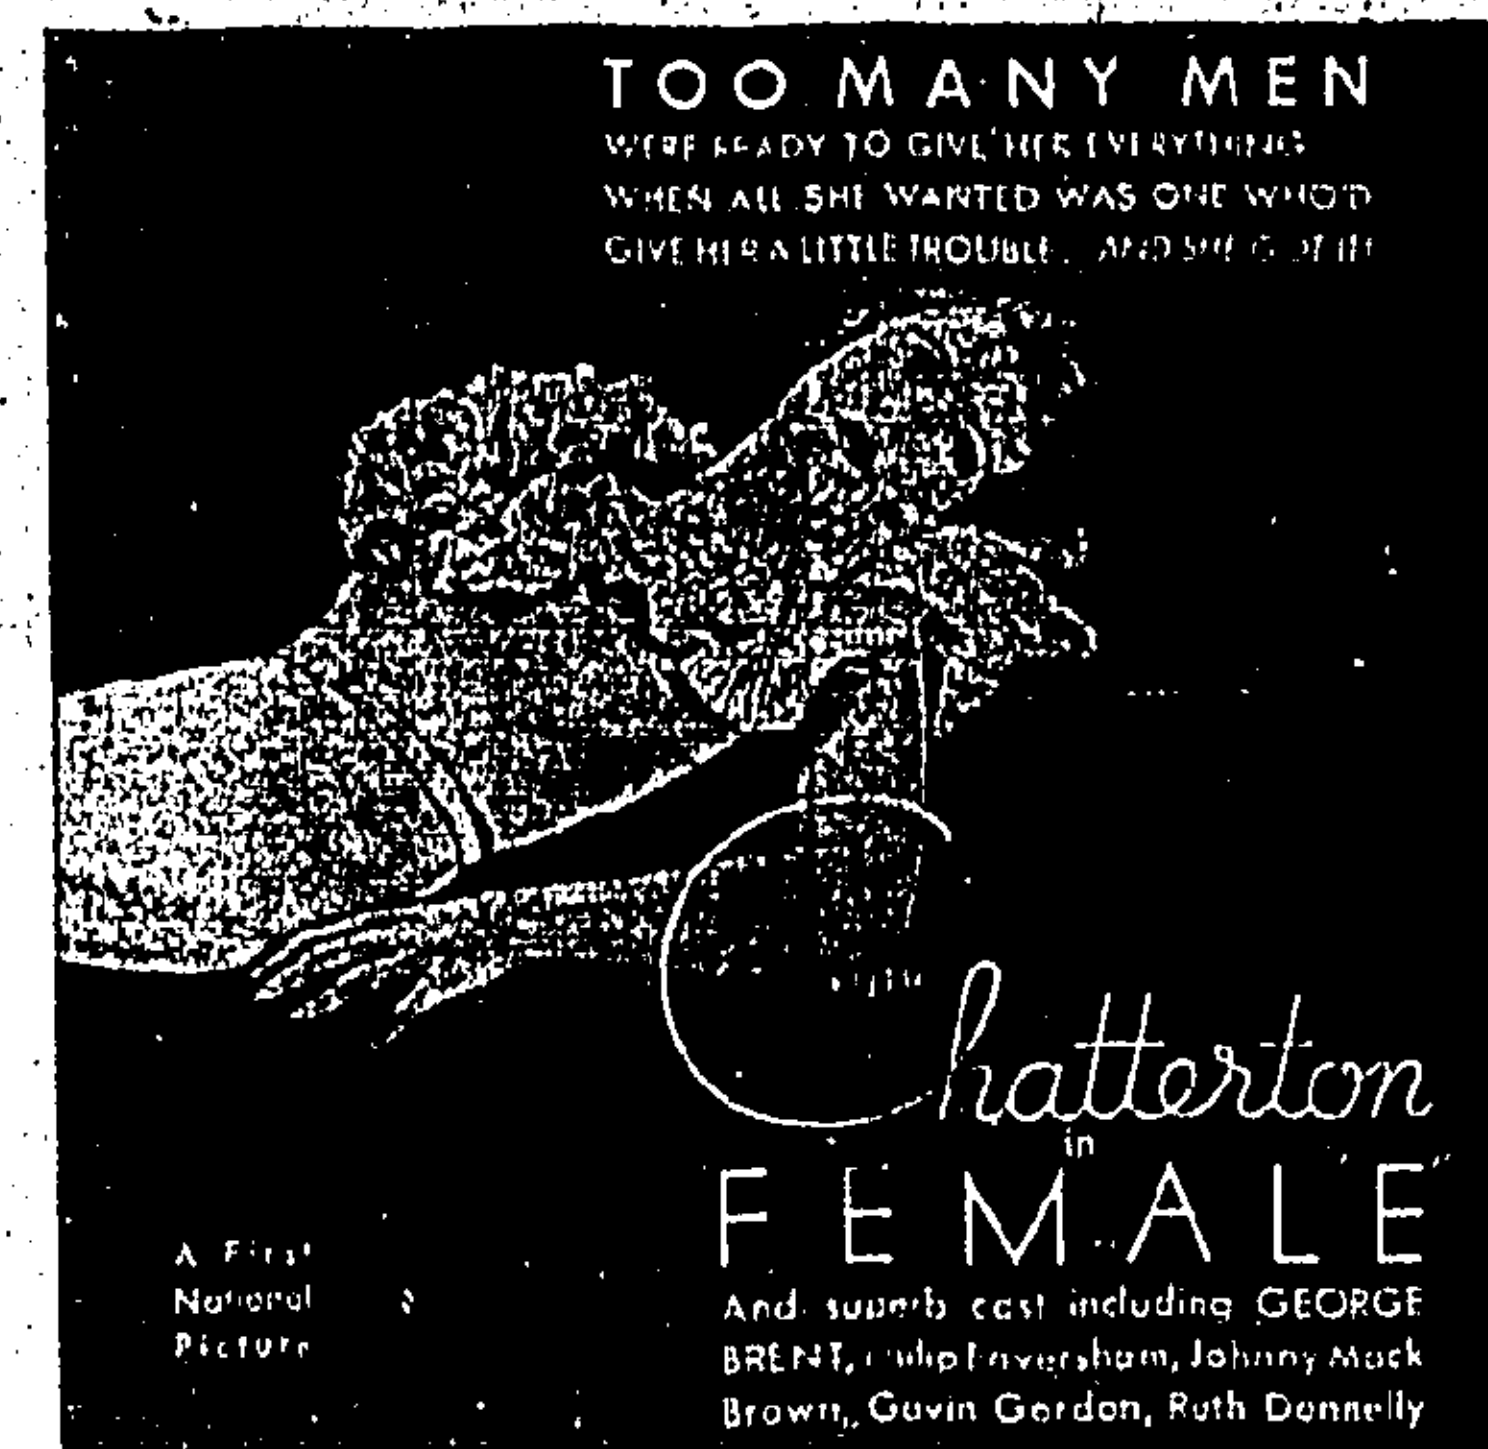

Lord Stanhope, in moving the second reading, explained that the measure could apply not only to the case of Germany but to other countries also.

He expressed the hope that the negotiations proceeding with the German representatives would make it unnecessary to institute the clearing-house arrangements but it was nevertheless necessary that the Government should be given powers to take action against discrimination.—British Wireles.

Struck by a crane whilst unloading cargo from the steamer Col Di Lana yesterday, a labourer, Fan Sik, was injured and was sent to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment.

QUILLO

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.10, 7.20 & 9.30

ALSO SHOWING

Musical Specialty
"FIFI"

Van Dine Thriller
"CAMPUS MYSTERY"

TO-DAY and
TO-MORROW

JESSIE
MATTHEWS

At Hankow Rd.
Kowloon

STAR

Britain's Most Brilliant Success

STAR

At 2.30, 5.20,
7.20 & 9.20

'Good Companions'

Phone
57795

ALHAMBRA THEATRE

To-day & To-morrow at 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.20

"AFTER YOU, MY
DARLING, NO
OTHER MAN CAN EVER MATTER"

Is it the same with every woman? Is there always one man to whom she belongs —all and forever? And is this man the secretly loved one to the last, always the man who loved her first?
See...

B. A. B. B. A. R. A Stanwyck
EVER IN MY HEART

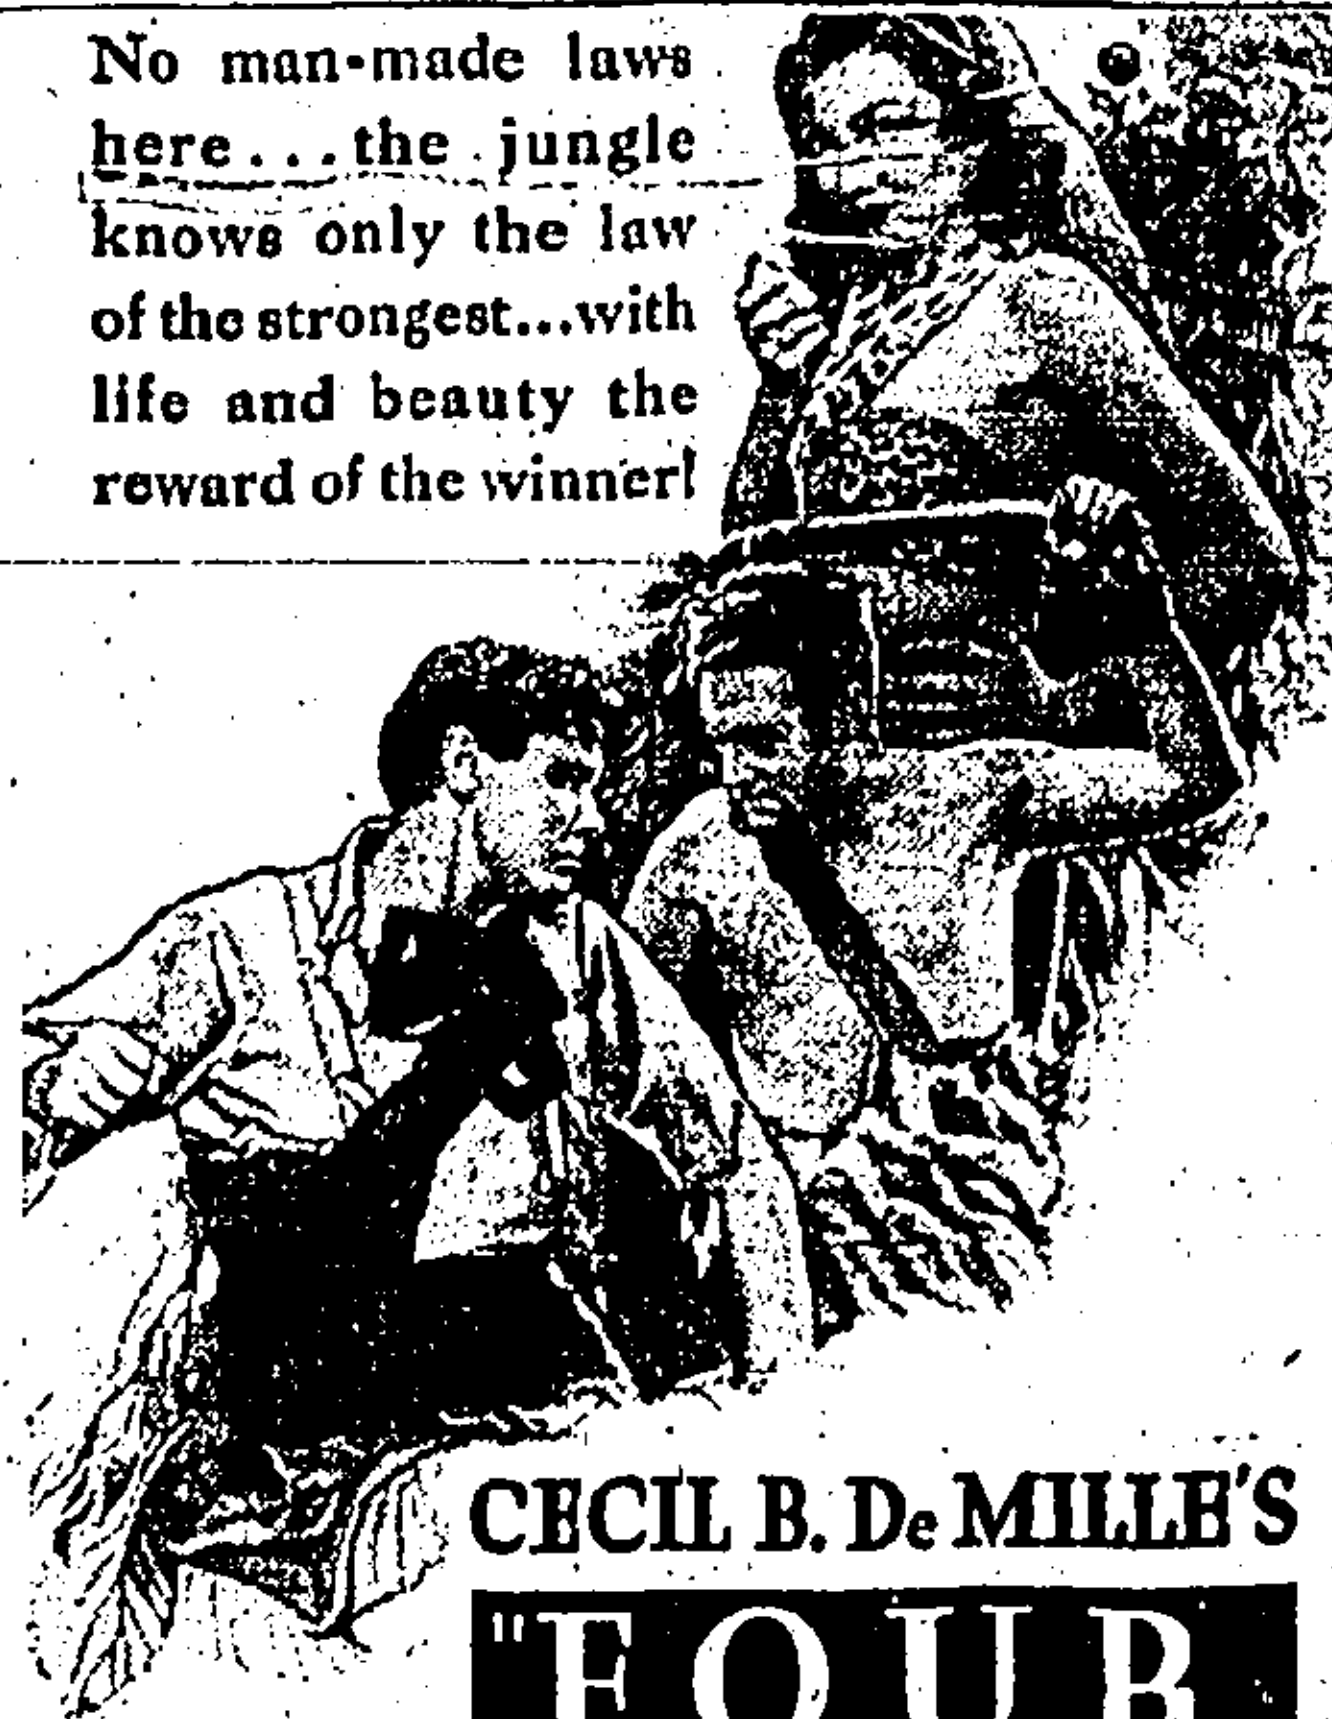

A Warner Bros. Picture with OTTO KRUGER, RALPH BELLAMY, RUTH DONNELLY

TO-DAY ONLY
DAILY AT 2.30, 5.10, 7.15
and
9.30 P.M.

BOOKING
AT THE
THEATRE
TEL. 25313,
& 25332.

No man-made laws
here... the jungle knows only the law of the strongest...with life and beauty the reward of the winner!

CECIL B. De MILLE'S

"FOUR FRIGHTENED PEOPLE"

A Paramount
Picture
with
CLAUDETTE COLBERT-HERBERT MARSHALL
MARY BOLAND-WILLIAM GARGAN

TO-MORROW

It's tough to be a bad boy in love with a good dame!

SYLVIA
SIDNEY
FREDRIC
MARCH
IN
"GOOD DAME"

a B. P. Schulberg production
A Paramount Picture

4 SHOWS
DAILY
2.30-5.15
7.15-9.30

ORIENTAL THEATRE

FLEMING
ROAD
WANGHAI
TEL. 28478

FOR TO-DAY & TO-MORROW.

JEAN HARLOW
LEE TRACY

FRANK MORGAN
FRANCOT TONE
PAT O'BRIEN
ONA MERKEL
TED HEALY

TEMPEST
IN A MOVIE STUDIO!
A COMEDY SUPREME!

AN EXPLOSION OF LAUGHTER
WITH BEAUTIFUL JEAN HARLOW
AS THE FEMALE FIRE-CRACKER OF FILMDOM!

She's all T.N.T. (Tantalizing, Naughty, Temperamental) Harlow and Tracy make this one of the merriest pictures of the year!

THE INSIDE HOWLS
OF HOLLYWOOD STARDOM!

EXCHANGE RATES

	June 27.	June 28.
Paris	76.15/32	76.25/32
Geneva	16.51	16.56 1/4
Berlin	12.80 1/4	12.80 1/4
Helsingfors	22 1/2	22 1/2
Oslo	19.00 1/2	19.00 1/2
Athens	82 1/2	82 1/2
Bilan	65 1/2	65 1/2
Buenos Aires	80 1/2	80 1/2
Shanghai	1/4 1/4	1/4 1/4
New York	6.05 1/4	6.05 1/4
Amsterdam	7.45 1/4	7.45 1/4
Vienna	27 1/2	27 1/2
Prague	121 1/2	121 1/2
Bucharest	503	503
Madrid	88 1/2	88 1/2
Hongkong	1/6 1/2	1/6 1/2
Brussels	21.67 1/2	21.67 1/2
Stockholm	20.40	20.40
Copenhagen	22.30 1/2	22.30 1/2
Lisbon	110	110
Bombay	1/6 3/4	1/6 3/4
Yokohama	1/2 1/2	1/2 1/2

RUBBER PRICES

LATEST SINGAPORE QUOTATIONS

Messrs Benjamin and Potts have received the following daily currency quotations (buyers) from Singapore to-day for raw rubber:
Spot	22 1/2 up 1/4
July/Sept	23 1/2 " 1/4
Oct/Dec	24 1/2 " 1/4
Jan/Rich	25 1/2 " 1/4
Market—Steady.
Rio	4 1/4 " 1/4
Montevideo	38 1/2 " 1/4
Belgrade	22 1/2 " 1/4
Montreal	4 1/4 " 1/4
Silver (spot)	20 1/2 " 1/4
Silver (forward)	20 1/2 " 1/4
War Loan	108 1/2 " 1/4
108 1/2 " 1/4

Printed and Published for the Proprietors by FREDERICK PHILIP FRANKLIN, at 1 and 3, Wyndham Street in the City of Victoria,
Hongkong